

SOCIETY NOTES

Miss Bess Duke, Society Editor Telephone Main 600 Until 9:30 a. m.

Weekend Quiet Socially in La Grande With Round-Up and Opening of School Receiving Attention From Majority

With the American Legion convention and the Pendleton Round-Up taking many La Grander out of the city, and the opening of school occupying the attentions of many of the remainder, the past weekend in La Grande was exceedingly quiet socially.

Girl claimed the attention of the enthusiasts at the La Grande country club, while others were seen swimming at Cove—among them Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Ralston and children, Mr. and Mrs. Merin Batley and son, Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Finlay and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rosebarn and children, Miss Catherine Sartain, Miss Catherine Osburn and others.

Among those spending the weekend at the Pendleton Round-Up were Mr. and Mrs. John Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Greulich, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cooledge and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller, Mrs. Fred E. Kiddie, Miss Helen Moor.

Many Participate In Flower Show

As the 1932 annual flower show becomes history in the annals of the La Grande Neighborhood club, Mrs. John Theisen, general chairman, announces that the success of the event was due to the enthusiasm of her committee. They were Mrs. Fred H. Kiddie, Mrs. Harry Laft, Mrs. A. L. Gralapp, Mrs. Ed Moon, Mrs. Mathilda Anthony and Mrs. Roger Hill, entries; Mrs. J. T. Longfellow, Miss Dorothy Kirby, Mrs. Stella Ingle, Mrs. John Miller, judge choosing committee; Mrs. A. L. Richardson, program; Mrs. Roy Dexter, Mrs. W. C. Perkins, Mrs. Frank Reelin, Mrs. F. L. Ralston, Mrs. Harry Moon, Mrs. J. H. Keeney, Mrs. Frank Robinson, Miss Hilda Anthony, Miss Ida McMeekin, candy committee.

The candy committee was assisted generally by a group of younger maids.

Assisting Mrs. Theisen in arranging the decoration and exhibits in the ball room of the La Grande hotel where the event was held were Mrs. R. P. Murphy, Mrs. Walter Leisman, Mrs. A. L. Gralapp, Mrs. A. W. Hesse, Mrs. Hal Bohnenkamp was also a member of the group.

In the program presented during the evening, Mrs. H. N. Ashby was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Merin Batley, her regular accompanist.

In awarding the yard prizes on Friday, the Willow school on the north side of the tracks was overlooked, but has since received an award for first place.

Clubs Are Entering Their Fall Seasons

Several interesting events have been announced for the coming week, among them the first fall meetings of the L. D. S. First Ward M. I. A. on Tuesday, the M. I. L. club on Tuesday; the Eastern Star, the Ah Deith and the Helomala clubs on Wednesday.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

- Monday, Sept. 12
7:30 Royal Neighbors of America, at the Odd Fellows hall.
8:00 Eastern Star Social club, with Mrs. L. H. Russell.
3:00 K. P. and Pythian Sisters in joint meeting at Sacajawea ballroom.
Tuesday, Sept. 13
2:00 Pythian Sisters Social club with Mrs. Walter Jones.
2:00 M. I. L. club, with Mrs. Ray Goodnough.
7:00 W. B. A. meeting and benefit card party, Sacajawea Inn.
8:00 Annual opening social of First Ward M. I. A. at Accretional hall.
Wednesday, Sept. 14
2:00 Helomala club, with Mrs. Art Wesel.
2:00 Ah Deith club, with Mrs. William Barclay.
2:00 Women's Foreign Missionary society of M. E. church, with Mrs. E. C. Shellworth.
2:00 Parkdale club, at Riverside park.
7:30 Crystal Rebekah lodge, No. 60, I. O. O. P. hall.
8:00 No Hostess club, with Mrs. Doyle Zimmerman.
8:00 Eastern Star, Masonic hall.
Thursday, Sept. 15
2:00 G. I. A. Social club, at the Sacajawea Inn.
2:00 Past Guardian Neighbors with Mrs. Mary Yeske.
2:00 Women's Relief Corps, at the Knight's of Pythias hall.
7:30 L. O. M. entertain Women of the Moose, at the Moose hall.
Friday, Sept. 16
2:00 L. D. club, with Mrs. Hyde.
2:00 Diversity club, with Mrs. John Price.
Saturday, Sept. 17

Building Total Is Now at $17,328.00

Issuance of a building permit on Sept. 8 to W. G. Sawyer, to erect a frame building on Jefferson avenue between Fir and Greenwood streets, brought the total amount of new building here this year to $17,328. The amount mentioned in Mr. Sawyer's permit was $600.

