

LOCAL BRIEFS

Returns to Office—Dr. Ray Murphy, who has been ill for the last six weeks, has returned to his office.

Here From Iowa—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Klauer, of Dubuque, Iowa, were visitors in La Grande yesterday and today, stopping at one of the local hotels.

Pair Wed—As soon as Gene E. Gibson, Richard and Alice De Bode, Baker, had obtained a marriage license yesterday at the offices of C. K. McCormick, they called at the office of County Judge U. G. Couch, who performed the marriage ceremony for them.

Court In Session—Nothing more unusual than the monthly auditing of bills took up the time of Judge U. G. Couch and County Commissioners W. R. Ledbetter and W. W. Stevens when August county court convened this morning. Just what the docket would present had not yet concerned the judicial body as the members were "knee deep" in the monthly statements at noon today.

Mistaken Identity—The fact that occasionally persons arrested have the same names as others in the community is a never-ending source of embarrassment. The latest case of this kind concerns Ben Nelson, of 501 Cedar street, who is not the Ben Nelson who was arrested by the city police a few days ago.

Leaves On Vacation—Miss Kate Houx, director of the training school at the Eastern Oregon Normal, left last night for her farm home near Tacoma where she will spend the remaining weeks of the summer.

Foster Sins Ill—Foster Sins has been severely ill of throat trouble at his home at 1910 Cedar street since last Saturday.

Here From Portland—Rev. and Mrs. George Pollard, of Portland, are guests for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Shade at 1307 Pennsylvania avenue.

License Issued—A marriage license was issued in Vancouver yesterday to George W. Caulfield, 75, route 1, Gresham, Ore., and Mrs. Clara Johanson, 56, general delivery, La Grande according to legal records published today in the Oregon Journal.

Stopping Here—Among those registered this week at local hotels are G. V. Skelton, professor of engineering from Oregon State college in Corvallis and N. L. Peck and E. E. Barklow, also of Corvallis. They are here to make a physical survey of the Eastern Oregon Normal school for the state board of higher education.

Minister Here—Rev. Weston F. Shields, of Enterprise, is a La Grande visitor today. Mrs. Shields is with him.

Weiser People Here—Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Korup, of Weiser, Idaho, have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett.

Speaks At Assembly—The charm and beauty of old New Orleans were described this morning by Miss Mildred Hawksworth when she was the speaker at the weekly

Eliminate the long monotonous wash day—Let us give you Damp Wash Service—All flat work ironed—The garments ready to iron at only 35c per lb.

Modern Laundry PHONE MAIN 77

We can give you better mileage and performance with our accurate tune-ups.

McDONALD ELECTRIC CO. Phone Main 733 1428 Adams

Books Opened or Closed Financial Statements and tax returns compiled.

FRANK L. BLACK 1701—34th St.

Limit to Forbearance There is, however, a limit at which forbearance ceases to be a virtue.—Burke.

FOR YOUR LIBRARY Books of Especial Interest Priced From $1.50 to $2.50 Of Thee I Sing — Kaufman, Ryskind, Gershwin Mourning Becomes Electra — Eugene O'Neill Maid in Waiting — John Galsworthy Brave New World — Aldous Huxley Wild Orchid — Sigrid Undset A White Bird Flying — Bess S. Aldrich Wild Wind — Temple Bailey Mary's Neck — Booth Tarkington To Him That Endureth — Herndon Larry Thoughts of Youth This Singing World — Louis Untermeyer The Glory of the Nightingales — Robinson Good Morning America — Carl Sandburg Laments of the Living — Dorothy Parker Cavender's House — Robinson

La Grande Book & Stationery Co. "Service Station for Home and Office" 1114 Adams Ave. Main 90

Sport Finals

BASEBALL TODAY (By the Associated Press) All National league games postponed today because of rain. Double headers will be played between Pittsburgh and Brooklyn tomorrow and Chicago and Philadelphia Saturday.

AMERICAN LEAGUE R. H. E. Washington 1 6 0 Detroit 2 5 1 Thomas, Marberry and Berg, Maple; Sorrell and Hayworth. Boston and Cleveland, postponed rain.

