

Portland's Lead Is Now Eight Games

BEAVERS WALLOP MISSIONS TWICE AND ANGELS LOSE

Los Angeles, Hollywood and San Francisco All Beaten in Holiday Double Headers.

By the Associated Press. Labor day by beating the Missions twice to make it seven victories in the nine-game series. With an eight game lead over the second-place Angels, Portland has just about cinched the pennant. Los Angeles, Hollywood and San Francisco, the other first division clubs, all lost their holiday doubleheaders.

Paul Zahnler pitched the Ducks to victory in the opener, 7 to 1. Dutch Reuther, the losing hurler, was hit hard, but might have held the score down except for poor support. Bill Shores outpitched Bert Cole in the second game, which ended 3 to 1 for Portland. Dick Gyselman, Mission third sacker, got three of the six hits the Reds made. Batteries: first game, Portland, Zahnler and Fitzpatrick; Missions, Reuther and McIsaac; second game, Shores and Palmisano; Cole and Hofmann.

Seattle gave Los Angeles a double setback, winning 4 to 7, and 7 to 2, with Lynn Nelson pitching all of both games. The Indians took six of the nine games in the series. The Seattle batters made 12 hits in each game. Batteries: first game, Seattle, Nelson and Cox; Los Angeles, Ballou, Maltzberger and Campbell; second game, Nelson and Bottarini; Bascett, Maltzberger and Cronin.

The Sacramento Senators proved again they have the Seals' number by taking a day game at Stockton 8 to 3, and topping it off by winning the evening performance at Sacramento 4 to 1. San Francisco won only one game of the series. In the opener the Seals fell on Curt Davis for 11 hits and got away to an early lead. Jimmy De Shong was deprived of a shutout in the second game by the home run of Donovan. Seals first sacker, in the eighth. Batteries: first game, San Francisco, Davis and Walgren; Sacramento, Bryan and Woodall; second game, McDougal, Douglas and Ricci; De Shong and Wirtz.

The seventh-place Oaks tripped Hollywood twice, 5 to 3 and 2 to 0, seriously interfering with the Stars' pennant aspirations. Clarence Fisher, young Oakland pitcher, stopped the southerners with seven hits in the opener. In the second game Roy Joiner would have had a no-hit contest but for a double by Johnny Sherlock. Hollywood first baseman, in the fifth inning, Oakland won six of the nine games in the series. Batteries: first game, Hollywood, Sheehan, A. Walsh and Bassler; Oakland, Fieber and Raimondi; second game, M. Thomas and Mayer; Joiner and Raimondi.

Alexander Still Saving Games But For Whiskered Nine

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Sept. 6 (AP)—Grover Cleveland Alexander—Remember the day he came shuffling from the bull pen to the mound in Yankee stadium to strike out Tony Lazzeri and silence the Yanks last great threat to beat the St. Louis Cardinals out of a world's championship?

He's still pulling the rescue act with the greatest of success. Old Alex, now tossing 'em over for the House of David semi-pro team, has saved two games for his team in the Southwestern Iowa tourney with the result that the Davids have reached the finals.

On the first occasion, Alex did the trick with one pitch, a slow curve that was hit into the ground with the tying and winning run on base in the ninth. The second rescue act was staged in the eighth inning of the Davids' next tourney game. Alex was nicked for a run before he retired the side but went on to retire the hitters in order in the ninth.

Sport Slants
By Alan J. Gould
(Associated Press Sports Editor)
One of the curious sideights of the Olympic track and field battle, as I gathered it from the Finnish grapevine system of information, concerns the reaction of Paavo Nurmi to the tactics of his youthful fellow countrymen in competition, notably that of Lauri Lehtinen.

To have the real picture it is necessary to keep in mind that the international moguls, before the games, held up the great Paavo as a somewhat horrible example of an amateur gone wrong, placing upon him by indirect action the stigma of professionalism.