Young Officers In Navy Must Remain Single Two Years

WASHINGTON (AP)—Believing that sea duty and matrimony do not mix so far as young naval officers are concerned, the navy has ordered that graduates of the Annapolis naval academy hereafter remain single for two years.

If any officer marries within that time, the order said, "it shall be considered as equivalent to a resignation and his commission shall be revoked." In making public the order, it was said at the navy that "any outside diversion will be a decided handicap to an ensign, in detracting his time and attention from his life aboard ship."

Portland Hotels Take No Chances; Lobbies Denuded

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 12 (AP)—Portland hotel proprietors literally cleared their decks for action today. Lobbies of all downtown hotels were denuded of all rugs and movable furniture, except plain board tables and the undertaker parlor variety of chairs.

Laundry bags underwent major operations unfitting them for carrying water. All this despite the assurance of Henry L. Stevens Jr., national commander of the American Legion, that his boys no longer are, if they ever were, rowdies, and episodes at some previous national conventions would not recur.

During the convention in Detroit, laundry bags filled with water, were dropped from hotel windows during the legion parade, and pillows were slit open to wait their feathery insides over the parading thousands.

Stevens explained that the "camp followers" really have been responsible for some of the episodes in the past. The legion commander invited Portland clergymen to attend the convention sessions to see how decorous the legion is. At the same time, Stevens requested department commanders to instruct their groups that heckling of "distinguished guests would be frowned on."

Warning the department commanders that in previous conventions hecklers have been "planted" in the audience, Stevens voiced the hope that the "distinguished guests" whom he did not name, would avoid controversial subjects.

FARM WAR IN MIDDLE WEST WILL RESUME

(Continued From Page One)

days the problems of midwestern farmers, suggested: "That the tariff system be revised to give equality of protection to agricultural products.

"That a sound expansion of currency would do justice between debtors and creditors and enhance commodity prices.

"That the national agricultural credit system should be reorganized to refinance the American farmer at a lower rate of interest," and that the Reconstruction Finance corporation extend its credit facilities to the farmer.

Numerous speakers who addressed the conference had agitated for an air-tight embargo on all shipments of agricultural produce from the mid-west until prices rise above cost-of-production figures. To this the governors replied:

"There is no legal precedent to sustain the attempted power of an embargo on food products by the governor or legislature of a state, for the purpose of raising the price thereof.

"We believe that the same results sought to be accomplished by an attempted governmental embargo can be accomplished by the farmers themselves through lawful voluntary co-operation."

Directing attention of the federal government and its agencies to the farm situation to the statement recommended: "That the president direct the department of agriculture, and all federal controlled banks and credit agencies, to refrain from foreclosures on farm property until congress assembles to act upon the matter;

"That the national agricultural credit system refinance the farmer at a lower rate of interest, and that the Reconstruction Finance corporation extend its credit facilities to the farmer."

Falling in this, the report recommends that states enact legislation to alleviate the condition of farmers in distress. It was signed by Governors Warren Green, of South Dakota, who called the conference; Olson of Minnesota, Turner of Iowa, and Shafer of North Dakota, and Representatives T. S. Allen, of Nebraska; Earl H. Hinesfeld, of Ohio; Ira Mitchell, of Oklahoma; L. T. Oldroyd, of Wyoming and Alvin C. Reis, of Wisconsin.

WINSTON CHURCHILL ILL. SALSBERG, Austria, Sept. 12 (AP)—Winston Churchill, former British chancellor of the exchequer, was taken from his hotel to a hospital today with a slight case of paratyphoid. The doctor said his condition was not alarming.

Early Travel

The first stage coach between New York and Philadelphia, in 1700 took two days for the journey.

In a Nutshell
Cease to inquire what the future has in store, and take as a gift whatever the day brings forth.

