Football Most Costly Sport

CHICAGO (AP)—What price college football training? In the Western conference, composed of eight large state universities and two other major schools, the per capita cost of football training for a season is $122.96. Of course, points out Maj. John L. Griffith, Big Ten commissioner, who has drawn up a football financial balance sheet, the "upkeep" of a varsity star is more than that, considered individually. But, Griffith adds, so is his "intake."

Simple Togs With Youthful Air

By Rita Ferris (Associated Press Fashion Editor) PARIS (AP)—Youthful clothes for young people will be the mode launched by Mirande this winter. The house which clothes the daughters of the former king of Spain uses a trim, crisp silhouette, unimpeded by excessive detail as the mold for coats, frocks and suits for the young smart set. Shoulders are broadened and waistlines kept slim to give the effect of athletic figures, while skirts are short enough—about 11 inches from the ground—to allow freedom of movement for the girl who likes to walk.

ITALIAN MODERN TRIUMPH IN EIGHT FOR SKYSCRAPERS

TURIN, Italy (AP)—Italy's modernist school of architecture has achieved a noteworthy triumph by inducing the Turin city council to approve construction of a 15-story "skyscraper." Three cities now have access to the sky, and Genoa having also consented to such buildings. Turin's "skyscraper" will go up in the heart of the city. It will be set in at the tenth floor, the remaining five floors constituting a tower. Two buildings of similar height are planned for Genoa's main square. The 14-story structure at Brescia has been going on for a year.

ORIENTAL NAVIES IGNORE CLASHING ARMS ASHORE

TOKYO (AP)—Chinese and Japanese armies may clash but all is sweetness and light between the navies. Four Chinese have just graduated from the Japanese torpedo school at Yokosuka and taken important posts in China's fledgling sea force. The Harima dockyard near Kobe recently delivered the 3000-ton cruiser Ninghai to China and at the ensuing banquet Admiral Chen Shao-kuan, Nanking's minister of marine, said the new ship strengthened the ties between the two navies.

NOTED BROKEN HILL MINES TAP LAST OF ORE BODIES

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Researches by geologists show that the famous silver mines of Broken Hill, in New South Wales, are doomed. There are only 16,000,000 tons of ore left and this will be recovered, in the present rate of mining, in less than 10 years. Since the field was first worked in 1883, the production has been worth $300,000,000.

FRANCE STARTS NEW 'SUBS'

CHERBOURG, France (AP)—The ministry of marine has ordered the laying down here of two new 1,500-ton submarines to be called the Ouessant and the Sid-Ferruch.

TURKS 'YO HEAVE' COLUMN

ISTANBUL (AP)—It took 100 "hamals," the human delivery trucks of Turkey, to carry to the Istanbul museum an enormous Parthian column discovered in the cellar of the Yenidjane mosque. Usually one "hamal" can carry a piano balanced on a small leather saddle strapped to his back.

WEST VIRGINIA PASSER GOOD WITH EITHER HAND

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (AP)—Forward passes usually are dangerous enough, but when the passer is like-ly to use either his right or left hand, the opposition must be more than usually alert to knock them down. Bill Parriott, University of West Virginia halfback, tosses them with either hand. If his opponents are charging from the right, he tosses with his left; if from the left, he changes to the right hand.

Evangelist Will Speak Tonight At Christian Church

"Don't come to the service, this evening unless you can come open minded enough to accept the plain teaching of the Bible on the subject. 'The Church' is the warning given Sunday by Evangelist Leavitt in announcing tonight's sermon at the Christian Church. Large audiences heard Mr. Leavitt both morning and evening Sunday, and this week is expected to attract large attendance each evening. The evangelist's time in La Grande is limited, and those intending to hear him are urged to attend this week's services. Mr. Leavitt says regarding the subject tonight, 'There is much confusion in the minds of people regarding what church they should join or attend. We believe there is good in every church, but that there are some practices in many churches which do not conform to the New Testament.' In this sermon I am going to speak plainly, but in love, and I invite you to hear what I have to say. There will be services each evening of this week including Saturday evening."

NEW ASHFORD IS FIRST TO COUNT VOTES
