Visitors From California Guests At Bridge Party This Afternoon At Home of Mrs. H. Lawrence Hull

Visitors in La Grande from the south are Mr. and Mrs. Safford Gehr and their young son, Richard Edgar Gehr, of Canoga Park, Los Angeles, who arrived last night for a brief visit at the home of Mr. Gehr's sister, Mrs. H. Mr. and Mrs. Gehr stopped in Portland where they were feted extensively. Mrs. Raymond Vester was a luncheon hostess Tuesday afternoon at her Portland home, and Mrs. Edgar Garbade entertained with a luncheon and bridge party recently. They were guests at the home of their parents, Mrs. R. E. Gehr and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Garbade, while in Portland.

WEED THEATRE BURNS
WEED, Cal., Aug. 25 (AP)—The Weed theatre was destroyed by fire Wednesday with loss estimated at $50,000, following an explosion which was felt throughout the community. The theatre was completed only two months ago.

No one was injured, although a projection machine operator was asleep in the upper section of the theatre when the fire started.

GRESHAM WOMAN HURT
PORTLAND, Aug. 25 (AP)—Mrs. Edward Reusser, of Gresham, suffered head and face cuts last night when her husband's automobile crashed into a 1200-pound horse on Powell boulevard, killing the animal. Reusser said the horse stepped from the side of the highway into the path of the machine.

Tips ON CONTRACT

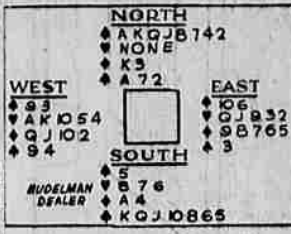

THE SAFER ROAD
By Tom O'Neil

A vulnerable grand slam is among the accomplishments of John P. Budelman in the summer colony at Palmouth, Mass. He took all the tricks with clubs as trumps. His partner could have made the slam with spades as trumps.

The partner deliberately refrained from mentioning spades in the bidding, confident that his holding in that suit would afford discards for Budelman, if need be.

Some players avoid grand slam bidding because of the possibility of freakish distribution defeating it. The apparent greater safety in the club slam was regarded by Budelman and partner as well worth the 70 points sacrificed in the failure of contract for seven spades.

Here was the hand:

South opened the bidding with one club and went off with a heart. North had a number of courses from which to choose. He could bid game in spades, a contract which his partner's vulnerable opening bid and his own strength fully justified. He could bid two spades, one more than necessary, as a force upon partner, commanding that the bidding be kept open at least until a game contract should be reached.

North instead bid two hearts, a strong invitation to slam. It conveyed the information that he had control of the first lead of hearts with probably a void. It offered an easy method of indicating great strength with the bidding kept in low stages.

East passed. South bid five clubs, indicating a strong desire to play the hand in that suit unless there were good reasons for not doing so.

West passed and North jumped to seven clubs. He reasoned that South must have the ace of diamonds to justify his original bid and must have length in clubs with top honors, and few if any spades at all. The ace and two clubs, the king of diamonds and the top spades in the North hand seemed to make it certain that there would be no losers, since any losers in the south hand could be discarded on spades.

A club slam bid would guard against the possibility that all the adverse spades were bunched in one hand.

West led the queen of diamonds. The slam, of course, was a lay down.

A chap says his money is in an old sock, but he doesn't know whose sock.

SALEM AGAIN LOSES OUT IN WATER FIGHT

SALEM, Aug. 25 (AP)—The city of Salem late Tuesday again was halted in its efforts to become owner of the city water system when Judge L. G. Lewelling sustained the demurrer of the Oregon-Washington Water Service corporation to the city's complaint in a test suit on the legality of a charter amendment providing funds for securing the water system.

The amendment, carried by a vote of the people on December 15, 1931, provided a $2,500,000 bond issue for buying and adding to the Oregon-Washington water service system. The decision does not invalidate the charter amendment, but does prolong the water company's business term. City Attorney W. H. Trindle said.

Fat Man Reduces 53 Pounds—Oh Boy!

Don't be stubborn, you big fat men—throw off your fat before your fat throws you into the discard. Do as Mr. S. A. Lanier of Sawtelle, Cal., did—read his letter:

"I have used two reducing belts to no benefit but since using Kruschen Salts each morning in my coffee I have taken off 7 lbs. in a week and eat most anything I like. I weighed 243 lbs. 6 months ago and now I weigh 190 lbs."

Take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning—cut down on fatty meats, potatoes and sweets—now you know the safe way to lose unightly fat.

For a trifling sum you can get a jar of Kruschen Salts that lasts 4 weeks at Red Cross Drug Store, L & L Drug Co., Glass Drugs, Inc., Moon Drug Co., or any druggist in the world—but be sure and get Kruschen—your health comes first.

"Nature in the Raw is seldom MILD"

THE KING OF BEASTS

"Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by the great animal painter, Paul Bransom... inspired by the brute force and savage cunning which has made the lion ruler of the African jungle.

—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes

They are not present in Luckies... the mildest cigarette you ever smoked

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

"It's toasted"
That package of mild Luckies

"If a man write a better book, preach a better sermon, or make a better mouse-trap than his neighbor, tho he build his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten path to his door."—RALPH WALDO EMERSON.
Does not this explain the world-wide acceptance and approval of Lucky Strike?