PERSISTENT PROWLER PORTLAND, Aug. 3 (AP)—Confronted with one of the most puzzling cases of persistent intrusion they have ever known, Portland police today set about in earnest to entrap a mysterious prowler who for a month has molested the family of Veryl Huppreys in an East side residential section.

PROMISE PERSONALS By Mrs. Bertha Carper (Observer Correspondent) PROMISE (Special)—Mrs. Edith Lindsey and Mrs. Mary Howard and son, Walter, of La Grande, came Friday to visit Mrs. Bertha Carper for a few days. Late that evening they received a phone call to return to La Grande and they returned that same evening.

David Garrett left Saturday for Day Ridge where he will work skidding logs. Dave Garrett, Ernest and Clarence Snuffer are each driving a team skidding the logs and Harry Knutson and Lacy Trump are sawing the logs. They are working for Leo Kenworthy who has a contract for putting the logs to a sawmill.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Reed and children, Bertha and Wilfred and Henry Hanes, of Rochester, Wash., visited here Thursday and Friday, leaving for La Grande on their way home. Mr. Reed was called to La Grande by the serious illness of his mother and they came on in here as they had lived here several years. Friday Mr. Reed, Henry Hanes and Mrs. Bertha Reed spent fishing in the Grande Ronde. Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Nellie Fishman, Mrs. Lena Carper and Mrs. Bessie Gilbert went huckleberrying.

Mr. Johnson's sheep herder and camp tender moved camp Saturday from the Burton Miller place to the John Sannar place. A coyote got into their sheep Friday night and killed a large sheep, scattering the band.

Roy Fishman returned to La Grande Friday evening. Two boys by the name of Austin, 16 and 18 years of age, passed through here Tuesday on their way to Troy to see their brother, Bob Austin. The boys were from Dodge City, Kan., and had walked a good share of the way. They were footsore and weary and stopped at Mrs. I. S. McDonald's to inquire the way. She gave them their dinner which they greatly enjoyed. They said there was scarcely any crop in Western Kansas and that the people here were much better off than the people there. They had been on the road a month.

Sam Kendall and Harry Snuffer returned Thursday from a trip to Lewiston and Clarkston where the former went to look for a place to buy. He has a good ranch here and several head of cattle, but he is getting old and wants to get where the winters are not so long and cold. Harry went with him to drive the car. Mr. Kendall has not decided as yet to make a change.

Mrs. Nellie Fishman and children, Raymond, Ronald, Edith and Herbert, went to Wallawa for the weekend, attending a family reunion at the Mrs. Susan Fishman home. Mrs. Della Fishman Nelson and children, of Ellensburg, Wash., are visiting there. Roy Fishman, whose home is near La Grande, returned home with them and is visiting relatives and friends a few days.

Howard Carper had the misfortune to have one of his work horses badly cut on wire. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bennett, returned home Wednesday after having spent several months in Wallawa. Ray Knight brought them as far as Arthur Wallace's and Dave Garrett took them on home.

Bertha Wortman returned home Wednesday from spending two weeks with Mrs. Jack Rivers. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bethel visited Sunday at Howard Carper's. Reuben Barton has been hired as an assistant fire warden and went on duty August first.

Von Steuben's Great Work Washington's drill master was General Von Steuben, a German officer, who aided General, later President, Washington, in the Revolutionary war, and was the first foreign officer to aid in drilling the raw Colonial troops.

Location of Human Heart The heart in a human being is slightly more on the left side than on the right, about one-third on the right side of the center of the chest and two-thirds on the left side.

Botanical Triumph By means of invisible infra-red rays, a tulip plant has been raised in darkness, to a point where it develops normal green leaves and a red blossom.

19 NATIONS ASK PEACE IN CHACO ZONE

(Continued from Page One) In a proclamation President Guggiari called upon the army to prepare to achieve "deeds of prowess." The general staff announced last night it was responsibly informed that 600 Bolivian troops in Southern Chaco had deserted crossing the Pilcomayo river into Paraguayan territory. One battalion of troops from Concepcion already is under orders to proceed to the Casado sector deep in the heart of the disputed territory. Eight hundred Uruguayans sent a message offering to serve in the Paraguayan army.

