Will Go To England—

Miss Bethene Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Miller, of Union, has been given a scholarship to the Dartington School of Dance-Mime at Totnes, England and will leave Union about the first of September when she will visit friends in New York a week before sailing. She will leave on the 14th on the steamship Ile de France. An interesting account of the school was given in a recent Sunday issue of the New York Times as follows,—"If one would make a journey from professional London down into Devon, he would find on an old country estate what is the most significant dance movement in the country—Dartington Hall is a manor house, built in 1399 by Richard II. It stands in the middle of 1,000 acres of beautiful country, with the little River Dart winding about its border. Here, with the deepest appreciation of everything traditional and everything English in its background, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Elmhirst have started a venture which not only in its magnitude but in its idealism and practicality is truly modern in the last sense of the word." The school not only teaches the dance but drama, art and other classical subjects.

Announces Engagement—

One of the interesting events of the week at Cove was a shower honoring Mrs. Lilian Allen whose engagement to Mr. James MacGuire, of King Hill, Ida., was announced some time ago. Mrs. Allen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paige, of the Mill Creek canyon road, and since their coming to Cove a few years ago has been a most popular member of society, her activities in church and school and society have endeared her to everyone in that community. She taught for a period of years in the Imbler High school, and made many friends in that community, also. Later she taught the Prosty school most successfully. Mrs. B. W. Peterman, Mrs. Kenneth LaViolette, Mrs. Thomas Towle and Mrs. Leonard J. Towle were the hostesses at the home of Mrs. Peterman. A short program was given and at the end a basket full of lovely gifts was showered on the bride-elect. A dainty lunch was served. The guests were Mmes. Alice Allen, L. E. Anderson, A. A. Antles, Archer Antles, Ruth Brazille, C. W. Clark, T. R. Conklin, A. V. Fisher, O. M. Gardner, Thomas C. Hefty, Hallmark, Lund, John Miller, Roy Peterman, Oscar Gorham, Wesley Smith, Lulu Weeks, A. H. Orton, Hazel Webber, Paige, Harry Meyers, and the Misses Kathryn Davis, Esther Brazille, Maxine Towle, Iva June Allen and Patsy MacGuire.

—o—

From Iowa—

Mrs. Dee Brian, of Jefferson, Iowa, is a guest this week at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Kiddle, at Island City. Mrs. Brian had been spending the past three months in Portland, and stopped off here for the visit on her way to her home in the Hawkeye state.

—o—

Observe Birthday—

Sunday was a gala day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dahlstrom and their daughters, Della Jean and Donna Mae in the Moss Chapel neighborhood. That particular day was Mrs. Dahlstrom's birthday anniversary, while her mother, Mrs. Scott's of Union was on the 17th and Mr. Dahlstrom's was on the 19th. To properly celebrate the various events, a number of cars of relatives and friends just naturally went in on the Dahlstrom family Sunday and made a day of it. The visitors did not go empty handed, however. They had freezers of home-made icecream, watermelons, fried chicken, birthday cakes and many, many other tempting articles 'too numerous to mention.' The guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Daugherty and their two daughters, Veta and Berlena, Mrs. Julia Ebell and daughter of Baker, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Scott, and daughter, Laura, and Mr. Miller, of Union, Mr. and Mrs. George Carnes and daughter, Lorene and Mr. Labbe, of the valley.

—o—

Visits—

"Aunt Lou" Payne, of the Cove is visiting this week at the home of her niece, Mrs. Frank Owsley, who lives near La Grande.

—o—

Prepare For Meeting—

Members of the Rebekah lodge at Summerville are very busy these days preparing for the visit of the president of the state assembly. This will be on September 9 and the degree team is hoping to have its work very near perfection.

—o—

To Ontario—

County Agent Harry G. Avery and Mrs. Avery went to Ontario yesterday where they spent the day with friends and looking after matters of business.

—o—

S. S. Convention Sunday—

The annual convention of the rural Sunday schools of this county is to be held tomorrow, August 28 at the Pleasant Grove grange hall. This is an event which invariably attracts large crowds of Sunday school folks. Rev. Howard Smith, county Sunday school evangelist, is in charge of the arrangements. The plans for the day include a regular school session, basket dinner at noon and program in the afternoon.

