Bakery Order: Mary Ann's mother sent her to the bakery to buy some cinnamon rolls for supper. On arriving at the bakery Mary Ann could not remember the name of the rolls. After hard thinking she said despondently, "Well, give me some of those rolls with lather on them."

FOUR BACKS ALL ALIKE: HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Each member of the Rice Institute starting backfield—Capt. Tom Driscoll, Vic Driscoll, "Jap" Thrasher and Kelly Scott—weighs 166 pounds and is 5 feet 10 inches tall. The Driscolls and Thrasher played together through high school and college.

RIVAL FOR DALLAS FANS IN MUSTANGS' BACK YARD: DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—The Mustangs of Southern Methodist university have some competition this fall in the matter of attracting crowds. Jefferson university, playing Oklahoma city university at Dallas, drew 7500 fans to a night game. Jefferson's 1932 team appears to be powerful, while that of S. M. U. is not as strong as in other years. Jefferson university, not a member of any conference, raises no eligibility bars against players with previous college experience. Its followers contend its rules on the subject are the same as those governing West Point.

MODERN ROME FROWNS ON BULLTHROWING AS SPORT: ROME (AP)—Bullthrowing, a much favored Roman sport of the last century, was to have been revived, but the fascists reckoned without consulting those of their comrades who belong to the Society for the Protection of Animals. The bullthrowing was announced by the Home fascist federation and tickets sold, but on the day of the big event the animal lovers won their point and higher authorities prohibited the affair. It was explained that the chief bullthrower, who also is chief cattle-killer at the stockyards, was "disposed."

A card of three indoor soccer games as an evening's entertainment was staged as a novelty in St. Louis.

She Lands a Movie Job

Monica Bannister left her Oregon home for a vacation in Hollywood, and while there movie directors saw her and she signed a contract with a big film company.

WHAT! TUNNEY HAS RIVAL IN 'BAMA SIGNAL CALLER: TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP)—With a quarterback who spends his spare time brooding over Shelley, Keats, Byron, Poe and Shakespeare, Alabama should not be outmanned on the football field this year. Frank Moseley, Tide signal caller, confesses a weakness for both English and American poets. His favorites among the English versifiers are Byron and Shelley, although he reads much of Keats. Among the American poets he has a pronounced leaning toward Edgar Allan Poe. Albert Beck, Texas jockey, rode 32 winners in 17 days, 17 of them within a week, at Riverside track, Kansas City.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

CATS CANNOT BE LEGALLY OWNED. THEY ARE PREDATORY ANIMALS, THE SAME AS WOLVES, BEARS, ETC. COFFEE FIRST CAME INTO HUMAN NOTICE DURING THE 18TH CENTURY BECAUSE THE SHRUB CAUSED INTOXICATION AMONG SHEEP. THE HUMAN CACTUS! WHILE PHOTOGRAPHING THE WILD LIFE OF THE AMERICAN DESERT, ARTHUR N. PACK, PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN NATURE ASSOCIATION, DRESSED LIKE A GIN CACTUS. LICENSES cannot be procured for the ownership of cats. They are predatory animals, and a game warden can take the life of any cat that causes trouble. The tamest tabby becomes a killer if allowed to go hungry for a few days, and even a well-fed house cat seldom passes up an opportunity to catch any bird that comes within its reach.

OUT OUR WAY

By J. R. Williams. A cartoon illustration showing a man sitting at a desk with a typewriter, talking to another man standing by a door. The man at the desk says, 'BY GOLLY—THAT NIGHT BOSS IS PURTY CLEVER, AT THAT—WHEN TH' PHONE RINGS HE TAKES OFF TH' RECEIVER, THEN STOMPS HIS FEET A COUPLE TIMES, TO MAKE IT SOUND LIKE HE JUST RUSHED IN FROM BEIN' BUSY OUT IN TH' SHOP, IN CASE IT'S TH' BULL O' TH' WOODS CALLIN' UP.' The man standing says, 'YEH, BUT WHAT MAY SOUND LIKE A BUSINESS RUSH TO THIS GUY, MAY SOUND LIKE FEET DRIPPIN' DOWN OFF A DESK TO TH' BULL O' TH' WOODS—NO, I WON'T ADMIT THIS GUY IS CLEVER TILL I'M SURE TH' BULL AINT GONNA POP IN SOME NIGHT AN' KETCH HIM NAPPIN'.' The man at the desk says, 'CALLIN' UP.' The man standing says, 'A PHONEY.'

3450 VOTERS IN WALLOWA COUNTY CHECK REVEALS. (Continued From Page Three) heavy in Wallowa county, according to Deputy John Branson in charge of auto registration here. The fact that owners lacked money and the governor's moratorium he believes caused many to wait until they could take one-fourth off and get the nine months license.

New, Cheap Steel From Auto Junk. That every old automobile hulk now rusting in a vacant lot or back yard will soon disappear entirely from the scene is predicted by engineers. These hulks will be converted into new steel through the use of a new form of briquetted ferro-alloys shown at the recent National Metals exposition in Buffalo. Ferro-alloys in the briquetted form were exhibited by Electro Metallurgical company, a unit of Union Carbide and Carbon corporation, and are produced at the company's plant in Niagara Falls. Not only will this development aid in clean-up campaigns in almost every locality in the country, but it will also help to produce cleaner, stronger steel at a lower price. The labor of removing these hulks and cutting them with the oxy-acetylene blowpipe to size for shipment, promises also to create local employment in many centers where such work is being done under the direction of various relief and civic bodies.

Research Bureau To Be Established By Oregon League. EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 15 (AP)—As an aid to cities and municipalities in solving their various problems, a bureau of municipal research will be established in Oregon. This announcement was made here by William M. Briggs, city attorney of Ashland, and president of the League of Oregon Cities, and Dr. P. A. Parsons, head of the department of sociology of University of Oregon. The purpose and work of the new bureau was described at the opening session of the league's annual convention. The announcement said that Dr. Ambrose Fuller, secretary of the Minnesota League of Cities, has been invited to accept the post of executive secretary of the Oregon league and head of the bureau. Thirty members from all sections of Oregon attended the opening session of the league congress, called primarily to discuss measures which member cities desire to have brought before the January session of the state legislature.

GRID FOES FEAR TRICKSTER. LOS ANGELES (AP)—It may be only a coincidence but one of the quarterbacks on the University of California at Los Angeles varsity squad is Mitchell Frankovitch, whose avocation is legendarily Besides being skilled at sleight-of-hand, Frankovitch talks five languages fluently and football opponents scent "deception."

SPREAKS AT JOHN DAY. Ex-Governor Walter M. Pierce and his wife addressed the local Lions club at their regular meeting Monday. Mrs. Pierce, a member of the state board of higher education, asked that the Zorn-McPherson bill, providing for the consolidation of the schools of higher learning, be voted down for the reason that it is too complicated for the average voter to understand or study. She suggested that consolidation, if at all, should be effected gradually. She also suggested that the bill providing further money for the schools also be voted down because at present it is not needed. She called attention to the fact that two million dollars have been saved in the operation of the schools in the last biennium—John Day Valley Ranger.

IT'S CA-RID-EO, FRANK SAYS COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP)—In case football fans have been wondering, it's "Car-ri-day-o" and not "Carry-day-o." The latter pronunciation, the new Missouri football coach explained, was just a joke perpetrated in a "talkie" when he was asked regarding pronunciation of his name.
