

Stanford Favored to Defeat Unbeaten U. C. L. A. Tomorrow

LOSS OF KEEBLE SERIOUS BLOW TO HOPE OF BRUINS

Victory For Cardinals Would Leave Southern California Only Unbeaten Team on Coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28 (AP)—The undefeated record of one more Pacific coast conference football team goes on the spot this weekend as Coach Bill Spaulding's unbeaten U. C. L. A. Bruins tangle with "Pop" Warner's formidable, though slightly crestfallen, Cardinals of Stanford at Olympic stadium in Los Angeles Saturday.

In spite of the Bruins' clean slate, experts along the coast who are still in the experting business after last Saturday's Stanford-U. S. C. game, venture the opinion the Cardinals will defeat their southern opponents and that, after the contest, the University of Southern California Trojans will occupy the conference top position alone.

Bruins the Underdogs
The Bruins go into the game as underdogs largely because of the loss of Joe Keeble, their star fullback and one of the coast's leading scorers, who Coach Spaulding has said will be out of the contest with an injured arm. The Cardinals, on the other hand, will be at practically full strength for the game.

Stanford's one defeat of the present season occurred last Saturday at the hands of the Trojans, 13 to 0. The other games the Cardinals have won by comfortable margins. The Bruins, however, could only eke out a 6 to 0 win over Idaho and an even narrower 12 to 7 victory over Oregon.

W. S. C. Plays Montana
All will be comparatively quiet along the rest of the conference front. Washington State will meet Montana at Pullman in a game which is not expected to extend the Gonzaga, while other conference eleven will engage teams outside the circuit.

At Berkeley University of California will meet the University of Nevada Wolves and Coach "Navy Bill" Ingram plans to use his regulars to avoid an upset. Oregon faces a stiff tussle with the powerful Gonzaga Bruins at Eugene, and Washington has a "breather" in its contest with Whitman.

In a game under the lights at Corvallis tonight the Oregon State Beavers undertake the task of subduing the Presidio's West Coast Army eleven.

OREGON STATE ELEVEN WILL PLAY DETROIT

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 28 (AP)—Confirmation of Detroit university's acceptance of a football game with the Oregon State college team for Thanksgiving day at Detroit was received by the college here Thursday. Addition of this game gives the Oregon States the longest road trip playing schedule in the history of the team.

The Orangemen will leave here early in November for Missouri to play the final game of the conference schedule with Montana, Nov. 12. From there they will go to New York for an inter-sectional game with Fordham Nov. 19. The team then will stop off at Detroit on its return for the Thanksgiving game No. 24.

Never before have the Orangemen taken on three games in one trip.

Pacific university co-eds used hammers and saws to help build a football scoreboard for the school's stadium at Stockton, Cal.

No Over-Emphasis With This Guard

By O. W. "Red" Severance (Written For The Associated Press)
Charles E. "Gus" Dorris, athletic director and head football coach at the University of Detroit, tells an interesting yarn to prove football is not over-emphasized.

"Gus Rublin, a big guard, was the man I have in mind. On the eve of one of our most important games a few seasons ago, our regular right guard was injured, and while I started him in the game, I knew he wouldn't last long.

"Rublin was his substitute and I tried to impress on him that a lot of responsibility for our victory rested on his shoulders. I gave him a '1929' talk that would have melted a heart of stone.

"Sure enough, our regular guard's injured leg gave way in the second quarter of one of the most exciting games I ever have seen. When I found that my star guard was through, I yelled to Rublin to get off his sweater and go in. To my surprise, he didn't make any move to comply.

"Then I hurried down to where he was sitting, and I found out why he hadn't jumped when his big chance for glory came. He was sound asleep, in spite of all the yelling, and I had to shake him to wake him up.

That's Putting It Squarely Up to Pitt

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 28 (AP)—If Pitt fails to wallop Notre Dame in their gridiron clash tomorrow, the Panther players will get no Sunday papers from Joe (Yatsie) Pasquarielli.