—o—

To Middlewest—

Mrs. George McDonald, of the Iowa district, and Miss Amanda Zabel, of the Eastern Oregon Normal school faculty, left yesterday by car for the middle west where they plan to spend the next three weeks. Miss Zabel, who is having her annual vacation from her classroom, will visit her parents at Valley City, N. D. Mrs. McDonald will go to Minneapolis to join her family in a visit, other members of the family from New York being present also.

—o—

Purchase Books—

Five hundred dollars worth of books have been purchased through the state library and are ready for distribution among the school districts of the county, E. A. Sayre, county superintendent of schools announced recently. Each year books are bought by the districts and are retained from year to year for the purposes of building up the school libraries.

—o—

County 4-H Picnic—

All club members and their families, as well as local leaders, and friends of 4-H club work in Union county are invited to the annual club picnic which is to be held next Wednesday at the Eastern Oregon experiment station near Union. There will be a number of visitors from the extension service of the state college, it is believed, and the day will undoubtedly be one of great benefit, as well as pleasure to all who attend. The program begins in the morning at 10 o'clock, basket dinner at noon, contests, program, stock judging, etc., being interspersed throughout the day. County superintendent of schools, E. A. Sayre and county agricultural agent, Harry G. Avery, who superintend club work in this county, have charge of the plans for the day.

—o—

At Elgin—

Mrs. W. A. Huddleson and Mrs. George Ballard and daughter, Betty, of North Powder, have been visiting among friends and relatives at Elgin. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jacobs.

—o—

In La Grande—

Miss Helen Jean Speckhart, of the Iowa district, visited with her grandmother, Mrs. Snider, in La Grande a part of this week.

—o—

Returns Home—

Miss Margery Steiner, who has been making a visit of a few weeks at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Peter McDonald, in the Iowa district, left Thursday for her home at Pandora, Ohio. Miss Steiner has been the honored guest at a number of social functions during her stay in this valley.

—o—

Heavy Yield—

J. A. Gaskill, of near Imbler, reports a very heavy yield from one piece of spring wheat, harvesting operations having just been completed at the Gaskill ranch. This one field of wheat went 63 pounds to the bushel it is reported.

—o—

School To Open—

Dry Creek school is one of the rural schools which will open Monday for the year's work. Mrs. Inez Fries will be the teacher again this year—her third in this school, we believe. This is one of the largest, if not the largest one-room schools in the county, and present indications are that there will be 29 pupils enrolled. Mrs. Fries and her daughter, Thelma Jean, returned home Saturday from the mountains where they have been with Mr. Fries who is a fire guard, during the months of fire hazard.

—o—

In Country—

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cleavinger, of La Grande, visited Wednesday at the home of Mrs. S. MacAnish and family in the Valeria district.

—o—

Give Dinner—

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Knautz and their daughter, Lilian, entertained a group of relatives and friends Thursday evening at their home in the Iowa district. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wallsinger and son, Cleland, of the Iowa district, Mrs. Lena Speckhart and Miss Ellen Speckhart, of Quincy, Illinois, Mr. and Mrs. John Speckhart and Miss Ina Fleming, of La Grande, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Speckhart and daughter, Lilian.

—o—

Visit—

Mrs. Charles Moore and daughter, Bea Dickinson, of North Powder, visited friends in Union Tuesday.

—o—

Returns Home—

Mrs. B. C. Dahlstrom has returned to her home near Wolf Creek following a visit at the home of her son, John Dahlstrom and family in Moss Chapel neighborhood.

—o—

To California—

"Aunt Mollie" McDowell and her son, Si, are leaving soon by car for California where they plan to live in the future. They have disposed of their household effects at Summerville. "Aunt Mollie," who is one of the valley's oldest pioneers, is a very familiar figure at all pioneer events and is one of the best known residents of the Summerville vicinity. She will be greatly missed for she took a lively interest in all the social events of that locality.

