Revival Meeting Now Under Way At Church Here

Rev. Ray Davis Speaking at Nazarene Church — Many Interesting Programs For Sunday.

EDITOR'S NOTE
The church editor urges that all ministers include their sermons in the Friday church notices, so as to avoid publication of these notices elsewhere in the newspaper where many of the members of the congregation might miss seeing them.

A revival meeting is now being held at the Church of the Nazarene at the corner of Birch and Y, according to Rev. Daniel L. Swartz, minister. Rev. Ray Davis is the evangelist and

R. Dilley, of Texas, the song evangelist. Mr. Davis is pastor at Caldwell, Ida. but has spent years as an evangelist throughout the west. Services are being held each evening at 7:30 o'clock with cottage prayer meetings each forenoon. Mr. Davis will preach both at the 11 o'clock and 8 o'clock services at the church Sunday. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Other services Sunday follow: Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., classes for all; N. Y. P. S., 6:45 p. m., Mr. Dilley in charge; 7:30 p. m., congregational song service conducted by Mr. Dilley.

Baptist Church

The Church of Christ is one of the churches in this part of the state which have been successful in maintaining a well attended Sunday evening service, and the evening meeting is very popular. A concert orchestra adds enjoyment to the service, and the song service is a big feature. Well known gospel hymns are selected, Sunday evening the pastor will preach, using for his topic, "The Auction Block." He says, "In the struggle to gain control of the human soul, there is much the same thing occurs as takes place at an auction sale. Bids are offered, and raised, by the powers of good and the forces of evil. All are invited.

Presbyterian Church (Sixth and Washington)
"There is a beautiful and uplifting influence in the assembly of God's people, which nothing else brings in quite the same degree. Why not attend the services of the church, learn to help and encourage in the building of the kingdom of God," invites the minister, Rev. J. George Wab, who will speak on "Loyalty" or "Upholding the Sense of Duty." The quartet will assist in the singing of the hymns, using for his topic, "The Auction Block." Leonard Pruff, tenor, will sing a solo number of his own selection.
The 9:45 session of the Bible school will enjoy the work of the orchestra, as also the opening service and the study of lessons from the book of books. Whatever your age, whatever desire for learning divine things, there will be a class and instructor that will meet your need.
Christian Endeavor meets at 6:30. Splendid programs await all young people who attend. Meetings held in the church.

First Church of Christ, Scientist (First and Washington)
Sunday school begins at 9:45 a. m., with children up to the age of 20 years invited to attend. Sunday ser-of a Kingdom Do We Want." The choir will lead in the congregational singing and provide the special music. Miss Helen Williams will preside at the organ and Paul Knauts will direct the music.

The senior Epworth League will meet at 6:30 and the lesson will be on the subject "Confusionism," led by Bethmyri Miller. The high school league will meet at the same hour and be led by Jeanette Blanchard.
At 7:30 o'clock the church orchestra will assist with the music for the evening service and Rev. W. H. Hertzog will continue the series on the "Teaching of Jesus," speaking on Christ's teaching about "Fulfilling Prophecy."

Island City Community Church
Increasing attendance is noted each Sunday at 9:45. Encouraging remarks and pleasing comments have been heard from all sides about the changed schedule.
The Sunday school workers come for the church service and are on time and prepared to engage in the school work at 10:45. Those responsible for the noon meal can be home by 11 o'clock and have spent an hour in a service of worship with their families under the new arrangement.
Traditionally, it is just a little revolutionary, and being so is just in keeping with the pastor's theme "In Revolution" for the Sunday morning service.

