California Hit By Flood CLOUDBURST CAUSE OF 12 FATALITIES

Others May Be Dead in Wake of 40-Foot Wall of Water.

TRESTLE, FREIGHT TRAIN DEMOLISHED

Roaring Torrent Sweeps Through Tehachapi Pass, 40 Miles From Bakersfield, Cal.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Oct. 1 (AP)—Twelve persons were known to be dead and possibly a score of others may have been drowned in a terrific cloudburst in the mountainous Tehachapi region some 50 miles southeast of here last night. Wire communication with Tehachapi was cut off and no definite information was available as to the actual total number of victims.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Oct. 1 (AP)—Leaving seven known dead and at least 20 missing, a 40-foot wall of water roared through Tehachapi Pass, 40 miles from here, last night after a cloudburst.

The torrent struck a Southern Pacific railroad trestle at Woodford, 40 miles south of Bakersfield, hurling a locomotive and seven freight cars into a canyon and killing the engineer, A. H. Ross, of Bakersfield. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kadd and their two children perished when the water struck their gasoline service station there and carried it away. It was believed several other persons at the station at the time and also were swept into the flood.

Two bodies found in addition to these fatalities the bodies of two unidentified persons had been recovered today. The train carried an undetermined number of itinerants and authorities believed many had been swept away and buried under the debris in the wake of the torrent.

Tehachapi pass is on a much traveled route between Bakersfield and San Bernardino leading through the Tehachapi mountains and thence across the Mojave desert. Where the railroad line goes through it, the canyon is narrow and deep. Many itinerants on train. One report said there were about 60 itinerants on the train and that probably a dozen more were away from the flood tore out 600 feet of Southern Pacific track in the canyon, disrupting train service between Bakersfield and points south. Tons of debris covered the highway in places and large washouts blocked travel at various points. Last night's cloudburst was the second in 48 hours.

VIRTUAL ISOLATION LOS ANGELES, Oct. 1 (AP)—Southern California was virtually isolated from San Joaquin valley points today as the result of cloudbursts of intense proportions in the Tehachapi mountains late yesterday. Six hundred feet of the Southern Pacific railroad tracks were washed out, state

Oregon Fair To Come To A Close With Night Show

Although Attendance Shows Decrease, All Premiums Will Be Paid Out in Full Tonight.

SALEM, Oct. 1 (AP)—Portland day featured the closing of the 71st annual Oregon state fair today, with the weatherman completing the week with "Double A" atmosphere. Perfect fair weather was maintained throughout the entire week and the closing tonight was expected to see as clear skies and large attendance as was witnessed on the opening day.

Children will share honors with Portland visitors at the event during the today. With the special train from the north will come the Portland Journal Juniors, several bands and musical numbers. Children's pet parade will also be held this afternoon. The entertainment program of the rodeo and night stampede will be augmented for the final showings, the fair officials announced.

Exhibitors of the state fair last night were given definite word that Director Gehlhar and his advisory board that all premiums would be paid out in full at close of the fair. Announcement was given at a meeting with a large group of exhibitors, and quelled any fears on part of the ribbon winners that the fair would not be able to pay out for them.

Attendance, about 35 per cent off last year, had alarmed some of the exhibitors to point that they thought the fair management might have to exercise its declaration that it would reduce premiums if financial conditions necessitated. Announcement of final winners in the 4-H club division of the state fair, will be made tonight, when word is given as to identity of the two outstanding boys and two outstanding girls in the juvenile competition. Five cowboys now leading the list have chances to win the purse for the bucking horse contest at the fair. They are Chuck Wilson, Clay Carr, Bill Raymond, Cecil Henry and Arnie Hubbard. Their performances today at the strawberry roan rodeo in the afternoon and the night stampede will decide.

The bucking contest was won by G. W. Potts, of Jefferson, with Donald Doerfler, of MacLeay, second, and Jake Tompkins, of Dayton, third. Marion county won the pig feeding contest in competition with Polk county.

F. R. NEARING THE END OF HIS JOURNEY

Governor Roosevelt Given Great Welcome in Chicago Last Night.

DETROIT IS NEXT STOP ON HIS TOUR

Mayor Cermak Assures Democratic Nominee For President That Illinois Will Support Him.

By Walter T. Brown (Associated Press Staff Writer)

CHICAGO, Oct. 1 (AP)—Gov. Roosevelt today had before him a program including attendance at the third game of the world series, a conference with Illinois Democratic leaders and a banquet, before continuing on to Detroit, the last stop on his far flung presidential campaign trip.

Chicago welcomed the Democratic nominee last night with a spectacular and colorful demonstration that rivaled in noise and enthusiasm all of the score of more greetings he has received during his 8,000-mile journey through 20 states.

"It was marvelous, I have never seen anything like it," was his comment upon the old-fashioned red fire and torch light parade that snaked its way through the "famous" loop to his hotel after he reached the Illinois city from Milwaukee. Police estimated that more than 400,000 people passed the downtown streets during the 75 minutes of the parade, that no less than 15,000 persons marched behind Mr. Roosevelt's flower bedecked motor car. Showers of ticker tape and torn paper floated down from the windows of office buildings.

