Second Annual Flower Show Is Held at Lostine

By Mrs. Wm. Wiggins (Observer Correspondent) LOSTINE (Special) — The second annual flower show sponsored by the Community club was held Friday in the old hardware building with Miss Edna Holmes as chairman of the arrangements. Many lovely flowers were entered—among them, gorgeous dahlias, snapdragons, asters, gold-banded lilies, sweet peas, marigolds, zinnias and others. The large stock of auratum lilies came from the flower garden of Mrs. C. L. Allen. The judges were Arthur Pace, Mrs. Butterfield and Mrs. Baird. Mrs. S. L. Magill received first on flowers, Mrs. Earl Allen second. Mrs. Ober Ward was given first on gardens and Mrs. Floyd Hammack, second.

Hen Smoked Cigarette A workman threw away a good-sized butt of a lighted cigarette. A brown leghorn hen instantly snatched at it, and unfortunately got the unlighted end in her beak. It lodged there, and at every attempt she would make to swallow it, it would smoke. She took puff after puff until the entire cigarette was smoked.—Farm Journal.

Actor and Politician "A politician," said Hi Ho, the sage of Chinatown, "must have the art of the play actor, knowing how to weep when he is not personally sad and how to smile when he is not greatly amused."—Washington Star.

They're Friends As the result of a study of the stomachs of 500 blackbirds, a state university reports them to be friends to agriculture. Primarily, they are insectivorous. When they run out of bugs they will use vegetable matter. While they do at times inflict damage to crops, they are held to be economically beneficial.

Guards Hot Corner For Giants

Manager Bill Terry of the New York Giants is thinking seriously of replacing many of his players with new talent for next year, but he plans to hang on to Gilbert English, above, young third baseman. The youngster hasn't hit much this far, but he is expected to improve. His fielding has been steady. English took over the bag several weeks ago when Johnny Vergez, regular, slipped out of the picture.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hook have gone on an extended auto trip, going first to the convention in Portland and then to New York where Mrs. Hook will visit her brother's grave at Arlington and then visit friends in the southern states. Marion Pearce left Friday to visit his parents at Pilot Rock. Dr. John Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Merl Fruitte, of Salem, arrived Sunday and are spending the week camping on the South Fork river. Mrs. D. B. Murphy, Miss Clare Jones, Mrs. Hazel Rader and daughter, Dorothy, of Eugene, were guests at the O. J. Polley home Monday. Mrs. George Dodge gave a dinner Monday in honor of Miss Ruth Leonard who left to teach at Dufur. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. Leonard, Weston Leonard, and Mrs. Lewis Brandt, Calvin Plants, Ruth Leonard and Mr. and Mrs. Dodge. Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Shultz, of Clarkston, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. William Forrester left Friday for Chimney lake where they camped until Monday, the visitors returning home Monday. M. O. Courtney, of Imnaha, was a business visitor here last week. Mr. and Mrs. M. Crow, son, Warner and daughter, Martha, are enjoying a week's outing at their cabin on the east fork of the South Fork river. Melvin Crow is working in the store during his father's absence. Frank Bradley, and daughters, Pauline and Eileen, returned Saturday from Astoria, Wash., where they had gone to take Mr. Bradley's mother home after having spent the summer here. Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Reese and son, Donald, of Enterprise, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lester Emmons. Donald Reese will stay at the Emmons home and attend the Lostine school. Mrs. William Wiggins and her sister, Mrs. Mary Sturgill, of Elgin, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Polley Sunday. O. W. Fagin and his niece, Mrs. Earl Allen, drove out to La Grande Thursday afternoon. They stopped at the Harlan Graham home near Elgin to take dinner. George Williams, who has been very ill of pneumonia, was taken to the Wallowa hospital Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Barton Wade and John Mack will leave Sunday for Portland where they will attend the American Legion convention. They will make the trip in the new car which they purchased last week. Charles Cole, who has been ill for several weeks, suffered another heart attack and was taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. William Goebbel, at Wallowa to be near the doctor. Mr. Keith Nolan returned Saturday from Monmouth and will visit his mother, Mrs. Anna Nolan, before she returns to Monmouth to complete her normal training this year. Mrs. James Dale, of Elgin, and Mrs. Sturm, of Joseph, were guests of Mrs. Mack Cook Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Singletary have returned from Bozeman where they have been working and are at the home of Mrs. Sara Magee. Miss Lucille Evans, of the Wallowa postoffice force, is spending a week's vacation at the Frank Bradley home and is assisting at the Bradley store. Magill home. Miss Bessie Smith has entered the Lostine High school. Marvin Wiggins has returned from Baker where he spent his vacation with his brother, L. E. Wiggins. Mrs. Mark Crossland, of Union, has been visiting friends here a few days. The Neighborhood club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Judd Cook. Election of officers was held and a program of stunts was given. The Ladies Aid met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. J. Chapman with an all day meeting. The day was spent quilting. The next meeting will be Tuesday with Mrs. Wm. Wiggins. Fred Edwards and Linz Hammack went to Pendleton Friday on business.