322 Registered During Week At Wallowa School

By Mrs. C. A. Hunter (Observer Correspondent)

WALLOWA (Special)—School opened in Wallowa last Monday with 115 pupils registered in the high school and 207 in the grades. Four new teachers have been added to the faculty, Miss Isabel Goodnough, instructor in English and French; Miss Alice Norton, home economics, and Miss Ann Kuble and George Brown are new grade teachers. Many families from outside districts have moved in to town so their children will enroll in school here.

The decision of the school board to give free tuition to the grade students has resulted in a much larger attendance than would have been possible otherwise. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Couch and sons left Tuesday for their home in Portland after spending a few days with his father, L. Couch.

Two small children were accidentally hurt Saturday at the home of Elvyn Reel, just outside of town. Mrs. Roland McCrae and small daughter had gone to spend the afternoon with Mrs. Reel and the 20 months old son of the Reel's and the McCrae baby were playing in the kitchen when the little boy fell against the corner of the stove and badly injured his head.

While the two mothers were working with him, applying hot and cold bandages, the little girl tripped and fell in the bucket of hot water and her hair was so badly scalded that it had to be cared for at the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Greenwell sailed from San Francisco for Kealahouka, Hawaii, where they will make their home. Mrs. Greenwell was formerly Miss Helen Dale, of Wallowa, and her marriage occurred in Corvallis in June. Mr. and Mrs. Greenwell have spent the summer in California.

Sebert Huffman, 76, pioneer resident of Union and Wallowa counties, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. David Scott, here Monday, Sept. 6. He had been an invalid for several years and his death was not unexpected. For many years Mr. Huffman lived on a farm near Elgin but the last years of his life were spent in this county with his children. He was a member of the Odd Fellows lodge at Elgin. Funeral services were held at Enterprise Wednesday afternoon from the Methodist church at Joseph with Rev. J. B. Williams, of Wallowa, in charge of the services. Interment took place in the Joseph cemetery.

Mrs. Barton Wade entertained the members of the American Legion auxiliary at her home Thursday afternoon. A business meeting was held and officers elected as follows: president, Anita Goebel, first vice president, Kathryn Wade, second vice president, Gladys Chapman, of Lostine, chaplain, Ora McKenzie, secretary-treasurer, Margaret Dougherty, historian, Nellie Poole. Mrs. C. T. McDaniel was chosen as a delegate to attend the legion convention in Portland and left Sunday for that city.

Mrs. Ross Hood was president of the auxiliary last year. Art Johnson left Monday for San Francisco after a two week's visit with relatives.

Mrs. Edwin Marvin, Mrs. Charles Hauptreich and Miss Eula Marvin motored to La Grande and spent the day Tuesday. Mrs. W. S. Doak and son, Bill, of the Dalles, left for their home Wednesday after visiting for several days at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George Dale here.

Miss Virginia Hunter returned home Friday from a three weeks' visit with friends in Portland. Jessica chapter, O. E. S. resumed meetings Thursday evening after the summer vacation. A social hour followed the regular work and was in charge of Miss Agatha Marvin and Mrs. Earl Peffer. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sherod, of Middle valley, are the parents of a nine and a half pound baby boy born at their home Friday, Sept. 2.

Mrs. Joe McClaran and sons have moved to Wallowa from their home at Lightning creek and Joe Jr. and Jack are attending the grammar school here. Fay Johnson, who has been ill of pneumonia for two weeks at the hospital, was able to return to her home in Lower valley Sunday.

After being adjourned for six weeks the Presbyterian Ladies Aid held its first meeting of the fall Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Ray McKinzie was hostess to the group at her home in Lower valley. Seventeen members and friends motored out to attend the meeting. Mrs. Hollis Bull was devotional leader for the day and gave an interesting talk on the life of Paul. Mrs. L. B. Williams read an article on "Sabbath Day Observance." Following the business meeting refreshments were served by the hostess. The Aid will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Hollis Bull.

The Methodist Ladies Aid met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. K. W. McKinzie with Mrs. Jesse Tuley as assistant hostess. During the business meeting plans were made to serve a dinner at the church basement in the near future. Twelve members were present. A social hour and refreshments closed the afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. F. P. Jones left Wednesday for Portland where they will attend the legion convention. The doctor will return in about a week but Mrs. Jones will remain in Portland and in Eugene with her mother, Mrs. Ina Goodnough, for a month or six weeks.

