Modern Composers Will Be Reviewed

Modern composers of musical comedy in America will be reviewed by Miss Helen Williams tonight when she will present a program on "Light Opera and Musical Comedy" before the Neighborhood Music club at 8 o'clock at the La Grande hotel.

Mrs. E. D. Towler Guest of Rainbow

Mrs. E. D. Towler, former mother advisor of the Order of Rainbow for Girls, No. 13, was the guest of honor Saturday evening when they met at 7:30 at the Masonic hall.

Miss Williams will open the program with a very brief paper tracing the development of musical comedy and between each of the groups she will outline the history of the composer.

The program includes scenes from "The Fortune Hunter," by Victor Herbert, a Gypsy atmosphere will be supplied by Virginia Campbell, Ralph Geibel, Evelyn Ballard, Roscoe Hurley, Dorothy Campbell and Donald Culp in Gypsy costumes, while the men's quartet, composed of E. E. Hurley, Sherwood Williams, George Birnie and Paul Knautz will sing "Gypsy Love Song."

Charles Friml, composer of "The Firefly" and "Rose Marie" is the second composer from whom numbers have been selected. Mrs. T. R. Maxwell will sing "The Firefly" from the former musical comedy, and Mrs. Florence Lynch Miller and Leonard Plouff will sing "Indian Love Call" and "Rose Marie" from the second.

"Irene," by Tierney, also will furnish selections for Mrs. Flavin Sherwood who will sing "Alice Blue Gown." Paul Knautz will be the soloist who will sing "One Alone," from "The Desert Song," by Sigmund Romberg.

A young men's chorus will sing the "Riff Song" from the same musical comedy. Members of the chorus are Frederick Hertzog, Lenn Pierson, Frank Tyler, Ralph Geibel, Paul Finlay, Don Culp, Roscoe Hurley, Billy Gunn, Robert Helm, Wallace Kaaspeke and Donald Johnson.

Scenes from "Show Boat" will be presented with a negro atmosphere adding to the impressiveness of the solo "Old Man River," from this comedy, by Harvey Carter.

As a grand finale they all will sing "One Alone."
