PORTLAND AGAIN DOWNS SEATTLE AND STARS LOSE

Oregonians Four Games Ahead With Only Five to Play — Angels Nose Out Stars 4 to 3.

By the Associated Press
The unstoppage Portland Ducks were practically assured of the Pacific Coast league championship following their 3 to 5 victory over Seattle Wednesday night and Hollywood's second straight defeat by Los Angeles.

Portland now leads Hollywood by four full games and need win only one of its five remaining games while the Stars are taking all of theirs to be certain of a tie. Two more victories will clinch the pennant for the Ducks.

Ducks Outfit But Win

Although outfit almost two to one in the Wednesday night game at Portland, the Ducks had little trouble in outscoring the Indians. The latter hit safely 15 times to 9 for the Ducks but could not convert them into runs. The league leaders scored 9 runs in the fifth on an Indian error and homers by Higgins and Johnson.

The Stars, who seem to have lost their victory punch, lost another heart-breaker, 4 to 3, to the Angels at Wrigley field Wednesday night. Hollywood tied the score at 2 all in the seventh and at 3 all in the ninth, only to lose when the Levitt men pushed over a lone tally in the last half of the tenth.

Sacramento turned the tables on the Oaks in their home field Wednesday night and took the second game of their final series 7 to 5. Two Oriental pitching aces started on the mound, Nishida, miniature Japanese, for Sacramento, and Lee Hong, Chinese hurler, for Oakland but were removed in the fifth and sixth innings, respectively. Though getting only 7 hits, the Senators talked once in the first, again in the fourth and pushed over five runs in the sixth. The Oaks could convert their 11 hits into only five runs.

Missions Whip Seals

Again on Wednesday the obstreperous Missions refused to act the part of a cellar club and upset San Francisco 3 to 1. Lloyd Johnson had a little the better of a pitching duel with Simoni. Seal recruit and former Santa Clara football star, Simoni pitched a creditable game, however, although granting seven walks.

Sport Slants

By Alan J. Gould
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

The toughest part of picking our all-star major league team for the 1932 season is out there in right field. It is still almost axiomatic to figure Babe Ruth in that spot. He had a fine year up to the time of his sudden illness in Detroit. Although slowed up almost to a walk on the defense, he still has been the same old threat at the plate, the same great drawing card, the one and only Bam.

Yet it is impossible to overlook the claims of Chuck Klein of the Phillies to a place in which, his brilliant all-around accomplishments project him. Klein has been close to the National league batting leadership all season. He leads the league in runs, hits and stolen bases. He is the hardest all-around slugger specializing in doubles and home runs. He has a high mark in runs batted in.

In all departments except home runs, Klein excels Ruth, offensively, so far as the records go, in addition to which the Phillie floogie now outclasses the Babe on defense.

So the secretary, with regrets to the Bam, will cast one vote for Klein and proceed with the following slate of nominations:
Right field—Chuck Klein, Phillies.
Center field—Earl Averill, Cleveland.
First base—Jimmy Foxx, Athletics.
Second base—Charley Gehringer, Detroit.
Shortstop—Joe Cronin, Washington.

Third base—Pie Traynor, Pirates. Catcher—Bill Dickey, Yankees. Pitchers—Lefty Grove, Athletics; Lefty Gomez, Yankees; Lon Warneke, Cubs.

PUTS CLAW IN TIGERS

Gehring's comeback was the biggest single factor, perhaps, in Detroit's much improved performance under Bucky Harris. Last year's selection, Frank Frisch of the Cardinals, had an off-season but Tony Lazzeri put on a comeback that had a great deal to do with the Yankees' pennant triumph. Considering the handicaps he overcame, Lazzeri would be our choice, but Gehring is the more polished all-around performer and just as heavy a hitter.

CONNIE MACK IS BREAKING UP A'S

Sells Simmons, Haas and Dykes to Chicago White Sox For Cash.

By Gayle Talbot
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Sept. 29 (AP) — Connie Mack, venerable pilot of the Philadelphia Athletics, has started tearing apart the great baseball machine known as the three American league flags in 1929, 30 and 31. He has sold the Chicago White Sox, at the same time, have thrown their resources into the market for players of proved ability.

In one of the most startling deals of recent baseball history, Manager Mack announced last night he had sold outfielders Al Simmons and George (Muley) Haas, and pitcher Jimmy Dykes to the White Sox for cash.

The price paid for the three stars was not announced but Sox officials said it was the largest amount of cash they ever have handed out and probably the greatest sum which ever changed hands in the American league. It was estimated the Sox paid around $150,000 on the barrel head.

General Shake-up Humored

Whether the sale presaged a general breaking up of the present Athletic team, Connie Mack would not say. The consensus was, however, that the 67-year-old leader had something of the sort in mind.

Just 17 years ago he wrecked a glamorous team because it had become satiated with victory. At that time he sent one of his greatest stars, Eddie Collins, to the White Sox and Collins became the cornerstone of a championship club at Chicago.

Where Mack contented himself with the bare announcement of the deal, Sox officials were less reticent.