—o—

Visit—

Mrs. Oscar Simonis and Mrs. Ed Simonis, of Richland, visited with friends in this valley early this week. They stopped here on their way home from Hermiston where they had been visiting with relatives.

—o—

Is Better—

Mrs. Fred Self, of the Pleasant Grove neighborhood, has been having quite a serious time with infection, caused by a splinter which was buried in the flesh of one leg. She is very much better now, we are very glad to report.

—o—

Not Doing So Well—

From the North Powder News we learn that the condition of Judge E. J. Sencerbox, who is a patient at Hot Lake, is not doing so well. He is suffering from the after effects of the loss of an arm by the accidental discharge of a shotgun.

—o—

Guests—

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fletcher, who live above the Cove, are entertaining Mrs. Anna MacIntire and her son, Jack, who had been spending several months at Long Beach, Cal. and are now on their way to their home at Pueblo, Colo. They came Thursday of last week and were to remain until the last of this week. They are old friends of the Fletchers. Mr. and Mrs. Laird ware hosts on Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher and their guests.

—o—

Visits Brother—

Miss Suzannah Deal, a teacher in the La Grande schools visited recently at the home of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Deal, who live north of Pleasant Grove.

—o—

In Country—

Bob Goss, of La Grande, visited last week at the home of his relatives, the Colt family, who live in the Dry Creek neighborhood. James Harrod, of Palo Alto, Cal., was also a guest in this home over the weekend.

—o—

At Camp Yew Bow—

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Higgs, and daughter, Mary Rachel, of Crane, were visitors at Camp Yew Bow, the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Price and Lona Nelda, for several days last week. They came Thursday and remained until Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Higgs were friends of Mr. and Mrs. Price a number of years ago, when they lived in Idaho. In fact, Mr. Price was the first county treasurer and Mr. Higgs was the first county auditor of Camas county, Ida., about 14 years ago.

—o—

Return To Work—

Miss Madeline Oliver has returned to her course in nurse training in a Walla Walla hospital following a two weeks' vacation visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Oliver, of Dry Creek. Returning to Walla Walla, she accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kendall who had been visiting among their relatives in the north end of the county.

—o—

Increases Orchard—

J. B. Love, orchardist and farmer, who lives above the Cove has just become the owner of a most desirable ten-acre tract of land, planted to cherries and prunes. He purchased it from George Anderson who recently sold his home and four acres of land to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mangreen, of Florida, who moved to Cove and secured this place for a home. The cherry orchard deal has been in contemplation for several weeks and has only now been consummated.

—o—

Shopping—

Mrs. Ona Rhodes, of Dry Creek, was shopping and visiting with friends in La Grande Thursday.

—o—

Sister Ill—

Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Choate and Mr. and Mrs. Miles Woodell have made trips to Lostine recently, called by the illness of Mrs. Vance, sister of Mrs. Choate and Mr. Woodell. Mrs. Vance was to go to the hospital for an operation the last of the week, according to reports, but we have not learned of her present condition.

—o—

That Picnic—

Mrs. C. B. Spencer, of Grange Hall, supplements our story concerning the big picnic staged Sunday by the Countrywomen's club on Presbyterian Flat up Catherine Creek as follows:

Ed Jasper, who at first thought he would be unable to take his family to the affair, arranged matters later during Sunday afternoon so that they might go. He and Mrs. Jasper sent out calls to other families of the neighborhood who had thought it impossible for them to go and bid them be ready when they called for them. Therefore disappointment was transfered to happy anticipation of the day's outing and it was a merry group that was assembled the last minute and was taken to the picnic grounds in the Jasper truck to join friends and fellow club members in the day's festivities. At the basket lunch which was enjoyed at about one o'clock, fried chicken galore and everything to go with it were served. Watermelon! Well yes! All everybody could eat and then some. Mr. Jasper took a group of the children to the hills in the afternoon where they amused themselves by rolling rocks down the mountain side and in making interesting observations. There were only two mishaps to mar the pleasures of the day and they were minors. The small son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wells was slightly injured when he was hit in the face with a rock. The other trouble was with tires—Mr. and Mrs. Chenault being the unlucky ones—just as they started to leave for home. Special guests for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Clark, of Alicel; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Anson and family, Mrs. Lucy Graham, Ed Graham, all of La Grande; Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Sherwood, Cecil Sherwood, Mrs. Will Clark, Ed Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Will Moss and Mrs. Ira Howell.