F. R. SMILES WHEN ASKED ABOUT THE MAINE ELECTION

(Continued from Page One) appeared, saying the nominee's only comment was "a broad smile." Congressman Sweeney then boarded the train for a brief conference with the candidate, and later said he found Roosevelt "looking fine, and in the best of health and spirits." "Al Smith is All Right" The congressman quoted Roosevelt as saying that "New England is all right" and that "Al Smith is all right and is a good Democrat." At 8:05 a. m., the special train started for St. Louis, where the nominee will make a 15-minute stop before going on to Jefferson City for an address tonight. Roosevelt was scheduled to arrive in St. Louis at 6:15 p. m. (Central Standard time) and at Jefferson City at 9 o'clock.

Visit the Ford Open-Air Salon Wednesday and Thursday, September 14 & 15 10 A. M. to 9 P. M. 4th & Jefferson Ave. One Block Past La Grande Hotel From Our Salesroom. You are cordially invited to attend a salon of the New Ford V-8. For the first time all fourteen of the new Ford body types will be on display here. You can inspect them conveniently, carefully and at your leisure. A cutaway chassis is also on display. You can examine every working part, see how it functions, learn the care with which it is made and realize the simplicity and sturdiness of Ford construction. There are talking pictures and special exhibits which show many of the new features. Attendants will be on hand to give you any information you might wish about the cars, or the details of their construction. If you phone your Ford dealer he'll gladly pick you up at your home or office and take you to the salon.

Lax Enforcing Of Law Charged In Curry County

MARSHFIELD, Ore., Sept. 13 (AP) — J. C. Leith, the first witness called in the summary hearing concerning alleged lax law enforcement in Curry county, testified before Circuit Judge Brand in Gold Beach Monday that he had been "struck" and knocked down by Moss Averil, Gold Beach resident, in a riot which allegedly followed the shut-down of the Gold Beach Electric company the night of October 31, 1931. Leith, whose letter to Governor Meier, following a grand jury hearing last spring, resulted in the hearing, is manager of the Gold Beach River, Light and Power company, a rival power firm. An attachment on the Gold Beach Electric company was served by Sheriff B. H. Turner on the night in question. Officers and patrons of the Gold Beach Electric company allegedly participated in the melee which followed. Leith declared Averil was a participant in the "riot" and said several others also were involved. He said he could not state definitely that E. R. Costello, his employe, was struck but that he did know Costello received severe bruises in some manner. Costello corroborated Leith's testimony. Resume Hearing Wednesday The hearing was adjourned over Tuesday, a state holiday, but will be resumed Wednesday. It was ordered by Governor Meier after "representations" had been made to him that the "laws in Curry county were not being faithfully executed and enforced." Grant Williams, district attorney, and R. H. Turner, sheriff, are the officials at whom the hearing is directed. A grand jury last spring failed to take any action after an investigation of the trouble. James O'Brien, a state police officer who was sent to investigate after Leith had written to the governor, reported that in his opinion the full details of the trouble had not been presented to the grand jury.

LEAP YEAR BRIDE

By LAURA LOU BROOKMAN (Copyright 1932) (By NEA Service Inc.) BEGIN HERE TODAY Cherry Dixon, pretty 19-year-old daughter of wealthy parents, falls in love with Dan Phillips, newspaper reporter. She quarrels with her father about Dan, leaves home and, taking advantage of Leap Year, asks Dan to marry her. They are married and for the first time Cherry finds out what it means to lack money. Her struggles with housework are discouraging. Dixie Shannon, movie critic of the News, is friendly with Cherry. She meets handsome Max Pearson, who also works on the News. Cherry receives a letter from her mother enclosing a check for $500. She returns the check because pride will not let her keep it. Dan undertakes to write a short story, becomes discouraged and leaves the unfinished. Two days later Cherry learns her mother is critically ill. She goes home but is not allowed to see Mrs. Dixon. After a terrifying wait Cherry's father tells her the doctor is ready to see them. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXVI Cherry was on her feet now. The eager hope that had shone in her eyes vanished as quickly as it had appeared. Her father remained in the doorway. Not so much as a muscle seemed to change in that relentless face. "Dr. Knowles—" Cherry began. "He's in the living room. We're to go there." They went down the stairs. Cherry just a little ahead. She did not look at her father again. Through the doorway of the living room she saw the doctor standing before the fireplace. There was a great bowl of roses on the table at the right. Cherry's mother had always kept flowers in that bowl, cutting and arranging them herself each morning. There was the basket where her mother kept the bit of sewing she liked to have handy for the hours before dinner. Nothing was changed and yet the whole room seemed empty now. Deserted. Cherry rushed forward. "Oh, Dr. Knowles, tell me!" she cried. "I can't bear this waiting. I can't bear it! I've got to know—" The doctor nodded. "Mrs. Dixon has been resting," he said, "and rest is what she needs above all else. She slept for almost two hours this afternoon. She's awake now but we're hoping she'll drop off again before long." He turned to Cherry. "Will you promise me," he said firmly, "that if I let you see your mother for a few moments you won't become hysterical? Will you promise to go in quietly and say just a word or two and then leave?" "Oh, yes, doctor,—I promise!" (Continued on Page Five)