So Nurmi sat in the stands during the games, an obscure and silent figure, forgotten mostly by the multitude, the last of his Olympic records wiped off the books.

Like the rest of the crowd he watched the tactics of Purje in the 1500 meters, in which this Finn collided with most of the field, including the Americans, Halliwell and Crowley; then, on the following day, saw Lehtinen crowd off Hill, in violation of the rules, in the stretch drive of the 5000 meters.

Nurmi not only watched but grew a bit incensed. The old master never would have descended to such methods himself. So it seems that when he got back to the Olympic village in the evening he took these young fellows to task in no uncertain terms.

In fact, the story goes that Paavo, who has a habit of speaking his mind without fear or favor among his own clan, "dressed down" the boys quite briskly, not only for their unsatisfactory performances, but for the impression they created among spectators.

"They can't stop Nurmi from being a sportsman, anyway,"

CARR AND EASTMAN

One of the big regrets of the games, of course from the American viewpoint, was the fact that big Ben Eastman did not lead the pursuit of Tom Hampson, the British school teacher, in the 800 meters. Instead of chasing Willie Carr in the 400.

Most any unbiased observer could have told in advance just how the third edition of the Carr-Eastman story was going to end—just like the previous two. At 400 Carr packs too much speed and "kick" for Eastman. Carr is a sprinter, Eastman a strider who is apt to "tie up" when he begins reaching for the tape.

On the other hand, at his natural distance, the half-mile or 800, Eastman would have furnished one of the prettiest duels of the games against Hampson and Alex Wilson of Canada.

POST MORTEM
You can't convince Evelyn Hall of Chicago, even now, that she was beaten by Babe Didrikson, the "wonder girl," in the final of the girls 80-meter hurdles in the Olympics.

The slow motion pictures only serve to heighten the argument, so far as Evelyn is concerned. I sat through a showing of these pictures as Mrs. Hall argued her point in person. The films showed Evelyn and Babe hitting the tape simultaneously, but the Texas girl appeared to gain a shade by twisting her left shoulder across the finish line first.

Evelyn had as much if not more of her body across in a full-striding finish, and her forward knee was in front.

Beauty Envoy From Philadelphia

Hello! Lovely day, isn't it? Read any good books lately? . . . Oh, excuse us! We forgot to introduce Miss Rosalyn Schultz of Philadelphia. No—she's not going bathing. She's going to Wildwood, N. J., where there's to be a national beauty pageant. . . . Bye, bye! Drop us a postcard, Rosalyn.

Halfback Squad At Oregon State Reported Strong

(Following is the sixth of a series of articles on football prospects at Oregon State College for the coming season.)

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Sept. 6.—Although Oregon State college football squad lost two lettermen left halfbacks by graduation, nevertheless, this year's halfback department should be much stronger than that which represented the Orange last season. The two ball carriers who will be missing from the roll call Sept. 10 are Reg Rust of Santa Ana, Cal., and Bill Head of Portland.

The outstanding candidates for left halfback are Johnny Blanche of Portland, who won his letter at quarter last season; Roney Adams of Corvallis and Phil Small of Jackson, Tenn., varsity reserves last year; Norman Franklin of Long Beach, Cal.; Willard Jarvis and Charles Pycock, both from Portland, all members of last year's freshman squad.

Blanche and Franklin, both triple threats, have the edge on the other candidates. Both are great safety men and open field runners. Blanche has the advantage of one year of varsity experience. Franklin is one of the fastest men ever to play for Oregon State. He ran the century in .39 several times last season. He played quarter on the freshman team last year. Coach Schlatter would like to use both men in the game at the same time and for this reason may use Blanche at quarter where he can alternate with Franklin at carrying the ball.

With the return of both lettermen right halfbacks, Hal Moe of Great Falls, Mont., and Pierre Bowman of Honolulu, the right halfback position should be much stronger than last season. Moe was the greatest blocking halfback on the coast last season. Bowman, another great blocker, is the hardest tackler on the squad.

