Need More Produce For Relief Canning

A plea for donations to the canning committee of the relief movement has been issued again by Mrs. Frederick Gehring, who has been donating her services during the past summer. The donations of produce for canning have been very poor recently, she reports, and she urges that all farmers or townspeople who have extra garden truck, fruit, etc., call the foodstuffs.

Wheat Today

CHICAGO, Aug. 31 (AP)—Heavy liquidation in the September delivery of wheat and corn swept all grains sharply downward today. Weakness of stocks and cotton in New York was reflected in early grain dealings, but selling later by traders disposing of September wheat and corn before deliveries are made on contracts tomorrow carried the market down about 2 cents on wheat. Buying of deferred wheat and corn raised prices some, but wheat closed weak and 1/4 to 1/2 cent lower than yesterday's finish, corn 1/2 to 1/4 cent steady to 1/2 cent down and provisions showing a drop of 5 to 15 cents.

ECLIPSE OF SUN VIEWED HERE TODAY

Nearly Every Citizen of Grande Ronde Valley Peers Skyward.

SCIENTISTS ARE NOT SATISFIED

Roofs And Streets in New England Crowded With People—Smoked Glass Demand Great.

The eclipse of the sun, as viewed in La Grande today, apparently was about 40 per cent total, and Grande Ronde valley residents had favorable view of the demonstration in spite of cloudiness. The first hour of the eclipse, between 10:30 and 11:20, found the sky mostly clear, but the last hour found the sun usually shielded by clouds, although not of the thick enough to obscure the eclipse. There was no appreciable change in temperature here—a phenomena which often accompanies an eclipse—and the brightness of the sun was not diminished to a great extent.