The governor and Mrs. Roosevelt also had arranged for today a luncheon for the 75 members of the trans-continental contingent. A "family party," the New Yorker called it. Three months ago today, Mr. Roosevelt reached Chicago by airplane. He had just won the presidential nomination voted to him the night before. Since then his campaign has carried him into all but four states of the west and to half a dozen

FARM RELIEF PLAN CHANGED BY SPONSORS

CHICAGO, Oct. 1 (AP)—A committee sponsoring the voluntary domestic allotment plan, which aims to furnish aid to farmers who agree to restricted crops, has changed the original scheme to remove it from the federal government to the various states.

This change, announced today, would obviate an increase in federal budget, although the scheme would be under supervision of some existing national department, such as agriculture. Allotments would be made as already planned, but they would be paid to state organizations with farmers who participate agreeing to limit production as may be required, the federal administration working through the states. The revised plan would be along the lines of the federal highway program, and the federal government would make an allotment each year with the states left to carry out the details.

Residents Again Abandon Bleak Isle Off Scotland

ST. KILDA, Outer Hebrides (AP)—This lonely island, only seven miles in circumference, has been left to the sea birds again. The inhabitants were evacuated several years ago, but a few returned this summer. When winter neared, they went back to Scotland and Ned Gillies, resident representative of the Earl of Dumfries, tarried only long enough to make the two habitable buildings safe from winter storms. Bleak St. Kilda may be made a permanent bird refuge—thousands are here now.

Smith Supports Party Ticket In Magazine Article

NEW YORK, Oct. 1 (Special)—Alfred E. Smith in his first article today as editor of the New Outlook said:

"The country is set for a change. I have already stated that I sympathize with this view, and that I believe the best interests of the country will be served by the success of the Democratic party and the election of its ticket. To all intents and purposes the campaign may be said to be over. The real question is what will the Democratic party do with its victory? A change of government of itself does not insure improvement of conditions. On the other hand, the Democratic party has the great advantage of a liberal background and record. In the past it has never failed to be hospitable to new ideas. The first issue to be decided is what elements will control the Democratic party, because it must be admitted that the party is not united and that it is composed of a number of conflicting elements and interests. This was clearly indicated at the recent Chicago convention. With some of the elements and forces in the party, I am completely out of sympathy, not for personal reasons, but because I believe that they are inimical to the best interests of the country. In my opinion the Democratic party must purge itself of these interests if it is to serve the nation in this crisis. We should stop talking about the forgotten man and about class distinctions. The forgotten man is a myth and the sooner he disappears from the campaign the better it will be for the country. In the course of the long period which will undoubtedly elapse before the eighteenth amendment is repealed or modified and in the face of the urgent need of new and fairer sources of taxation, the president still insists on kicking away the hundreds of millions of dollars which could easily be raised by a tax on beer and wine. Having discovered that they

TO AID FARMERS

CHICAGO, Oct. 1 (AP)—The American farmer has been assured today that the whole power of the reconstruction finance corporation would be used through various established agencies to "help the farmer keep his farm." The assurances were given at the conclusion of a conference held here yesterday at the suggestion of President Hoover. Henry M. Robinson, Los Angeles, chairman of the conference, attended by representatives of governmental and private organizations, said: "The result is that the whole power of the reconstruction finance corporation is to be thrown back of the agencies which lend money and receive farm mortgages. The policy of these united groups will be to help the farmer keep his farm." The meeting was attended by Secretary of Agriculture Arthur M. Hyde, Gardner Cowles and Wilson McGarity, directors of the reconstruction finance corporation, together with representatives of the following agencies: joint stock banks, insurance companies, federal farm loan board, and the twelve regional banking and industrial committees of the

PENNSYLVANIA TO SEND 5000 BACK TO WORK

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 1 (AP)—Hundreds of dark, dreary homes in West Pennsylvania radiated with happiness today as jobs were provided for more than 5,000 persons after months of idleness. The national works of the American Sheet and Tin Plate company at Monessen will re-open Monday on a three to four-day-a-week basis, re-employing 1,800 men and women. Other departments in the mill are scheduled to resume operation in about 10 days, giving work to 1,200 more employees. Nearly 400 men have returned to work in our mills of the Lockhart Iron and Steel company in Pittsburgh. The Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad recalled 400 men in its locomotive and car shops. More than 150 laborers were put back to work in the carrier's freight car shop. The Union Railroad company notified 150 shoppers to report at Monongahela Junction October 10 for part time work. Lincoln Pledge To Be Sustained President Says

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 (AP)—Standing before a group of 150 white and negroes gathered from a score of states, President Hoover today told them "you may be assured that our party will not abandon or depart from its traditional duty toward the American negro." In response to several brief speeches by the negro representatives, gathered as a joint national planning committee to get out the negro vote, Mr. Hoover added: "I shall sustain this pledge given in the first instance by the immortal Lincoln and transmitted by him to those who followed as a sacred trust. The right of liberty, justice and equal opportunity is yours."

CHICAGO, Oct. 1 (AP)—Helped by evidence of powerful support in the Winnipeg market, wheat values here had an uncertain strength today.