Other right half prospects are Arnold Heikonen of Portland and Howard Forrest of Rainier, both members of last year's freshman squad. Both looked good in spring practice. All they need is experience.

Gar Wood Will Make Attempt To Raise Mark

DETROIT, Sept. 6 (AP)—Gar Wood and Kaye Don, victor and loser respectively in the Hawthorn trophy race that ended yesterday when the British challenging craft, Miss England III, broke down and withdrew, today were planning further tests of their hydroplanes.

Wood, whose Miss America X coasted to a slow victory in both heats of the race because of mechanical troubles to Don's craft, was making arrangements for an assault on the world's one-mile championship, now held by Miss England III at 119.81 miles an hour. The time and place for the trial have not been determined.

Don, disappointed at the second failure of his craft, but smiling nevertheless, will leave tomorrow or Thursday for Toronto. There, if repairs can be effected to his white-hulled hydroplane, he will take it out again for a speed demonstration.

The British speed king will take one trophy back home with him. It is a punch bowl, awarded for the fastest Hawthorn lap. Don won it in the opening lap of Saturday's heat when he streaked over the course at 88.68 miles an hour.

Yanks Need Six Wins to Clinch American Title

By Herbert W. Barker
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Joe McCarthy's pennant-bound New York Yankees garnered the most valuable harvest of Labor day's crop of double headers.

Pacing the Philadelphia Athletics, their closest rivals, the Yankees tossed their twin mound aces, left handed Vernon Gomez and right handed Johnny Allen, into the fray and emerged with two victories that left them only six more to win to clinch the American league flag.

As the team stood today, the Yankees led the Athletics by 1 1/2 games. Six more Yankee victories, or any combination of Yankee victories and Athletic defeats which totals six, automatically will give the Yankees the pennant. Washington, in third place, will be eliminated when the Yankees win five games or when Yankee victories and Washington defeats total five.

Gomez turned in his 23rd victory against six defeats in the opener which the Yankees won, 8-0, chiefly because they scored six runs in the first inning on six bases on balls, singles by Gehrig and Gomez, and McNair's error. Allen won his 16th game against two losses in the nightcap, giving the A's nine scattered hits as the Yankees won 6-3. Babe Ruth hit his 40th homer in the first game.

Senators Take Two
Effective pitching by Alvin Crowder and Fred Marberry gave Washington two victories over the Boston Red Sox, 6-2 and 9-3, and Cleveland walloped the St. Louis Browns twice, 12-9 and 6-4, Earl Averill clouting his 29th and 30th homers in the opener. Earl Whitehill pitched steady ball as Detroit turned back the Chicago White Sox, 5-3, but the Sox took the nightcap, 3-1, as Milt Gaston allowed only five hits.

In the National league, Pittsburgh shaved another game off the Chicago Cubs' lead by whipping the St. Louis Cardinals twice, 4-3 and 3-1, behind effective pitching by Heinie Melton and Larry French.

The Cubs split a double header with the Cincinnati Reds, winning the first, 9-2, but dropping the second, 6-5.

Pittsburgh, which has won 10 games in a row, now trails the Cubs by six games.

The Phillies advanced to within two and one-half games of the third place Brooklyn Dodgers by taking the New York Giants over the hurdles twice, 3-2 and 5-4, despite Mel Ott's 30th and 31st homers.

The Boston Braves moved into fifth place, two games behind the Phillies, as a result of two triumphs over Brooklyn, 3-2 and 5-4.

DOLLAR GAINS STRENGTH IN THE DOMINION

NEW YORK, Sept. 6 (AP)—Recent strength of the Canadian dollar is attracting the attention of foreign currency dealers. In the past few weeks the dollar has been climbing steadily. Today it was quoted at 90.81 1/2 cents, almost a cent above its closing figure last Saturday. Its low for the year was 83.7 cents, recorded Jan. 2.