"It means we are through trying to develop a winning team with rookies," said Secretary Harry Gruber. "This is only the beginning. We are going to get the players we want."

While Haas and Dykes are considered valuable players, Simmons, the big gun in the deal, possessed of a nine-year major league batting average of nearly .300, he is recognized as one of the game's greatest stars. He is one of the most feared hitters in the big leagues, a ball hawk in left field, and withal, a player any manager would welcome with open arms.

Comparatively Young

During the last season he finished with an average around .323 but he should probably be considered comparatively young and should probably be considered comparatively young and should probably be considered comparatively young and should probably be considered comparatively young.

Purchased from Milwaukee of the American association for $50,000 in 1924, Simmons has played in three world series with the Athletics, piling up an average of .333 in 18 games. Opening pitchers have never had more than any better in the Philadelphia constellation.

Haas has been with the A's since 1928 when he came up from the Southern association. For five years he has hit a commendable .307 and has cut off many an enemy hit in center field, specializing in taking them off the fence on the dead run.

Dykes is a veteran, 35 years old and an Athletic stalwart for the last 15 years but he still is pretty much of a ball player. He has played every position in the club's infield and is known as a "money" player, a dangerous man to pitch to in the tight spots.

Oregon Team Is Ready For Game With Bronchos

EUGENE, Ore., Sept. 29 (Special)—University of Oregon, completing practice today for her coming big game against Santa Clara university here Saturday afternoon.

Santa Clara's 12 to 0 victory over the University of California last Saturday makes the Webfoots still one of the most important on the Oregon schedule.

Prinz Gallison, new Oregon coach, said he would strengthen his starting lineup considerably for the Broncho game. Last week against Pacific, Oregon had three of its regular linemen on the side lines. This Saturday Gardner, Frye, sophomore guard, will be back after a brief illness. It is expected that Captain Morgan also will be back at tackle, although he broke his hand in practice last week and will play with a specially constructed cast.

If Morgan plays, the Webfoots will open with practically a veteran team. The entire backfield—Mikulak, Boerman, One and Temple—is made up of veterans. Jack Chase at center and Gardner Frye at guard, are sophomores, but otherwise the remainder of the line also is made up of veterans, including Bailey and Wishard at end, Nilsson and Captain Morgan at tackle, and Clark at end guard.

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Sept. 29—Oregon State college football team will meet Stanford University at Multnomah Stadium, Portland, at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon in their first conference game of the season and one which promises to draw the largest crowd to ever enter Multnomah Stadium's gates.

Oregon State student body will go to Portland Friday night fully prepared to cheer the Beavers on to victory over the Indians. Never has so much enthusiasm been shown on the campus before over one game. The students apparently feel that this is the year to take Stanford and they are going to do everything they can to help.

Paul Schiesler, Oregon mentor, and his squad have been pointing for the Stanford game for quite some time as not only will the Orangemen be at a decided advantage in meeting Stanford early in the season when the Indians are usually slippery fingered but the game is to be played in the north for the first time since 1927.

The Indians gave notice in their game last Saturday against San Francisco university that they will throw plenty of passes into the Orange backfield Saturday. The Orangemen have been drilling on a pass defense all week as Stanford passes have always been the big item which has defeated Oregon State in the past.

Oregon State has never defeated Stanford. Score of past games are: In 1919, 14 to 6 at Corvallis; in 1921, 14 to 7 at Palo Alto; in 1922, 6 to 0 at Corvallis; in 1923, 26 to 10 at Palo Alto; in 1927, 20 to 6 at Portland; in 1929, 40 to 7 at Palo Alto; in 1930, 13 to 7 at Palo Alto; and in 1931, 25 to 7 at Palo Alto.

MICKY OUTCLASSES

Too much slugging almost put Bill Dickey off the list. He picked a poor time to pin jaw-breaker on Carl Reynolds, thereby drawing a month's suspension, but despite this we prefer the rangy Yankee backstop on this year's performance to Mickey Cochrane. Rick Ferrell of the Browns came through with a big year and rates No. 2 behind the bat.

It is difficult to leave pitchers like Wes Ferrell, Red Ruffing and young Monte Weaver off the all-star combination. Perhaps they would be as effective as the three named. Among the freshmen, however, Warneke's remarkable record, under the most severe pressure, stands out. Grow and Gomez, when right, as they usually are, happen to be as tough a pair to beat as any in the business.

DOBBIN STAGES COMEBACK ON NORTHWESTERN FARMS

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Old Dobbin is doing quite well, thank you. After watching his ranks thin before the sweep of tractors and low-priced fuel, he is becoming more popular again on the western farms and the colt population is increasing.

T. A. Erickson, state club leader in Minnesota, reports an increase of 42 per cent in enrollment of 4-H colt clubs this year, while breeders report a sharp increase in the demand for horse breeding stock.

Heinz Groth, 1931 backfield star, may be missing from the Virginia Polytechnic lineup this fall, due to injuries.

Thirty-two candidates will report to Tatum University for the football coach at The Citadel, Charleston, S. C.

The University of Tennessee will not absorb the federal tax on general admission football tickets this year.