Miss Ann Kuble, of Spokane, arrived the last of the week to take charge of the fifth grade work here. Miss Louise Kennedy was fifth grade teacher last year and resigned to accept a position in Gladstone. Miss Kuble taught the last two years at Yakima.

Mrs. T. T. Shell is able to be out again after being confined to her home for several days because of a badly sprained arm, the result of a fall on a broken sidewalk near her home last Sunday.

Use of Cars By Students Taboo Board Decides

SALEM, Sept. 12 (AP)—Unnecessary use of automobiles by students at University of Oregon, Oregon State college and the three state normal schools will be taboo from the start of school, the board of higher education announced from its offices late Saturday.

A motion adopted at a previous meeting "that automobiles should be forbidden, effective at the beginning of the fall term this year," was codified as follows.

- First: To prohibit student owned cars.
Second: To prohibit students from driving rented cars.
Third: To prohibit students who are local residents from driving family cars.
Fourth: To require students who come to the institution in their own cars from a distance to place them in dead storage.
Exemptions will be granted, after hearing before the faculty committee on enforcement at each campus, to the following classes.
Students who are physically handicapped.
Students who earn their living by use of their cars.
Students, who, in the opinion of the committee, find it necessary to use a car because they live an excessive distance and are not accommodated by any regular means of transportation.
Married students who have their families resident in the school or college community. Permits and specially designed license plates will be issued to all students exempted from the regulation.

POPULAR COOKS ARE THOSE WITH TASTY SURPRISES

(Continued From Page One)

be taken into consideration, and all of these things go into the making of a good cook, as well as her actual cooking ability. "However, I will say," continues Miss Gray that the most appreciated cook is the one who springs little tasty surprises on the family from time to time.

Miss Gray is bringing to La Grande's housewives in her Kitchen Chautauqua programs, many hints for these "little tasty surprises," as well as the practical, everyday "roast-beef-and-gravy" menus.

There will be dishes with the tang of romance—"different" things—as well as simple, varied and palatable menus. Miss Gray has a world of little handy suggestions as to how your every-day dishes can be more simply made; how left-overs can be used; and how to make every minute spent in your kitchen more interesting.

Health

DIET AND PSORIASIS
Psoriasis, which affects the skin, giving rise to chronic scaly patches, has been an enigma to the medical profession.

There is no definite knowledge as to its cause nor yet any established method for curing it.

There are many remedies available for the treatment of psoriasis, which will cause the scaling to diminish and the conditions to become quiescent, but these are merely remedies, not cures.

Recently Professor Schamberg of the University of Pennsylvania brought forth renewed arguments in favor of a low protein diet in the treatment of psoriasis.

Professor Schamberg does not claim this treatment to be a cure, but he does maintain that his own clinical experiences and the experiences of others who have applied his method have demonstrated its worth.

The reasoning upon which he bases his treatment is somewhat as follows: In psoriasis, the skin cells multiply rapidly. For this growth the cells require building material.

The building material required by these cells is protein. A diet rich in protein is therefore prone to stimulate the skin cells which appear to be affected by a powerful growth impulse.

On the other hand, by keeping the patient on a low protein diet a condition is brought about in which no protein can be supplied to the rapidly multiplying cells of the skin.

The low protein diet which Professor Schamberg recommends is not safe for common application. The patient must be under the care of a physician and preferably in a hospital.

The protein content of the foods which the patient consumes must be measured carefully. In so stubborn a disease as psoriasis any promising method of treatment might be justly followed and its worth tried; hence Professor Schamberg's proposal will undoubtedly be tested further.

There is no definite knowledge as to its cause nor yet any established method for curing it.

There are many remedies available for the treatment of psoriasis, which will cause the scaling to diminish and the conditions to become quiescent, but these are merely remedies, not cures.

Recently Professor Schamberg of the University of Pennsylvania brought forth renewed arguments in favor of a low protein diet in the treatment of psoriasis.

Professor Schamberg does not claim this treatment to be a cure, but he does maintain that his own clinical experiences and the experiences of others who have applied his method have demonstrated its worth.