PEACE HOPES REST ON AYALA AYALA, one of South America's ablest diplomats, is coming to the Paraguayan presidency August 15 with the official honors darkened by lowering war clouds.

Despite the newest clash with Bolivia in the Gran Chaco, many Paraguayans see in Dr. Ayala's return an augury of an agreement on the festering problem. His friends say, in fact, that he is determined to settle it. They give him much of the credit for preventing an open conflict following the fighting this summer.

His hand was seen in such developments as the return of the Paraguayan negotiators to Washington at the word from Washington that diplomatic circles there hoped hostilities could be avoided pending the inauguration of Dr. Ayala.

Settlement of the whole question is essential to Paraguay which can ill afford to maintain a considerable army. Permanent disposition of it would remove a thorn which pricks the sensitive flanks of Brazil, Argentina, Chile and Peru, the countries bordering the disputants.

To satisfy Bolivia's minimum demands will tax Dr. Ayala's ability as a diplomat right here in his own country, where there is much sentiment against any concession to Bolivia. But the president-elect is one of Latin America's ablest negotiators, both at home and abroad, and a great group of opinion is convinced that he is the Moses to guide both countries through the Gran Chaco wilderness.

MEANWHILE representatives of the non-union workers were seeking a conference with Governor Harry G. Leslie. They left here hoping to persuade the governor national guard troops are needed to bring about a cessation of hostilities. Two specific requests for troops sent by Joseph Dreher, Vigo county sheriff, have been ignored by the governor.

An airplane reconnaissance of the Dixie Bee shaft made this morning by Orville Lancelot, secretary treasurer of the corporation operating the shaft, disclosed the mine buildings were still intact. The pickets have prevented any outsiders from approaching the shaft.

MINE SIEGE CONTINUING IN INDIANA

(Continued from Page One) Meanwhile representatives of the non-union workers were seeking a conference with Governor Harry G. Leslie. They left here hoping to persuade the governor national guard troops are needed to bring about a cessation of hostilities. Two specific requests for troops sent by Joseph Dreher, Vigo county sheriff, have been ignored by the governor.

An airplane reconnaissance of the Dixie Bee shaft made this morning by Orville Lancelot, secretary treasurer of the corporation operating the shaft, disclosed the mine buildings were still intact. The pickets have prevented any outsiders from approaching the shaft.

75,000 Less Auto Licenses Issued

SALEM, Aug. 3 (AP)—About 75,000 fewer automobiles were licensed in Oregon at the close of business August 2 this year than the number issued the same date a year ago, it was announced today by the secretary of state. Total licenses issued, not including those sold over the counter at Portland yesterday, were 125,915 as compared to 201,459.

The department of state however announced sales were still running high and the total would mount by the end of the week.

Extortionist Is Sentenced to Pen

PORTLAND, Aug. 3 (AP)—R. B. Hainbeck, convicted of attempting to extort $100 from Porter W. Yett, contractor, to keep an article from appearing in the "Sunday Mercury," was today sentenced to spend one year in the Multnomah county jail. Sentence was imposed by Circuit Judge L. P. Hewitt who declared he could see no justification for a parole as the crime had been premeditated and premeditated.

MISS SCRIPPS, 95 DIES

LA JOLLA, Cal., Aug. 3 (AP)—Miss Ellen Browning Scripps, 95, philanthropist and sister to the late E. W. Scripps, founder of a chain of newspapers throughout the country, died at her home here shortly before 2 a. m. today. Her death was due to old age and a lung congestion which developed recently.

GRID STAR WEDS

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 3 (AP)—Albert James Booth Jr., dynamic football star of Yale university, and Miss Marion Noble were married on July 4, it was made known today.

UPTURNS FOLLOW SLUMPS IN JUNE

(Continued from Page One) experts in Washington recalled that the end of previous deflations had been chronicled in similar fashion. Gradual upward movements, beginning in summer months, predated continued increases in commodity prices in the winter.