Joe, proprietor of a news stand near the Pitt campus and an ardent supporter of the football team, warned several members of the Panther squad as follows:

"Listen, you Italians—and you too, Captain Joe Reider—the Irish are coming. Now if you guys are as bad against them as you were against Ohio State, don't come around here Sunday morning to look at my papers!"

Voodoo "Experts" Put Alabama Jinx In Kentucky Coffin

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 28 (AP)—Some sports enthusiasts use rabbits' feet for luck, but in Kentucky, voodoo incantations have entered football. Three afternoons this week, six huge negroes, garbed in long white robes and carrying a black coffin, performed weird sorcery on the University of Kentucky playing field. The voodoo priests conducted mystic rites near the goal posts, designed to bewitch the goals so Alabama players will be unable to cross them Saturday. The coffin, piled high with flowers, contained the "Alabama jinx."

Stagg Petitions Before Hutchins

CHICAGO, Oct. 28 (AP)—Petitions asking the retention of A. A. Stagg as head football coach at the University of Chicago, bearing more than 300 signatures, were up for consideration by President Robert Maynard Hutchins, and the board of trustees today.

The petitions were signed by members of the varsity and freshmen football squads and various campus organizations. Copies also will be sent to Thomas N. Metcalf, who will succeed Mr. Stagg as director of athletics when the latter is retired next June. Metcalf is finishing his work as director of athletics at Iowa State college, Ames, Iowa.

Mrs. Culbertson's Bridge Team Leads

NEW YORK, Oct. 28 (AP)—Mrs. Ely Culbertson, only woman left in the Vanderbilt cup tournament, will lead her contract team of four tonight against the stellar combination headed by P. Hal Sims.

The field striving for the trophy that is emblematic of team supremacy in the game was cut in half to eight combinations by knockout matches last night.

David Bernstein's team paired favor with Killbuckers by attaining a point total for the season nearly double that of any other combination. Mrs. Culbertson's team made more than twice as many points as her husband's.

America Leads in Toy Making

Wheeled toys, such as doll carriages, velocipedes, tricycles, toy automobiles, express wagons, scooters, and three-wheel play cars account for about one-fourth of the toys manufactured in the United States. Dolls comprise more than one-sixth. This country is the largest manufacturer of toys in the world.

Radio Broadcasting

A German station near Berlin claims the title of "World's first broadcasting station," having broadcast an opera from the Berlin Opera house on June 16, 1920. General radio broadcasting began in the year 1920, though there were various experimental stations before that date.

BRUSHING UP SPORTS...

A. A. STAGG THE MIDWAY WON'T BE THE SAME WITHOUT HIM

Sport Slants

By Alan J. Gould (Associated Press Sports Editor)
You may hear more about Johnny Grady, weight 158 pounds, from Somerville, Mass., and left halfback on Team "C" of the Harvard varsity football squad.

Harvard's head coach Eddie Casey, says Grady is one of the finest natural ball-carriers he has ever seen, although the fact is that Johnny, a senior, never played football of any kind before this year.

Grady got on the squad by reason of playing tennis with one of Casey's assistants last summer. The coach sensed an unusual gift for football in the way Grady covered a tennis court. He asked Johnny, just for fun, to come out for practice and see how he liked the gridiron sport.

That's how it started and the usually conservative Casey will tell you now that things happen when Grady carries the ball as an understudy for the powerful Jack Crickard. Crickard helps soften up the opposition under the Harvard system, then Foscolillo, Locke and Grady gallop in. Grady has a natural change of pace plus rare speed. He directs his own interference besides manifesting a gift for timing his movements to avoid enemy tacklers.

If this year's groundwork for another Frank Merriwell story, it will be sufficient at least for today's chapter.

