

Portland Drops Game While Hollywood Beats Solons

BEAVER'S MARGIN CUT TO 4 GAMES TUESDAY EVENING

Los Angeles, By Nosing Out Ducks, Crowds San Francisco Out of Third Place.

By the Associated Press

Los Angeles crowded San Francisco out of third place in the Coast league by defeating Portland 5 to 4 Tuesday night. The Angels trimmed the league leaders by making three runs in the eighth inning. The visitors made two in the ninth on Finney's homer, but were unable to produce the tying rally.

The Oaks helped push the Seals down the ladder by taking the series opener 2 to 1, as Roy Joiner, young southpaw, had the better of his pitching duel with Lee Stine. Joiner knocked in the winning run in the fifth when he doubled, scoring Kintana, who got on base with a single. The Seals' only run came in the eighth frame.

With the score tied at three-all in the seventh, Hollywood scored two runs, and made another in the ninth, to defeat Sacramento, 6 to 3. Mike Gaudin, Star's third baseman, waded the biggest hit, collecting a homer, a double and a single to drive in three runs.

Behind the six-hit pitching of Ted Pilette, the Missions won their first victory in eight starts by defeating Seattle, 2 to 1. The Indians got their tally in the second inning on a triple and a long-outfield fly. The Reds combined four hits in the fifth inning for their scores.

Yesterday's results:	R. H. E.

Brooklyn Wins Nine of Last 11; Crowding Braves

By Herbert W. Barker (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Playing the ball Brooklyn's fans expected of them at the start of the season, Max Carey's Brooklyn Dodgers are soaring toward a first division berth in the national league's pennant fight.

Victors in nine of their last 11 games the Dodgers were in fifth place today, only a game and a half behind the fourth place Boston Braves. Their last triumph—a 4-2 verdict over the Chicago Cubs—was gained at the expense of the sensational rookie right-hander, Lon Warneke. It was Warneke's fifth defeat against 16 victories. Three of his losses have been credited to Brooklyn.

Warneke held a 2-1 lead going into the last half of the eighth after a great duel with Freddy Heimach but the Dodgers got to him for three runs and the ball game. Johnny Frederick's pinch double drove in the winning run.

The Cubs lost no ground in the pennant chase, however, for the league-leading Pittsburgh Pirates accepted their fourth straight defeat at Philadelphia, 11-6 as Chuck Klein cracked his 31st homer of the year. The Phillies now trail Chicago by only one game and Pittsburgh by six.

Boston rallied for one run in the ninth off Dixie Dean to turn back the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-3, while Waite Hoyt scattered 11 hits to give the New York Giants a 3-2 decision over the Cincinnati Reds.

In the American league, Washington whipped the Chicago White Sox 4-1 behind Alvin Crowder's six-hit pitching. Young Bill Chamberlain made his debut for the White Sox and allowed the Senators only five hits but his teammates' three errors cost him the game.

The St. Louis Browns made it three in a row from the Boston Red Sox, 6-4, bunting five hits for four runs off Bob Weiland in the second inning. Ed Durham went in and held the Browns to one hit for the next five and one-third innings before retiring for a pinch hitter. The Browns' last brace of tallies were scored off Boener. George Blaholder pitched effectively until the ninth when the Red Sox rallied for three runs.

Wait On Tee For Slow Foursomes

By Johnny Farrell (As Told to Arlie McGovern)

You can save yourself much fretting and probably several bad shots, if you wait until the foursome ahead is on the green before you drive off. Do all your hesitating on the tee, not on the fairway.

The success of your golf game depends largely upon your mental attitude, and with a slow foursome ahead, it is irritating to have to stand on the fairway behind your ball before you can play.

However, this is not true at the tee. Your foursome can chat there in a relaxed manner, so that by the time the match ahead has reached the green, you can play right through without waiting for your second shot.

Naturally, with the increasing popularity of the game courses are crowded during the week-end, but if your foursome will wait as I suggest, you can get much more enjoyment out of your game.

Gus Sonnenberg Is Sentenced to Jail

LAWRENCE, Mass., Aug. 3 (AP)—Gus Sonnenberg, former claimant to the world's heavyweight wrestling title, was found guilty Tuesday of driving while under the influence of liquor and driving to endanger. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 on the first charge and to serve three months in the house of correction on the other. He appealed and was held in $500 bail.

A charge of manslaughter against the wrestler, based on the fatal injury of Patrolman Richard L. Morrisey in a collision between the officer's and Sonnenberg's automobiles two weeks ago, was dismissed.

Sport Slants

By Alan J. Gould (Associated Press Sports Editor)

It is a strange circumstance that finds two of the world's greatest swimmers, George Kojac and Leonard Spence, missing from the Olympic aquatic carnival. Kojac is the fastest of all backstrokers while Spence is the peer at breast stroke swimming.

The case of Spence is relatively simple, since he happens to be a product of British Guinea, which has no outlet for its athletic talent in the Olympics and found no way to attach himself to another delegation, as did his brother, Walter Spence, of the Canadian team.

Kojac's absence is more difficult to explain, although his friends believe the responsibilities of making financial ends meet, in his quest of a medical education, caused him to abandon plans to enter the American trials and defend the Olympic backstroke championship.

MISSED TRYOUTS
The fact remains, however, that railroad tickets were bought for Kojac to make the trip from New York to Cincinnati for the tryouts, that he assured the American coach, Bob Kipphuth, he would be on hand and that he has not yet explained his failure to appear.

Kojac had gone so far as to do some preliminary training, on Kipphuth's invitation, at New Haven. Without him, the United States will have difficulty defending the Olympic team championship against the strong challenge of Japan.

In addition to his superiority at backstroke swimming, Kojac would have been a good bet to win the 100 meter free style from Barany, the Hungarian star and present favorite.

LAND OF RISING SWIMMERS
The rise of the Japanese in swimming, Kipphuth tells me, is one of the real sensations in sport.

They have come up to equal terms with the rest of the leading swimming nations, including the United States, within a period of eight years devoted to concentrated development, training and competition.

"Every boy in Japan knows how to swim," said Kipphuth. "I was amazed on my visit there last year to find how thoroughly they adopted western methods and stimulated nationwide interest. The Japanese, as a nation, develop strong legs and this is a great natural asset in their swimming prowess."

"They have turned in some astonishing performances and the only question in the Olympics is whether their younger men, under pressure for the first time in international competition, can do their best."

Millions Spent on Structure
It is impossible even to estimate the cost of St. Peter's church at Rome. This church, which is probably the largest church edifice in the world, has been centuries in the building, and the question of money cost has not entered into the matter at all. Millions have been spent both for the structure and for the decorations.