Crops, Weather, In Wallowa

WALLOWA, Ore. (Special) — Excellent progress in threshing operations have been made in several parts of this community during the past week. The weather during the greater part of the week has been quite hot and indications of rain have been numerous. However, not enough rain has fallen yet to cause any delay in harvest work. Several combines have been running in some of the large wheat fields in the hill sections during the past ten days and reports from some of those who are having their cutting done by other machines state that all the fall wheat is ready for combining at this time.

The greater part of the stationary threshing in the hills has been finished at this time. Giles Plass who has been threshing for Meek Bros., Ed Bell and L. W. Minor during the past week finished his run Saturday and moved his machine to the T. A. Bakke farm on Whiskey creek. He states that the balance of his run will consist of spring grain on irrigated land and some of this will not be ready for threshing for a week or ten days. One or two small machines have been operating in the Dry creek section during the past ten days and reports from there state that practically all the crops there have been cleaned up at this time.

Rather light yields are reported from the most of the farms. No reports are heard of where fall wheat yielded better than 20 bushels per acre and in most instances the yields secured were considerably below this figure. Thin stands and very hot weather during te time the grain was filling has resulted in the light yields in most cases.

The wheat in most cases is said to be of fairly good quality and is said to be weighing well. Local prices being offered for wheat are said to have improved some during the past two weeks. Reports here the last of the week were to the effect that 42c per bushel was being offered for No. 1 Forty-fold. Some small lots of wheat are being sold locally for feed purposes. However, with the most of the farmers having rather small lots of wheat they state they do not expect to sell any at this time except enough to meet harvest expenses.

Spring crops in the dry farming areas of the county have been very poor and but little of the spring crops are being left for threshing. Much cutting of this class of grain for hay has been done during the past week or two. Feed supplies on most of the farms in the hills are reported to be larger than usual this year.

LOCUSTS CONSUME CROPS SO FILIPINOS EAT PESTS

MANILA (AP) — Eating the locusts that eat the crops is one solution of the problem of the insect pest which has been especially destructive this year in the southern Philippines.

Thousands of sacks of cooked locusts have been brought here by inter-island steamers and have found ready sale among families of Filipino laborers.

Shippers reported that in some instances the locusts brought more cash than could have been gained from the crops they ate.

BRITISH OFFER CLAIMS ON A. E. F.'S 'TIN HATS'

LONDON (AP) — Thirteen years after the war an American commission is sitting in London to adjust claims of 16 British inventors whose devices were used by the American army or navy.

One case concerns the tin-hats worn by the A. E. F. They were adapted from a British model, according to Lieut.-Col. Joseph McMullen, who heads the commission.

Other devices involved include depth-charge throwers and mines.

HOLLAND GROWS GIANT LILY

WAGENINGEN, Holland (AP) — An arum lily, seven feet high and three and a half feet across, was grown at the Agricultural high school here from a bulb weighing 88 pounds. The flower lasted two days.

SWEDEN FINDS NEW ORE

STOCKHOLM (AP) — An important copper deposit has been reported to the geological survey from Malaa, in northern Sweden. It is in the same mining district as the Boliden field.

African Iron To Japan

DURBAN, S. A. (AP) — Japan has signed a contract with the South African government for 30,000 tons of scrap iron to be used for bridges in Japan.

KING TUT'S PEAS GROW IN STOCKHOLM GARDEN

STOCKHOLM (AP)—Peas nearly six feet high in a garden here were grown from a single pea taken from the 3200 year old tomb of Tut-Ankh-Amen of Egypt.

A Danish professor obtained some of the peas when Howard Carter opened the tomb and brought them back to Sweden. He gave two to a friend who in turn gave one to another Swede. This man planted his solitary pea and the seed produced 202.