There are many remedies available for the treatment of psoriasis, which will cause the scaling to diminish and the conditions to become quiescent, but these are merely remedies, not cures.

Recently Professor Schamberg of the University of Pennsylvania brought forth renewed arguments in favor of a low protein diet in the treatment of psoriasis.

Professor Schamberg does not claim this treatment to be a cure, but he does maintain that his own clinical experiences and the experiences of others who have applied his method have demonstrated its worth.

The reasoning upon which he bases his treatment is somewhat as follows: In psoriasis, the skin cells multiply rapidly. For this growth the cells require building material.

The building material required by these cells is protein. A diet rich in protein is therefore prone to stimulate the skin cells which appear to be affected by a powerful growth impulse.

On the other hand, by keeping the patient on a low protein diet a condition is brought about in which no protein can be supplied to the rapidly multiplying cells of the skin.

The low protein diet which Professor Schamberg recommends is not safe for common application. The patient must be under the care of a physician and preferably in a hospital.

The protein content of the foods which the patient consumes must be measured carefully. In so stubborn a disease as psoriasis any promising method of treatment might be justly followed and its worth tried; hence Professor Schamberg's proposal will undoubtedly be tested further.

There is no definite knowledge as to its cause nor yet any established method for curing it.

There are many remedies available for the treatment of psoriasis, which will cause the scaling to diminish and the conditions to become quiescent, but these are merely remedies, not cures.

Recently Professor Schamberg of the University of Pennsylvania brought forth renewed arguments in favor of a low protein diet in the treatment of psoriasis.

Professor Schamberg does not claim this treatment to be a cure, but he does maintain that his own clinical experiences and the experiences of others who have applied his method have demonstrated its worth.

The reasoning upon which he bases his treatment is somewhat as follows: In psoriasis, the skin cells multiply rapidly. For this growth the cells require building material.

The building material required by these cells is protein. A diet rich in protein is therefore prone to stimulate the skin cells which appear to be affected by a powerful growth impulse.

On the other hand, by keeping the patient on a low protein diet a condition is brought about in which no protein can be supplied to the rapidly multiplying cells of the skin.

The low protein diet which Professor Schamberg recommends is not safe for common application. The patient must be under the care of a physician and preferably in a hospital.

The protein content of the foods which the patient consumes must be measured carefully. In so stubborn a disease as psoriasis any promising method of treatment might be justly followed and its worth tried; hence Professor Schamberg's proposal will undoubtedly be tested further.

There is no definite knowledge as to its cause nor yet any established method for curing it.

Menus Of The Day

MEXICAN RELISH FOR CHOPS
The Dinner Menu
Broiled Lamb Chops
Mexican Relish
Candied Sweet Potatoes
Escalloped Cabbage
Bread Butter
Sliced Bananas
Butterscotch Cookies
Coffee

Mexican Relish
8 cups chopped tomatoes
4 cups chopped sweet green peppers
1/2 cup red peppers, chopped
3 cups chopped onions
2 cups chopped celery
2 tablespoons salt
1/2 cup vinegar
3 cups vinegar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
Mix ingredients. Boil slowly and stir frequently until relish thickens. It will require about 50 minutes to thicken. Pour into hot sterilized jars and seal at once.

Escalloped Cabbage
4 tablespoons butter
6 tablespoons flour
3 cups milk
4 cups chopped, cooked cabbage
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup grated cheese
Melt butter and add flour. Blend well and add milk and cook until creamy sauce forms. Stir constantly. Add cabbage and seasonings. Pour into buttered baking dish. Sprinkle with cheese. Bake 20 minutes in moderate oven. Serve in dish in which baked.

Butterscotch Cookies (3 Dozen)
1 cup fat
2 cups dark brown sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 eggs
3 tablespoons cream
2-3 cup chopped nuts
3/4 cups flour
1 teaspoon soda
Cream the fat and sugar. Add vanilla, salt, eggs and cream. Beat 3 minutes. Add rest of ingredients, mixing lightly. Chill dough. Drop portions from end of spoon and flatten on a greased pan. Bake 12 minutes in moderate oven.

To refreshen white goods which have yellowed with age, soak overnight in sour milk and then rinse in cold water and wash in warm water and soap suds.