The officers and teachers of the Sunday school, led by Mrs. Bertha Way, superintendent, are being encouraged with the growth of the school and are making plans for Rally day soon. The school meets at 10:45 a. m.
Central Church of Christ (Pennsylvania avenue)
In preparation for an evangelistic campaign to be conducted in the local Church of Christ beginning Oct. 23, Rev. Paul De P. Mortimore, pastor of the church, will use as his sermon topic Sunday morning, "A Soul Winner." Mr. Mortimore says, "It is the duty and privilege of every Christian to not only enjoy the blessings of Christianity, but to enlist others in the enjoyment of them. In the light of the teaching of Jesus, it is impossible for one to be a Christian without putting forth the utmost effort to win others to Him."
The communion will be celebrated at this service, which is at 11 o'clock, and the choir will sing an anthem. New song books have been secured.
Bible school is making a splendid growth, starting the new year's work last Sunday with an attendance of 225. The school is closely graded, and furnishes a complete knowledge of the Bible to those who complete its courses. A new class for college young people has been started with the pastor as teacher. Miss Dorothy Smuta is the general superintendent of the school, which meets at 9:45 each Sunday morning.
Christian Endeavor also is enjoying a hearty growth this fall. Three societies are meeting for discussion and prayer meeting each Sunday evening at 6:30. Young people of all ages are welcome.

M. E. Church South (2103 North Fir street)
Services at the M. E. Church South will begin Sunday with Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. The morning preaching service will begin at 11 o'clock and the evening service at 7:30 p. m. Epworth League meets at 6:30.
Zion English Lutheran Church (M avenue near Fourth)
"A Guarded Life" will be the theme of the sermon by the pastor at the 11:00 worship service Sunday morning. And who desire to do so are cordially invited to worship at this church.
The Sunday school is beginning a special study of India, which is to last for several months. A large map of India, colored and prepared by the intermediates will be hung in the Sunday school room, and each Sunday a new group of pictures will be put on it. This week the geography and government of India will occupy the attention of the school. Edward Trull will show some of the stamps from India; Miss Neumann will tell about India's government; and the whole school will study the geographical location. This is preparatory to a study of the work and growth of the Christian church in India.
Henry Jensen will lead the Luther League meeting at 7:00 p. m., using for a topic, "How Does the Liquor Problem Affect Young People Today?" After a brief discussion of this topic, there will be a report of the delegates to the district convention at The Dalles. Enthusiasm is high among the young people who attended this meeting. All are welcome to attend the devotional Sunday evening.

Sermonette

Edited by Harriet R. MacDonald

Then said the Lord unto Moses, behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a certain rate every day.—Ex. xvi. 4.

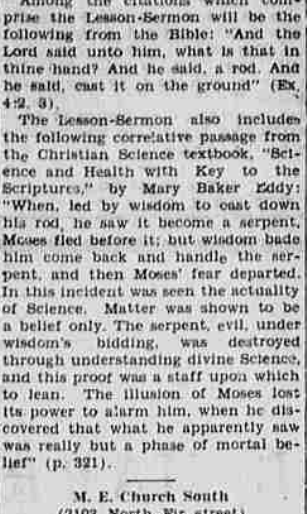

We are taught that the journey of the Israelites through the desert from Egypt to their Promised Land represents also our own spiritual progress in this world from life on a material plane only to the state where we shall dwell forever in heaven.
As on their journey the Israelites were sustained by manna which appeared early in the morning, so we are strengthened and taught in periods in which our minds are in states receptive to heavenly thought.
To fulfill its purpose, the manna given to the children of Israel had to be eaten — that is, digested and utilized; just so must heavenly teaching be appropriated by us individually, and individually applied to our lives.
But this is not all. The manna was spread before the children of Israel, not put in their mouths. Each man went out to gather his supply daily. Is not the lesson clear? We too must reach out for the heavenly teaching provided for us, gather it in the early morning, and after adapting it by meditation to our spiritual needs, utilize it in our living. No man can do this for us.
Also it is to be noted that the manna had to be gathered every day. It could not be kept and so must we pray and gather and strive for each day our daily bread.—M.