Young Ed Walsh, who is having a good season pitching for Oakland in the Pacific Coast league, is still the property of the Chicago White Sox.

A full schedule of professional baseball games on Sunday was played in North Carolina this summer for the first time in history.

Nearly 400,000 Democratic voters were registered for the primary elections in South Carolina this year.

TODAY WE HAVE

E. H. DeLong

In outlining the life of Ernest Homer DeLong the sketch encircles the enumeration of many activities, thus picturing a busy life—one that is unusually full.

He was born near Lincoln, Nebr., Oct. 21, 1876. At the age of 10 years he accompanied his parents, J. P. and Sevilla DeLong to Grande Ronde valley. The family settled on a farm on the Sandridge. Later the farm near Valeria school house was purchased and is still in the mother's possession, the father having died several years ago.

After completing the grades in the valley schools, Ernest spent two years at O. S. C. at Corvallis. Later he graduated from the Portland Business college.

Mr. DeLong spent several years in the printing business. For three years he worked in the composing room for the Lake County Rustler at Lake View. He then returned to La Grande and got a job working for the La Grande Observer. The Observer started in 1896 as a weekly but during the political campaign of 1898, it was published as a morning daily. At this particular time Mr. DeLong was night foreman and helped get out the first edition. His third and last venture with the printers' ink was for the La Grande Chronicle, three years being the time spent with that publication.

His next experience was with the two hardware stores in La Grande. He worked six years in all at this line of business, three years with the W. H. Bohnenkamp company and the same length of time with the Murphy Hardware company. At the latter place he had charge of the plumbing and heavy hardware department.

About this time Mr. DeLong commenced to think quite strongly of returning to the soil. He understood the farming game thoroughly, having been reared on the farm. The decision was finally made and he leased his father's place and farmed it for two years.

In 1908 he purchased of A. E. Huff 200 acres, the farm where he now lives which is situated in the Grange Hall district. He has since added other land to that possession. On his place he has a good quota of buildings, including a tasty modern residence, commodious barn and convenient outbuildings. General farming and dairying are practiced, the latter being made a specialty. His herd of Jerseys is of high quality, having herd improvement records for most individuals. Cream is sold as butterfat to a creamery in La Grande.

Mr. DeLong is actively interested in religious, educational, fraternal and civic affairs, working for the advancement in these as well as in his vocational lines. For 18 years he has been superintendent of Grange Hall Sunday school. Twenty-one years have been spent as a member of the board of directors of Grange Hall school district. He is one of the officers of the Hi-dad organization of the La Grande High school, Grandad being the name of his office. The Odd Fellows lodge claims him as one of its members. He is vicepresident of the La Grande chamber of commerce and president of the Union County Grain Growers association. He also holds the presidency of the Grande Ronde Co-operative creamery.

In the year 1900, Mr. DeLong married Miss Fannie Gekeler whose parents, George and Catherine Gekeler, were pioneers of Grande Ronde in the early 60's. They are the parents of two sons and two daughters; Frances, married to Ralph Robinson and living on a farm near Union, and Vernon, Raymond and Alma, all at home.

Cooking Affects Feed Value

Cooking materially increases the food. Raw potatoes, commonly used, food. Ray potatoes, commonly used, have some feeding value, but if it is at all possible, the potatoes should be cooked," advises G. E. Swier of the Washington State college animal husbandry division.

"Potatoes should be cooked until they are about to drop to pieces and form a meal. This is an important point, since the state desirable for table use is not sufficiently palatable for fattening hogs. When potatoes are cooked by boiling, the water should be drained off before feeding. This water is unpalatable and detracts from the feeding value. When potatoes are steamed, no water need be added."

When potatoes are fed raw, not more than two pounds should be used to each pound of grain, according to Mr. Swier. Feeding sprouted, frozen, green, or decayed potatoes may cause trouble. Green potatoes and potato sprouts contain a poison known as solanin. The state college man advises the brushing off of sprouts. Potatoes which have been exposed to sunlight until they have become green should not be feed.