Rejuvenation By Goat Gland Cures "Bait For Suckers"

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 28 (AP)—Grand rejuvenation was termed a deception and goat gland cures as "bait for suckers" by Dr. Hugh Cabot, of Rochester, Minn., in an address before the Interstate Post Graduate Medical association of North America Monday.

"I would be tremendously worried," Dr. Cabot added, "if all these old men were rejuvenated."

Dr. William E. Lower, of Cleveland, asserted gland implantation is still "a laboratory study and is not yet practicable for clinical use."

Both physicians said great advances have been made in the treatment of prostatic trouble. Dr. Cabot said that in the middle '90s more than half the prostatic operations were fatal whereas now if a specialist were to lose more than three per cent of such cases he would consider something was wrong in his methods.

Methodists Will Hold Conference At Union Nov. 2

By Mrs. L. Z. Terrall (Observer Correspondent)

UNION (Special)—The program for the western district group conference of the Methodist Episcopal church to be held in Union next Wednesday Nov. 2, has been completed and plans are being made by local Methodists to entertain a large delegation of visitors from neighboring towns. Five men, all outstanding in religious work, will be here from distant points. The program will start Wednesday afternoon as follows: 2:30, "The Church Abroad and Its Needs," Dr. E. Laird Mills; 3:15, "Religious Education in Relation to Personality and Benevolent Enterprises," Dr. C. L. Clifford; 4:00, "The Church at Home and Designated Gifts," Dr. Walter Torbet; 4:15, discussion; 5:30, "A Modern Missionary Program," Dr. Ira Gillett; 6:30, Fellowship dinner at Woman's clubhouse; 7:45, Inspirational address, Bishop Titus Love, Dr. Mills, of San Francisco, is the editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate; Dr. Clifford, of Denver, has charge of religious education; Dr. Torbet, of San Francisco, has charge of the home missions and church extension work; Dr. Gillett, of Inhamane, Portuguese East Africa, missionary, is home on furlough, and Dr. Love, of Seattle, is the presiding bishop of the western district. Dr. A. C. McAllister, of Boise, district superintendent, will attend the conference.

A baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Gibbs Monday. Mrs. Gibbs was formerly Jessie Stacy. Arch Wilson came from Wallville, Wash. Sunday to see his mother. Mrs. Barbara Wilson, who has been quite ill. She is much improved in health.

Mrs. Dan Hall underwent a major operation at Hot Lake on Wednesday. Mrs. Louisa Burwell entertained the Epworth league choir Tuesday evening. The league held its weekly choir practice after which the evening was spent in games. Mrs. N. L. Ward and Mrs. Roy Conklin assisted Mrs. Burwell with the lunch.

At a called meeting of the Ladies' Aid Wednesday committees were named for the fellowship dinner to be served at the clubhouse next Wednesday. Mrs. Worth Halsey, Mrs. Viola Parker and Mrs. Charles Caster will have charge of the kitchen and Mrs. S. E. Miller is chairman for the decoration and arrangement of the dining room.

The Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters gave a surprise party for Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jones at their home Tuesday evening. Queuing games and other amusements occupied the early hours after which a covered-dish lunch was served by the visitors.

The initiation services of the Eastern Star Wednesday evening were attended by a large crowd including about a dozen members from North Powder. The hall was attractively decorated with fall flowers. The candidates, Miss Dorothy Cook and Miss Katherine Green, were given a floral degree after their initiation. E. R. Ringe, worthy patron of Hope chapter, La Grande, substituted for L. Z. Terrall in the initiatory work. The younger members of the chapter prepared and served the lunch.

Someone drove a truck into the Dors Myers orchard east of town recently and took 80 boxes of prunes that had been picked for drying at the John Dean dryer at Cove. P. M. Littler has been taking charge of the harvesting and drying.

Mrs. Donald Lamb gave a 6-30 dinner party for her husband Wednesday evening. Covers were laid for fourteen members of the younger set. The evening was spent in playing pinochle.