During the past forty years tens of thousands of young men and women of many nationalities and denominations have sought free training for Christian service at home or abroad offered by the Moody Bible and Evening schools last year. While for certain special courses a high school background is required, and college training desirable, yet grammar school training will admit to its general course. English is taught to any deficient in its use.
The Bible ranks first in all institute courses, but instruction is furnished in such subjects as Sunday school administration, daily vacation Bible school, gospel music, public speaking, home economics, hygiene, and manual training. In special courses are offered theology, homiletics, church history, apologetics, Hebrew, Yiddish, Greek, and medical subjects for foreign mission work.
There are three terms a year — fall, winter and summer — but students may enter at any time.

Presidential Poll Shows Roosevelt Increasing His Lead Over Hoover

Roosevelt increases his lead over Hoover in the third week's returns from 20 states in The Literary Digest's presidential poll of 20,000,000 ballots, gaining a clear majority of the 798,089 ballots tabulated in tomorrow's issue of the magazine.
Roosevelt has 404,992 votes, or 50.75 per cent., and Hoover has 325,845 or 40.82 per cent. of the total tabulated. Norman Thomas, the Socialist candidate, is receiving 6.65 per cent. of the 7,980,000 ballots with the other five minor candidates dividing the balance of 1.78 per cent. of the total vote.
Hoover is leading in the six states of Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey and Rhode Island, which have a combined electoral college vote of 54.
Roosevelt is leading in Alabama, California, Colorado, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Mississippi, Montana, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, West Virginia and Wisconsin, which states poll 224 votes in the electoral college.
In an analysis of "how the same voters voted in 1928," Roosevelt is shown gaining less strength from the Republican ranks than he did last week while the Hoover inroads into the Democratic vote of four years ago remain about the same.
Roosevelt gains the lead in the voting in New York, which was carried by Hoover in the two previously weekly returns of the poll. Roosevelt has 117,282 votes to Hoover's 108,708 in the Empire state.
In Pennsylvania, Roosevelt has increased his percentage of the state's vote from 50.11 to 53.34 during the week, gaining most of his strength from former Republicans there.
Roosevelt also continues to maintain more than 2 to 1 lead over Hoover in the president's home state of California. Roosevelt is obtaining over one-half of his total vote in California from those who stated they voted for Hoover four years ago, the largest ratio the Democratic candidate gets from former Republican ranks in any state. Roosevelt has 35,873 votes to Hoover's 16,402 this week in the state.
The southern states reporting this week give Roosevelt tremendous pluralties: 79.42 per cent., in Alabama; 83.52 per cent., in Georgia; 59.46 per cent., in Mississippi, and 88.61 per cent. in South Carolina.

New Hampshire gives Hoover 56.62 per cent. of its total vote, leading the Republican state column to date while Massachusetts gives the president 56.14 per cent., Connecticut 54.51 per cent. and Maine 53.51 per cent. of the current ballots cast in these Republican strongholds.
Roosevelt is obtaining over a majority of the votes—over all of the six other presidential candidates—in 18 of the 30 states reported this week.
A state by state tabulation shows:

	Hoover	Roosevelt
Alabama	1,581	6,930
California	19,402	35,873
Colorado	3,798	7,443

"Tony" Will Be Staged Saturday Evening At Cove

By Mrs. A. G. Conklin (Observer Correspondent)
COVE (Special)—"Tony" a one-act play, will be presented by the Cove High school at the gymnasium Saturday evening at 8 o'clock as a library benefit. This play will have a setting of music by the High school glee club and will be accompanied by several skits by the grade pupils. There also will be readings and music furnished by the Woman's club.
A halt was called in the pruned packing at the co-operative plant Tuesday about noon and a recess was declared until Thursday morning. The purpose was not declared but was generally supposed to be due to a lack of box materials.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dudley and family, of Pendleton, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Comstock. Mrs. Dudley was a school friend of Mrs. Comstock when they lived in Nebraska a number of years ago.