WEARY B. E. F. MARCHERS TO RETURN HOME

(Continued from Page One) In Pennsylvania, many of the bedraggled bonus seekers decided the only thing to do was what their commander ordered — go back where they came from and establish 48 battlefronts instead of one. Walter W. Waters, their leader, conceded in a statement early today that a new national camp could not be established. He said formation of tent cities in each of the 48 states to house veterans from that state only would do more good. Veterans Start Leaving Some veterans at the Maryland camp half way between Washington and Baltimore could not wait for daybreak to get off the ground Governor Ritchie said they could not occupy anyhow. And Doak Carter, Waters' representative at Johnstown, so Waters' aides here said, promised to carry out orders evacuating all but Pennsylvanians from that camp.

Waters' surrender followed an unsuccessful effort to convince Ritchie that the veterans did have a right to use their new land in Maryland. First the commander advised his men to "sit tight" while he made other plans. Then he told them to go home, promising that "a national organization" would furnish state camps and that "definite details will be announced in ten days."

A coroner's jury found that Policeman George Shinault and Miles Znameneck "in defense" shot William J. Hushka, of Chicago, and Eric Carlson, of Oakland, Cal., during last week's rioting.

Hushka Buried Tuesday Hushka was buried yesterday in Arlington national cemetery. Carlson may go there too.

A further grand jury investigation of the whole affair — particularly to see if communists and radicals incited the fighting — drew new testimony today. Meanwhile, Havesans, Macklodian, of Chicago, the last of 15 men seized as radical — was released.

Leo A. Rover, district attorney, said investigation disclosed Macklodian had served time in Leavenworth during the World war as an alien enemy but had been in this country too long for deportation.

Perviously the 14 other men arrested in the round-up of radicals were escorted to the District of Columbia line.

LEADERS CONFER WITH MAYOR

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Aug. 3 (AP)—Leaders of the bonus expeditionary force went into conference with Mayor Eddie McCloskey this afternoon after stating that they plan to move their camp from Johnstown as soon as possible.

Eddie Atwell, commander of Camp Marks at Washington, arrived from the capital and attended the meeting as the representative of Walter W. Waters.

Mayor McCloskey said after the conference he would obtain trucks tomorrow morning to carry the bonus seeking veterans from their camp here.

By Leo W. Sheridan (Associated Press Staff Writer) JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Aug. 3 (AP)—It's a long, long way from toyland to the crude makeshift camp of the bonus expeditionary forces on the outskirts of Johnstown, and it's a long time until Christmas, but last night—Santa Claus came.

A rag doll, trampled in the mud where long lines of veterans stand for hours for mess, is the first indication to the visitor at the amusement park camp that childhood is going through the trials of hosts who seek the bonus.

But upon a hillside and down close to the wooded section of the field, one sees that part of the bonus army termed by Mayor Eddie McCloskey the "gamest fighters of them all."

This is an ordeal for mothers and their children and for dozens of mere slugs of girls who fled with husbands and fathers and brothers from disorders in Washington.

In a withering sun they have set up "homes" — or the most part shelters built from branches of trees, carried in by men. These branches are placed to form a tent and are covered with leaves and grass.

But the last few days women and children are being moved into sheds

GIRLS AT COVE LIKE CAMP LIFE

(Continued from Page One) made even more pleasant by peppy group singing and stunts from those who have had to use the lost and found department. At last night's huge campfire Miss Gertrude Waggener, from the city library, delighted the girls with some reviews of the latest books for young people. With Miss Helene Price directing, Camp Fire songs were sung. The plan of having four or five interested mothers do the cooking is proving extremely satisfactory. According to camp visitors, every mother becomes more enthusiastic than ever about Camp Fire work and the summer camp after spending a day with the girls and observing them at the varied program.

Mrs. Raymond O. Williams' group of girls were on K. P. duty yesterday and mothers from her group doing the day's cooking were Mrs. George Walker, Dr. Margaret Ingie, Mrs. Lynne Bohnenkamp and Mrs. Lowell Williamson. Today the mothers from Margaret Milne's group will be in charge.