A SEASONABLE RECIPE

A SEASONABLE RECIPE
Green Tomato Pickle

One peck green tomatoes.
One-fourth peck onions.
Four green peppers.
One tablespoon ground mustard.
One-half teaspoon ground cloves.
One-half teaspoon ground mace.
One small stick cinnamon.
Three pounds brown sugar.
Vinegar to cover.

Slice the tomatoes and onions, sprinkle with salt and let stand over night or at least six hours. Drain and place in a kettle with the peppers from which the seeds have been removed. Then add the spices, sugar, mustard and vinegar. Cook one hour and seal.

Bobby Jones still breaks par. He played over the Highlands, N. C., layout in 68, two strokes less than par.

Propose The Canning Of The Old Ewes

Phil T. Fortner, county agricultural agent, of Baker county, is arranging for two meetings to be held in Baker county Sept. 21 and 22 for purpose of demonstrating the proper methods of slaughtering, curing and canning old ewe sheep. The places of the meetings have not been decided upon.

Harry Lindgren, livestock specialist of Oregon State college, who will be the demonstrator, will show how to cut the carcass and prepare the pieces for curing and smoking as well as canning. County Agent Fortner believes that many persons will be interested in the demonstrations and suggests that those who are particularly interested leave their names at his office. Many sheepmen, he said, will be glad to dispose of old ewes and wethers at a very reasonable price this year.

"At this time there is widespread talk about the curing of various products for next winter's use," Mr. Fortner said. "Farmers generally and townspeople as well in Baker county are more interested in food conservation this year than ever before. Along with the cheap fruit year there is a cheap source of meat and vegetable products available this which is worth giving attention to.

"The cheap source of meat, of course, is old ewes and wethers. They are in excellent condition this year and provide meat that will please anyone during the winter months. Many families in Baker county can provide their winter's meat supply at a very low cost by simply arranging to purchase a few old ewes and wethers and getting them good and fat before slaughtering. The legs and shoulders of these sheep can be smoked, making a very delicious product. The small pieces of mutton, such as the loin, back, breast and neck can be best utilized if boned and canned in glass jars or tin in the usual manner. Canned mutton has a flavor very much like that of canned venison."

EGYPT SHUTS OUT FLOUR

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt (AP) — Benefit for the Egyptian milling industry is seen by Sidky Pasha, prime minister, in a new duty of 100 per cent on flour. The object is to force importation of wheat instead of flour and encourage growing of wheat here in place of cotton.

Mid-Year Outlook Prepared

This is the first of a series of mid-year outlook reports prepared from material gathered by L. R. Breithaupt at a recent conference at Salt Lake City, and other sources considered reliable.

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP) — Continued gradual decline in western egg production over the last two years, and an increase in commercial egg output in the Atlantic states near the big eastern markets is noted in the regular mid-year egg and poultry outlook report issued by L. R. Breithaupt, economist of the Oregon State college extension service.

Taking the country as a whole the number of layers in farm flocks this fall and winter is expected to be about 4 to 5 per cent greater than last year. This expected increase may not result in a comparable increase in egg production however, the report points out, as winter conditions a year ago were unusually favorable for high production because of general mild weather and cheap feed.

"Though egg prices in Oregon on July 15 were only 48 per cent of the 1926-1930 average for that date, eggs and poultry in general have not been especially low in price on the coast compared with most other farm products," the report said. "Low prices are due mostly to poor demand and low purchasing power of consumers rather than to high production, statistics show.

"Carlot shipments from the western states to date in 1932 have been 40 per cent less than during the same period a year ago. Storage stocks of eggs for the entire country are about one-third less than a year ago but no shortage is expected. Commercial hatcheries in western states show a sharp decrease in numbers of chicks hatched.

"A larger supply of poultry for markets this fall and winter is foreseen. As the number of chickens raised is estimated at 7.5 per cent larger, while abundance of cheap feed will probably result in heavier birds."

University of Iowa sports schedules for 1932-33 call for the Hawkeyes to meet all other Big Ten teams in either football or basketball.