Chats With Parents

YOUTHFUL MELANCHOLY
By Alice Judson Prale

When Helen was five her father died. A favorite uncle became the object of her special love.

At his subsequent marriage she adopted a non-committal but not unfriendly attitude toward his wife. When Helen was eight a baby was born to them and she was taken to the hospital to see it.

Speechless she stood before the crib, then suddenly she cried out shrilly, pointing an accusing finger at her uncle who stood nearby. "That's your baby!" and demanded excitedly to be taken home.

She did not mention the baby again but on several occasions she said such things as, "He's not my favorite uncle at all. I'm sorry I made such a fuss about him."

Several days later, during which time her mood had gone from anger and excitement into an obvious depression, her mother heard her whispering with her brother, "People kill themselves sometimes, don't they? How do they do it? With a big knife?"

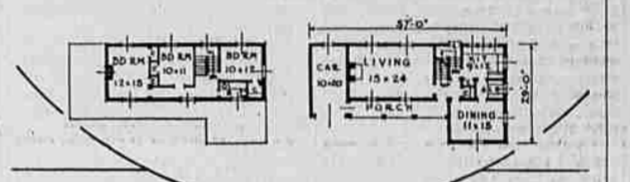

"No," the boy answered, "it would be easier to jump out of the window."

The mother, uneasy at this fantastic conversation, sought the advice of a psychologist. She was urged to show the child special tenderness and to give her a doll baby of her own. Better still if this gift should come from the uncle.

Helen responded happily. The beloved uncle was once more reinstated in her affections. Had he not given her a doll baby for her very own? Surely he must love her very much.

The clouds that had been gathering were suddenly lifted and the child was restored to her usual friendly good spirits.

Much House For Very Little

This Spanish-colonial adaptation has remarkable charm, a good deal of which comes from its lack of pretension. It is not out of place in any section, but it probably will find most friends in the south and the west. The living room is open on opposite sides, and if the house is faced either east or west, the room will be flooded with the morning and afternoon sun. The porch in front serves as a "sun blind" and as a shelter from the street. It is likewise the passage from the main portion of the house to the effectively placed garage. A cheery dining room is separated from the generous kitchen by a dining alcove, a feature much to be desired by the housewife who does not want her guests to know too much about the dinner in advance. And the alcove will serve for the breakfast of the family. The second floor will be found comfortable and flexible as well. For those who may desire a large bedroom rather than two adjoining smaller ones, the entire space over the living room may be put into one chamber. The bath will be found economically placed near the kitchen to lessen plumbing costs. Stucco or whitewashed brick will suit best, with a slate, shingle or flat tile roof. Sash and trim are white, shutters green, fence white and the garage doors should match the house walls. A lamprack at the drive entrance is a neat feature. Cost will be from $6,000 to $8,000; the lot should be 75 by 150 feet or larger.

Attend . . . The KITCHEN CHAUTAUQUA

2 to 4 P. M. Sept. 20, 21, 22, & 23 Sacajawea Ballroom

... which is an event of interest and importance to every woman of this city. Remember the dates and reserve all four afternoons for the Kitchen Chautauqua. . . New, Diverting, Instructive.

The Happy Kitchen

NIGHT WORLD
A "Look In" on New York's gay night clubs . . . their romance and drama.
LEW AYRES
MAE CLARKE—BORIS KARLOFF
Dorothy Reviet, Russell Hopton, Arletta Duncan, Bert Roach, Dorothy Peterson, Hedda Hopper.

TUESDAY . . . WEDNESDAY
A "DUPLIX" PROGRAM
2 FEATURE PICTURES
She started in a Rolls and finished in a truck . . . and then she was keeping STEADY COMPANY
Deliciously human, delightfully dramatic, grandly humorous slice of life.
with June Clyde Zasu Pitts Norman Foster
TOM BROWN OF CULVER
Ends Tonight . . .

She started in a Rolls and finished in a truck . . . and then she was keeping STEADY COMPANY
Deliciously human, delightfully dramatic, grandly humorous slice of life.
with June Clyde Zasu Pitts Norman Foster
TOM BROWN OF CULVER
Ends Tonight . . .