HOMERS WIN FOR LEAGUE LEADERS

Yankees, With Ruth, Gehrig and Lazzeri at Bat, Get Hits When Needed

By Gayle Talbot
 The ability to beat home runs into the distant bleachers when there are men on base and the game hanging by a thread has been an outstanding characteristic of the Yankees in their headlong flight toward the American league flag.

A glance at their record reveals the clutching New Yorkers have won a total of 28 games by the slender margin of one run, and that in 19 instances they pounded one or more for the circuit to achieve victory, the prodigious punches of Ruth, Gehrig, Lazzeri and the team's other sledge guns have put the Yanks where they are today.

Advances Held Likely In Egg, Butter Markets

PORTLAND, Aug. 31 (AP) — Prices are unchanged for the day on butter and eggs but further advances are hinted as the market continues to hold a firm position.

Top grade butter is in less supply and some short-held storage stuff has been drawn on. Under grades are in better supply, according to the trade.

The egg market is firm as unchanged prices follow. Fresh receipts are lower and shipments east, as compared with a week ago, have declined. Pullet egg receipts are larger.

and the University of Munich, Germany. He attended the latter institution during the past year and has made a close study of European political and social conditions. Miss Florence M. Day will instruct in speech, art, drama and English literature. Miss Day is a graduate of the Emerson School of Oratory and holds the master's degree in speech arts and English from the University of Washington. In addition to this training in her special field, she was for four years engaged in dramatic work on the professional stage.

Registration will take place Monday, Sept. 19. The first three days of the opening week will be given over to registration, orientation of new students, and administration of placement and subject-matter tests. These tests do not affect admission, but are required for the purpose of proper classification and educational guidance of all students.

Epworth League At Union Given High Compliment

By Mrs. L. Z. Terrall (Observer Correspondent)

UNION, Ore. (Special)—Dr. H. G. McAllister, district superintendent of the Methodist church, gave the morning address Sunday, and the services were followed by the fourth quarterly conference. The reports of the several departments of the church were given and showed them functioning satisfactorily. The Ladies' Aid work under Mrs. W. V. Connor as president accomplished about the same amount of work as last year and the Missionary society, with Mrs. Worth Hales as president, reported double the amount of money raised this year for home missions. Dr. McAllister was enthusiastic about the report of the league work, stating that it was the best report in the district.

At the Epworth League services Sunday evening Leonard Clark had charge of the program and gave a farewell talk to the young people. He presented a beautiful framed hand-made plaque to the league and it will hang in the league room as a reminder of aims and ideals of the young people. Loren Seaman, who is training for missionary work in Africa, sang three beautiful songs.

it change and the smart housewife keeps up on fashions in foods just as she does in hats.

Every suggestion in the school is going to be workable and useable. Nothing will be extravagant—either in money, time or effort. Miss Gray will combine old standbys and new discoveries in an intensive short course in cookery.

In fact, every minute of the programs will be packed with suggestions and time-savers that you will use every day after the cooking school.

Miss Gray has seen and talked with thousands of housewives at her kitchen chautauquas throughout the west. She has developed an insight into the problems of cookery that she will pass on to you in your cooking school.

The Observer is proud to offer every housewife in La Grande the event free, and the best opportunity of attending this big summer school.

Eclipse Holds Up Junior League Play

MANCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 31 (AP)—Joe Graffagnini was the hero of the hour as New Orleans and Springfield, Mass., awaited the passing of an eclipse to resume their battle for the Junior American Legion baseball supremacy.

Graffagnini not only pitched the full nine innings for the western champions yesterday but he doubled during a ninth inning rally drove in two runs and gave New Orleans a 3 to 2 win in the opening game of the "little world series."

Today's game was to start sometime after 3 p. m. (E. S. T.) because of the eclipse.

British Walker Cup Team Named By Cyril Tolley

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 31 (AP)—The British Walker Cup golf team, which has yet to gain a victory, today stole a lead on its American rivals. The Britons were first in announcing their lineup for tomorrow's opening foursome matches at the country club.

Cyril Tolley, twice a British amateur champion and member of five international teams, named the British pairings as follows:

- 1—Captain Tony Torrance and Leonard Crawley.
- 2—John Burke and John Stout.
- 3—Bert and Lester Hartley.
- 4—John Fiddian and Eric McBuvie.

Although he has probably definitely decided upon his foursome selection, Tolley said he would name them tonight.

company and that, in consideration that his wife sign the deeds, gave her half interest in the property, including 50 per cent of the stock in the mercantile company. She further claimed that on dissolving of the corporation, Mr. Wright took the deed in his own name in trust for himself and his wife.

The defense denied the trust and based its denial on the fact that it would have had to be an express trust and therefore in writing. The plaintiff contended it was a constructive trust. In his arguments yesterday, Henry I. Hess quoted many former law actions to support his contention that without written documents, no such trust existed.

The property at stake, valued at a large sum of money, included the L. A. Wright drug store building, the G. F. Hall or Connor store building and the two buildings just north of this, the warehouse in the rear of the Connor building, all of the property between the L. A. Wright building and Catherine creek, and the property where the co-operative creamery now stands, the old Joe Wright residence property and two tracts of timberland, one in the Catherine creek district and the other in the Pontocia district.

James H. Haulsp, who set a new transcontinental record Monday, and flew back from New York to Cleveland, yesterday, will attempt to better the 278-mile mark, but will require a re-check of his plane by mechanics before he attempts it.

