TO INVESTIGATE GRAIN PRACTICES (Continued from Page One) tion of the present practices of the grain trade in smutting, discounting and grading, were undertaken here today following a meeting Saturday night of wheat ranchers, bankers and civic leaders. The growers heavily endorsed a plan for holding wheat until it reaches a price satisfactory to the producers. D. H. Nelson, proponent of the "dollar wheat plan," was appointed to lead the action of the growers in their co-operation with state officials in investigating grain trade practices. Max Gehlhar, state agricultural director, in a telegram read at Saturday's meeting, expressed disapproval with the present practices of trade, said now to be causing ranchers considerable loss. The "dollar" plan which has found a wide following in the Inland Empire, presupposes that growers will withhold their entire crop from market for at least a month, and then dispose of not more than 15 per cent each month. Congressman R. R. Butler was the only representative from the national capital to attend Saturday's meeting, although telegrams were received from various representatives and senators of Washington, Idaho and Oregon favoring the action to bring farmers better prices. Legislation dealing with the storage of wheat on ranches where it may be used in obtaining loans without having to be consigned was discussed. It was said the state grange may present this proposal at the next legislature. Bankers said they approved of ranchers holding their crops until they could make a profit, impossible under the present price schedule. SON BORN TODAY AT MOEDLING TO PRINCESS ILEANA (Continued from Page One) Marie, of Jugoslavia. His father also was in the household. The baby was born at 4 a. m., just before dawn broke over the ancient walls of Moedling castle which was closely guarded. For several days Austrian police have taken every precaution against troublemakers who, it was thought, might seize upon the presence of so much royalty to make a demonstration. Both Doing Well The princess and the baby were both doing well, it was announced. The boy will be named Stephan. He is 21 inches long and has the traditional Hapsburg blond hair. Princess Ileana was a warm spot in the hearts of Americans when she toured the country with her mother in 1929. At West Point, where she and the queen were entertained by the cadets, one proud cadet, William J. Glasgow, earned the jocular title of "King of Rumania" from his fellows because he danced with Ileana, talked with her and looked at the Hudson in the moonlight with her. Afterward, when the princess returned from her trip through the west, she sent a request to the commanding officer of the military academy asking if Cadet Glasgow could come down to lunch at Tuxedo, N. Y., where she and her brother were guests of Charles E. Mitchell. The commanding officer replied Cadet Glasgow could not. The princess then asked if she could come to West Point and have lunch with Cadet Glasgow. The commanding officer replied there was nothing in the instructions to prevent that, and so it happened. Both she and her husband have become expert airplane pilots and have made many flights together around Europe since their marriage a year ago last month.

TROPICAL STORM IN SOUTH TEXAS IS FATAL TO 25

(Continued From Page One) Angleton said some of the injured was not expected to recover. HOUSTON, Tex., Aug. 15 (AP) — A tropical hurricane, its eerie, whistling note adding to the terror caused by a deluge and gale, killed at least 17 persons, injured scores and did more damage to cotton than to shipping as it swept in from the Gulf of Mexico Saturday night and finally spent its force late Sunday. Striking first at the island city of Galveston, protected by a sea wall, the storm reached in from the coast some 200 miles, then veered southwest, and did most of its damage to inland sections. No deaths were reported from Galveston, devastated by a hurricane in 1900, although the city was in darkness through Saturday night and isolated from the mainland due to loss of power and communication lines. O. C. Ellisor, Harris county agricultural agent, said the damage to the cotton crop alone would exceed $1,000,000. Rice and corn crops also were ruined. The death toll was expected to rise higher as communication was re-established with smaller communities. Red Cross aid was sought by Preport and Eagle Lake. W. E. Welford, mayor of Eagle Lake, said the families of hundreds of tenant farmers in that section were destitute. The wind reached a velocity in excess of 70 miles an hour here. Rain was general over the eastern part of Texas. Graduation Originally the graduation exercise was really a commencement, as it marked the inception of the pupil graduate as a teacher and his recognition as such by his master and other members of the profession. Always Knew That H. I. Mencken said that scarcely any college professor is civilized. That's no news to a college freshman—Exchange. Decision Without Hearing He who decides a case without hearing the other side, though he decides justly, cannot be considered just.—Seneca.