Visitors are welcome at the camp, officials said, explaining that the Camp Fire girls enjoy showing callers their cabins, each containing 17 neat cots and carefully arranged camp equipment.

Miss Naomi Twidwell was elected scribe by the camp. Swimming activities have been popular, with the following girls passing the first tests under the instruction of the Misses Helene Price and Esther Palmer, senior and junior lifesavers: Grace Helen Bohnenkamp, Betty Jane Grice, Harriet Becker, Dorothy Becker, Mary Jean Bohnencamp, Maxine Peterson, Kathleen Peare, Lorraine Burnett, Marian Gehring, Kathleen Williamson, Marie Worrell, Mary Jane Heasler, Naomi Twidwell, Nancy Lee Lindsay and Margaret Milne.

KANSAS VOTE IN TUESDAY'S PRIMARY DRY

(Continued from Page One) Gill's opponent, McOill led Little nearly two to one. MISSOURI VOTE IN DOUBT ST. LOUIS, Aug. 3 (AP)—The outcome of Missouri's Democratic senatorial and Republican gubernatorial contests in yesterday's primary election were still in doubt today, but Henry W. Kiel, former mayor of St. Louis, and Francis M. Wilson apparently were the Republican nominee for senator and Democratic choice for governor, respectively.

Wilson defeated State Senator Russell L. Dearmont and two other opponents, while Kiel was well ahead of Dewey J. Short, former congressman from Galena, who was second in the six-cornered race.

In the congressional races where the nominees were chosen at large for the first time, a change necessitated by the state's failure to redistrict when its representatives were reduced by three, all the Republican and most of the Democratic incumbents were practically assured of nomination.

Motorcycle Parcel Delivery

Quick Delivery Expert Motorcycle & Bicycle Repair Work Lockwood Cyclery Back of Fred's Place on Fir Main 244

JUST RECEIVED 32-Piece Dinner Set

Very Special at $3.75 As long as they last — three patterns to choose from. Melville's

Free This Week Only! Carburetor Adjustment

This one adjustment may save you many gallons of gas. Hammack Auto Repair Fir & Jefferson Main 1040

Beaten Kettle Two Feet Deep

A kettle hammered from a huge nugget of copper and believed to be 200 or 300 years old, is owned by Francis Mark, an Ottawa Indian. The kettle is two feet across and two feet deep.

Back to the Farm

In all history we hear much of the simple, better life on farms, and of strong men developing from such surroundings.—Country Home.

Light Not "Matter"

Light is not generally classified as matter, since matter is anything that occupies space and has weight. Light is a form of radiant energy.

Matinee 25c

LIBERTY

Ends Tonight

It's young! It's different! It's witty and wise! The lockdown on radio's thrills and romance!

ARE YOU LISTENING? WILLIAM HAINES

MADGE EVANS ANITA PAGE KAREN MORLEY NEIL HAMILTON WALLACE FORD JEAN HERSHOLT IN JOAN MARSH "SKIP THE MALOO"

Coming THURSDAY FRIDAY

The "Divorcee" Stars Are Together Again!

Schilling coffee

Always start the day right on Wings of the morning!

SUGGESTIONS INVITED

We are naturally pleased whenever we hear favorable comments on our work from the families we serve, or their friends. It is always gratifying to know that our efforts have been appreciated.

However, we realize that real improvement in our service calls for constructive criticism, we may be blind to certain faults which are quite apparent to others.

If any reader of this advertisement can suggest any way in which our work can be improved in any detail, we will be glad to give his ideas thoughtful consideration. Constructive criticism will help us to realize our ambition, which is to render a SERVICE as nearly perfect as lies within our power.

WALKER'S FUNERAL HOME

FREE AMBULANCE SERVICE PHONE MAIN 42 LADY ATTENDANT A Service within the means of all.

PRIVATE LIVES

What a Cast! NORMA SHEARER ROBT. MONTGOMERY REGINALD DENNY UNA MERKEL JEAN HERSHOLT

LIBERTY

35c Evening