Col. Rowce Turner, Los Angeles, J. R. Wedell, Patterson, La., Lee Gehlbach, Mount Clemens, Mich., Major James H. Doolittle, and Robert Hall of Springfield, Mass., are other fliers who planned to enter the high-speed dashes either today or later in the week.

Ben O. Howard, Chicago and Kansas City mail pilot, tried the dash yesterday in a plane of his own manufacture, but his fastest time was 204:08.

In another race for craft of 510-horsepower piston displacement, Howard took first with 171.75 miles an hour over a 10-mile course.

eclipse, an unobstructed view of the sun delighted assembled astronomers here. A large field of clouds was in the immediate vicinity, however.

The heat was so intense that the sun, seen through the haze, looked like a high riding moon on a cloudy night.

Thousands filtered into New Hampshire during the night to park in vacant lots and open fields. Parking space in the broad expanse of meadow lands through the sparsely settled sections was at a premium and late arrivals were forced to sleep in their cars during the night.

Reclining chairs were rented out that tourists might view the eclipse at ease and many stores reported they were unable to supply the demand for smoked glass.

DOORS OF 10 BANKS ARE CLOSED TODAY

BOISE, Idaho, Aug. 31 (AP)—The First National bank of Idaho and nine subsidiary banks in Central and Western Idaho and Eastern Oregon closed this morning and were turned over to national and state bank officials.

Total resources of the banks were $12,753,093 on the date of the last bank call, June 30.

Among the banks were the Ontario National bank and the Vale National bank, both of Oregon.

George Piggras, New York Yankee hurler, already has doubled his seven victories of 1931 when he was handicapped by an operation for appendicitis.

At Lowell, Mass., mill roofs and streets were crowded with thousands who witnessed the eclipse. There had been a heavy exodus from Lowell earlier to Exeter, N. H., for better observation.

In Boston, slow moving clouds which appeared in beautiful color to observers, passed frequently before the sun. To the gazer through dark lenses, the sun looked like a high riding moon on a cloudy night.

Ten Four-Round Fights Presented In Olympic Ring

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 31 (AP)—More than half the seats in the 10,040 capacity Olympic auditorium were vacant last night when Manager Jack Doyle, attempting to breathe new life into the fight game here, presented ten four-round bouts.

Joe (Pepe) Gonzalez, 200-pound Mexico City heavyweight, won a decision by a wide margin from Ace Dodge, of local extraction, flooring his 190-pound opponent with a right to the head in the third and fourth rounds for counts of nine.

Al Romero, of Los Angeles, who recently represented Mexico in Olympic games in the welterweight division, won an unimpressive decision over Herman Ritterhouse, Los Angeles, in his first professional bout, while Pedro Villanueva, Mexico City bantamweight, lost an unpopular decision over Speedy Dado, veteran Filipino campaigner.

The other feature bout saw Ah White, Lee, Portland, Ore., Chinese, win a close bout from Jimmy Alvarado, Los Angeles, by the decision route.

Creavy Favored To Reach Finals In Pro Tourney

By Paul Mickelson (Associated Press Sports Writer)
 ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 31 (AP)—Survivors of Keller's big wind, which blew such favorites as Billy Burke, Harry Cooper and Tommy Armour from the fairways to the sidelines, opened hand to hand warfare today for the professional golf championship of America.

Heading the contending brigade in the battle that doesn't end until Sunday were Tom Creavy, of Albany, N. Y., the defending champion; Olin Dutra, star windjammer of the game from Santa Monica, Cal., and tournament medalist with 140 shots, and the five-time king of the nation's money players, Walter Hagen, of Detroit, who ran into the classic match play struggle of the opening round by matching shots with Johnny Golden, of Woodstock, Conn.

Thirteen states, representing all sections of the nation, had survivors in the field and safely past one of the wildest qualifying rounds in years. New York led with nine and was followed by Illinois, which had Horton Smith as its chief hope of six in the long grind.

Creavy, who demonstrated that he was on his game yesterday by carding a 36-hole total of 145 even though he didn't have to qualify, faced John Hines, New York, in the first match in defense of his title today. On the basis of past performances, he was in the easiest of the two brackets and his game made him a big favorite to wedge into the finals.

Another three-kilometer speed dash was on today's program, with the hope of breaking the world's land-plane record of 278 miles an hour, but with little expectation that the ambition will be realized before the final day of the races, next Monday.

The list of today's entrants in the dash depended upon the availability of the several high-speed planes, some of which may not be ready until later in the week.

Govnor Claims 'Eddie Tolan Day'

LANSING, Mich., Aug. 31 (AP)—Governor Wilbur M. Brucker has proclaimed Sept. 6 "Eddie Tolan day" in Michigan, in honor of the little negro youth who, in the words of the proclamation, "brought honor to our commonwealth by winning the two principal dash events" at the Olympic games.

Tolan will be extended special recognition at the state fair that day and the governor said he hoped "appropriate observances" would be arranged elsewhere over the state.

One of the most interesting machines in a Chesterfield factory is this almost human "making" machine, which stacks up 750 finished cigarettes a minute. End-on, tray-full looks like a huge honey-comb. But the job isn't ended there, for white-gloved inspectors, eagle-eyed and expert from long practice, remove with tweezers each torn or imperfect Chesterfield.

Every possible precaution is taken, both for cleanliness and perfection of product. Every 4 1/2 minutes the air in the factories is changed. The air in the factories is pure, and burn without taste or odor.
