An Old-Fashioned Modern; That's Mrs. John Garner

Mrs. John N. Garner, wife of the vice president-elect believes a woman should help her husband along the path to success and she has followed out that policy. She is shown at left as she appeared soon after Mr. Garner entered congress 30 years ago. At right she is shown as she appeared in 1905; below in 1910, and above as she appears today.

UVALDE, Tex. (AP) — Picture an old-fashioned woman doing strictly modern work, and there you have Mrs. John Nance Garner, wife of the vice president-elect. Mrs. Garner herself insists she is old-fashioned, but as aid to her husband she displays the modern woman's executive ability in office matters. When the vice president-elect held office in his younger days in Texas, Mrs. Garner became his secretary and she continues to assist him and handle his correspondence which has become voluminous the last year. There was a time, however, when Mrs. Garner didn't think so much of John Nance Garner. But that was before they were married. Mrs. Garner, then Marrietta Rheiner, lived down the river in New Valley county, Texas. She didn't know Garner personally, but she had heard a good deal about his propensity for card-playing as well as about his determination in getting things he wanted. Garner sought to be a judge, Mrs. Rheiner opposed the appointment, and worked diligently to stop it. Her efforts were in vain, however, because he was appointed. Some time later she met him—and they were married in 1890. When Mr. Garner went to congress, Mrs. Garner says she might have given up her secretarial work but she found herself so completely interwoven with her husband's political affairs that it was difficult to quit. Mrs. Garner says she feels it is the wife's business to smooth out all difficulties in the pathway of her husband's march to success. Mrs. Garner is a devout Christian. "Religion doesn't amount to anything," she says. "If it is not in every moment of everyday life. "In this crisis, I think women have two outstanding duties—to be strong in faith and to accept the need for retrenchment, to do it gracefully and to make their homes and their husbands as happy and peaceful as possible. What else women can do is the problem of each individual." The Garners have one son, Tully, and a granddaughter, Genevieve, who is credited with remarkable powers in "bossing" the vice president-elect.

How One Woman Lost 10 Lbs In a Week

Mrs. Betty Luedeke of Dayton writes: "I am using Kruschen to reduce weight — I lost 10 pounds in one week and cannot say too much to recommend it." "To take off fat easily, SAFELY and HARMLESSLY — take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast, go lighter on fatty meats, potatoes, butter, cream and pastries — it is the safe way to lose unsightly fat and one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle. Get it at Red Cross Drug Store, L & L Drug Co., Glass Drugs, Inc., Moon Drug Co. or any drugstore in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the safest way to lose fat—money back. But be sure and get Kruschen Salts — imitations are numerous and you must safeguard your health. —Adv.

No raw tobaccos in Luckies —that's why they're so mild WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes. "It's toasted" That package of mild Luckies