The demand for the Canadian money was attributed to various factors. In some quarters it was believed the preference rate of two pence a bushel on Canadian wheat granted by England at the recent empire conference had considerable to do with the dollar's firmness. Reports of plans for new Canadian financing were also credited for aiding the currency.

Butter and Egg Markets Steady As Week Begins

PORTLAND, Sept. 6 (AP)—The week's opening in the local butter and egg markets found them both steady and in good position, particularly on the better grades.

The holdover for immediate delivery in eggs was comparatively small on the larger sizes and a firm demand for the week was indicated. Receipts were believed no heavier than would be expected after a double holiday. There were no price changes for the day.

Butter, especially on 92 score or better, was in good position with new receipts apparently due to be light. Undergrade stuff was somewhat more plentiful. Prices for the day unchanged.

The week's opening in the local market for all grades of chickens found prices firm and mostly unchanged from the close of last week. The carryover on the street was only moderate. Springs continue in best call, all weights.

There is plenty of all kinds of fish available here except Chinook salmon, which is in lighter supply and somewhat hard to get. Prices were unchanged for the day.

Country meats are about steady locally and prices about unchanged. There was light holdover from Saturday except on lamb, receipts of which were heavy as the week ended. Lemons were up to 99 for the Tuesday trade, an average advance of 50 to 75 cents.

Oranges are down to $4.25 for the 12s, $3.75 for the 15s and $3.25 for the 20s and 21s.

Supplies of local Elberta peaches were larger for the day. They are quoted at 39 to 35 cents, some a little higher and some a little less, depending on the quality. Muira and Crawford are to be had at 40 cents.

Due to the large supply, Dillard cantaloupes are somewhat cheaper. They were quoted for Tuesday at 85 cents and plentiful at that price.

Decline in the prices of Tokays was reported for the day. They were quoted at $1.15.

Oysters are slow due largely to warm weather. Cucumbers are plentiful at two-bits a box. Green corn is dull and in poor call at round 65 cents a sack. All seasonal lines are in big supply, due to double holiday. Potatoes and onions slow at nominal prices.

Bears In Control At Closing Hour

NEW YORK, Sept. 6 (AP)—Bull forces were thrown into retreat in late trading in the stock market today, after a bold rally early. Gains of $1 to $4 a share were largely erased, and several issues closed $2 to $3 under Saturday's final prices.

The market seemed to tire easily during the afternoon and in the last hour reactionary tendencies prevailed, despite efforts of the bullish professionals to hold up the coppers.

Sales on the stock exchange approximated 4,500,000 shares.

Less Wheat To Be Planted In U. S. This Fall

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6 (AP)—The department of agriculture announced today that reports from farmers indicated that they intended to plant about 39,805,000 acres of winter wheat this fall.

An area of 40,172,000 acres was planted last fall. This year's planting will be below the 43,528,000 acres sown in 1930 and 48,347,000 acres in 1927.

Total reduction from the peak level of 1927 will amount to approximately 17 per cent for the country as a whole with the wheat growing regions east of the Mississippi leading the decrease.

The department said 39,805,000 acres sown in winter wheat would result in a harvest area of approximately 35,000,000 acres if abandonment were average and an average yield on such an area would produce about 510,000,000 bushels. At the present acreage levels, the spring wheat crop would be about 275,000,000 bushels, making a total of about 785,000,000 bushels for the year.

Copper Industry Hears Good News

NEW YORK, Sept. 6 (AP)—The copper industry was further cheered today by the increasing firmness of foreign metal prices. It was reported that copper sold abroad as high as 8.25 cents a pound, cif. Hamburg, Havre and London.

While prices in the domestic market were unchanged at 6 cents a pound, delivered to the end of 1932, producers were indifferent sellers at this rate and somewhat higher quotations were expected in some quarters. The volume of buying continued small.
