Miss Amanda Zabel Entertains Former E. O. N. Students Sunday Morning at Enjoyable Breakfast

Among the enjoyable social events held in connection with the annual home-coming at the Eastern Oregon Normal school over the weekend was the waffle breakfast given yesterday morning by Miss Amanda Zabel at her home, 1502 Fifth street. A two-course breakfast was served and the hours of the morning were spent in informal conversation.

Next stop was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wetzel for waffles and sandwiches, while Miss Blanche Snook served the dessert. Tamales were enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Vinson, and over the fireplace at the home of Miss Florence Nelson, a marshmallow roast was held.

POPULAR ACCESSORIES OFFERED Claudette Suggests Collar and Cuffs

Accessories for the black tailleur this fall must be trim and white. Collars and cuffs in varied shapes and designs are the popular rage. Pique is probably the most favored of materials among the gay young folk, with linen and organdie also in favor.

Hallow'en Party At McManus Home

Twenty friends of Patsy and John McManus were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McManus at their home Saturday evening from 7 until 10 o'clock. The basement was decorated early with a Hallow'en motif, and the games and contests were enjoyed there. The guests were all in costume and the prize for the best costume was awarded to William Pries, who was dressed as a little girl. A favor hunt which was conducted early in the evening was another entertaining feature of the event. Mrs. Andrew Loney Jr. was the fortune teller. Among the guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Loney, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Miller, Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Kopp and Mrs. Vella Rogers.

Bridge Dinner On Saturday Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Skiff were hosts at a charming bridge dinner at their home on Saturday at 7 o'clock. Twelve were invited for the evening. The Hallow'en motif predominated in the table decorations and in the bridge table appointments. Prizes for the evening were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Anderson, first, and Dr. F. L. Tribe and Miss Ina Fleming, consolation. Mrs. Everett Keown assisted Mrs. Skiff.

Saturday Evening Bridge Club Meets

Eight were invited for the evening when Mrs. J. E. Reynolds entertained the Saturday Evening Bridge club on Saturday. Mrs. E. Jacobsen received the prize for high score. Delightful refreshments were served late in the evening by the hostess. Mrs. C. H. Devine will be the next hostess, entertaining in two weeks at her home at the Sacajawea annex.

Miss Ina Fleming Dinner Hostess

Miss Ina Fleming was hostess at a charming dinner Friday evening at 6 o'clock at the Sacajawea Inn. The table was decorated appropriately with a centerpiece of fruit in a large pumpkin bowl. The nut cups also were black and orange. After dinner the guests retired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Speckhart for an informal evening of music and conversation. Guests for the event were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Knautz, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Speckhart, Mr. and Mrs. John Speckhart, Mrs. Everett Keown and the Misses Helen Jean Speckhart and Lillian Knautz.

Classmates Enjoy Hallow'en Party

Five young men, members of the seventh A class of the Central school, entertained their classmates Saturday evening at a Hallow'en party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lockwood. Hosts were Harold Lockwood, Gordon Wyld, Eugene Rochester, John Ward and Bob McClay. Hallow'en decorations formed an attractive setting for the party at which games were played. Cider and doughnuts were served by the hosts, assisted by their mothers.

Club Women Will Hear Discussion

Mrs. Fred E. Kiddle will present a political discussion with leading speakers from both parties participating tomorrow afternoon when the Neighborhood club meets at 2 o'clock at the La Grande hotel. The discussion will be accompanied by group singing of patriotic songs.

Diversity Club Is Entertained

"Black Cat" bridge was enjoyed during the evening when the Diversity club met Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Duncan. "Black Cat" bridge is played according to auction rules with comic regulations concerning the scoring, and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Florence Stokke and Saul Wirth, first, and Mrs. Lucille Price and Otis Dixon, consolation. Otto Ott received the guest prize. Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ott, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Barnwell, of Pilot Rock, and Arthur Wright. The house was decorated with witches and black cats and ghosts and skeletons ushered the guests into the mysteriously decorated rooms. Refreshments were served at midnight.

Progressive Party Enjoyed on Friday

On Friday, Oct. 28, the Graduate Nurses association and its friends enjoyed a progressive Hallow'en party, the first part of which started at the Grande Ronde hospital. About 20 people in costumes met there, some as darkies, cloaks and one as a George Washington. The association served cider and doughnuts at the hospital, from where the group went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harlow for soup. The

The Truck Driver is Human Give him a chance!

VOTE 314 X YES! FREIGHT TRUCK AND BUS BILL

MOTOR transportation companies, now inadequately regulated, require their drivers to make long, hazardous trips without rest—and at a deplorably low wage.

This practice is unjust and highly dangerous. Tired men make mistakes easily. Investigation of recent major truck accidents develops that the drivers had been on duty excessively long hours.

The Freight Truck and Bus Bill will stop this selfish and dangerous labor-exploiting practice by giving the driver decent working hours through reasonable and just regulations. It will make it possible for the driver to sleep at home instead of behind the wheel of a fast-moving truck. It will give him hours at home with his family, every man's just heritage. It will make the highways safer for you and your family. It points the way to a lower passenger car license. It will NOT put 27,000 men out of employment; it will increase employment by eliminating the trailer and employing two men to do two men's work.

Vote 314 X Yes—Freight Truck and Bus Bill It will REGULATE (Not Eliminate) commercial trucks and buses. No community will be deprived of adequate bus and truck service.
