

Return to Horse Would Save The Farmer, Hanley

SALEM, Oct. 6 (AP) — The return of horses to the farm would be the salvation of agriculture, and were the horse population today comparable with that of 1920 more than 50,000,000 acres now used in producing for the consumption by humans would be needed to produce feed for horses. This was the assertion here of William Hanley, Eastern Oregon farmer and former member of the state highway commission.

Hanley was here to attend a conference of farmers to consider ways and means of stimulating interest in horses. Max Gehlar, director of agriculture, produced figures to show that the farmers who were surviving the present financial situation were those who relied upon horses for power. Plans for a survey of the horse population in the state and probable demands during the next five years were made.

"Machinery has contributed more to present depressed conditions of agriculture in the country than any other single factor," Hanley said. "In the first place the use of machinery involves a big investment and continued outlay for gasoline, oil and repairs. In the second place it has released millions of acres formerly devoted to the production of horse feed for the production of wheat and corn for human consumption resulting in our present surplus with its ruinous prices for all farm products."

Chinese Were First
The Chinese are said to have understood fish culture many centuries ago. In Blackwood's Magazine in 1837, a Mr. Shaw first expounded the theory in England.

Probes Prisons

Mrs. Margaret Davis, daughter of Warren R. E. Davis, Utah state penitentiary, after conducting an inquiry into activities of convicts, insists that they are leading lives of comparative ease as she found only 18 per cent engaged in income-producing pursuits. She urges a national campaign to educate the public to the compelling need of real labor in prisons.

World War Veterans' State Aid Commission, represented and acting by Julius L. Meier, Governor, Hal E. Ross, Secretary of State, George A. White, Adjutant General, Walter S. Fisher and Prescott W. Cookingham, comprising the World War Veterans' State Aid Commission of the State of Oregon—plaintiff, vs.
E. R. Keagle, also known as Everett R. Keagle and LeRoy C. Keagle, Charles Keagle, Bertha Carlisle, William Corum, Jesse J. Link and Jake Link, the heirs at law of Sarah P. Keagle, deceased, and the Hot Lake Sanatorium, a private corporation, and L. Dora J. Blackington, J. Clark Blackington, Willard F. Blackington, Ethel Blackington, Roswell J. Blackington, and Ethel Blackington, some of the above named defendants.

In the name of the State of Oregon, you, and each of you, are required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and cause, on or before the 6th day of October, 1932, the said date being the last day of the four weeks period prescribed by order for the publication of this summons.

And if you fail to answer said complaint or otherwise plead herein, for want thereof, the above named plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in its complaint, to-wit:

For judgment and decree against the defendants, E. R. Keagle, also known as Everett R. Keagle, LeRoy C. Keagle, Charles Keagle, Bertha Carlisle, William Corum, Jesse J. Link and Jake Link, the heirs at law of Sarah P. Keagle, deceased, for the sum of $2313.04, together with interest thereon at the rate of four per cent per annum from the 15th day of June, 1931, and against the said defendants for a further sum of $230.00 attorney fees for the collection of plaintiff's note and the foreclosure of plaintiff's mortgage, and for plaintiff's costs and disbursements incurred herein.

That the plaintiff's mortgage given to secure said note as heretofore described is decreed to be a first and prior lien over all other liens or encumbrances and that the said sums of money above set forth be decreed to be a good, valid and subsisting lien upon the said premises under and by virtue of the said mortgage, upon all of the property heretofore described and as described in plaintiff's mortgage, to-wit:

Lots fourteen (14) and fifteen (15) in Block numbered one hundred forty-six (146) Chaplin's Addition to La Grande, Union County, Oregon, and that the said mortgage be foreclosed, and that the property therein described be sold as provided by law; that the plaintiff may be a purchaser at said sale; that the proceeds of the said sale of said property be applied to the payment of the amounts due the plaintiff and to become due upon the promissory note heretofore described, reasonable attorney fees and costs and disbursements of this suit, and accruing costs, and the balance, if any, to be paid to the defendants, E. R. Keagle, also known as Everett R. Keagle, LeRoy C. Keagle, Charles Keagle, Bertha Carlisle, William Corum, Jesse J. Link and Jake Link, the heirs at law of Sarah P. R. Keagle, also known as Everett R. Keagle, LeRoy C. Keagle, Charles Keagle, Bertha Carlisle, William Corum, Jesse J. Link and Jake Link, the heirs at law of Sarah P. Keagle, deceased, and each of them, for any deficiency remaining unpaid; that the sheriff, at the time of sale of the said mortgaged property, put the purchaser of the said property in possession thereof; that the sheriff be directed to execute and deliver to said purchaser at the time of the said sale a certificate of sale to said property and a sheriff's deed to the same at the expiration of the time allowed by law for the redemption of real property, if no redemption be had.

That the equity of the defendants, Hot Lake Sanatorium, a private corporation, and L. Dora J. Blackington, Clark Blackington, Willard F. Blackington, Ethel Blackington, Roswell J. You'd Be Surprised!

Answer to Last Week's "You'd be Surprised"
This fallacy is due to the fact that Gypsies formerly called themselves Egyptians. They are believed to have descended from a people inhabiting Northwest India.
