In Ill-
The many friends in this valley of "Shorty" Kirkoff will be sorry to learn that as an after effect of his recent illness he has practically lost his sight. We are told that he is now unable to distinguish his friends.

Imbler Aid Meets-
The Ladies Aid of Imbler met in their regular session last week at the home of Mrs. William Rollins. Mrs. J. A. Oaskill president, led the devotion and presided during the business meeting. The program of the afternoon consisted of readings by Mrs. Rollins and Mrs. Holmes, a talk on Father's day and Mother's day by Mrs. Jesse Berry. The hostesses were assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Alvin Westenskow, Mrs. Hattie Wise and Mrs. Charles Holmes. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Holmes on Thursday, July 6.

Start Trip-
Miss Sarah Williamson, of Cove avenue, accompanied by the Misses Eileen Macleod, Ruth Brown, Beatrice Wardell and Justin Smith, left La Grande Sunday morning on their way to Chicago where they will attend the Century of Progress Exposition. They will make the trip in Miss Williamson's car and expect to be gone a month. All four young women are teachers in the La Grande schools. Miss Helen Hughes accompanied them as far as Boise where she will visit friends.

Have Accident-
While en route to Enterprise Friday evening to spend the night with friends following the opening session of the Christian Endeavor convention, a car driven by Frank Elmer, of Lower Cove, was struck by another car headed in the opposite direction, completely demolishing one wheel and fender of the Elmer car, and doing the other minor damage. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer and family went on into Enterprise and it was necessary to send to La Grande for a wheel for the car before they were able to return to their home Saturday evening. They were brought back to Wallowa for the remainder of the convention on Saturday by Dr. J. L. McPherson. Fortunately no one was injured in the accident, and there was very little damage to the other car.

Having Extended Trip-
Friends of Miss Charibel Cannon, who taught at Imbler last year, will be interested to know that she is en route to Minnesota to spend the summer. Miss Cannon left shortly after the close of school and was met in Utah by her mother who drove from Minnesota to meet her. From Utah they went to Colorado to spend a week and are now visiting with a sister and daughter in Nebraska, after which they will go on to Minnesota.

In La Grande-
Mr. and Mrs. Harve Bay spent Monday in La Grande visiting their son, Larry, and Mrs. Bay's mother, Mrs. J. C. Gulling. Mrs. Bay is manager at the Wallowa Lake Wagoner and Washington. This was an all day meeting with a pot-luck luncheon at noon. The program for the afternoon consisted of two original readings by M. L. Carter, a reading by Mrs. Ed Eckley, a poem by Betty Ann Blokland and a short address by Mr. Greiner. The officers elected for the coming year were Russell Kaufman, of Pendleton, president and Mrs. Dick Smith, of Island City, secretary-treasurer. Following the election, the remainder of the day was spent in conversation and renewing old acquaintances. Those present from out of the state were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Griffin, of Hoquiam, Wash., and Mrs. Jim McDonald and son, of Walla Walla. Mr. and Mrs. Griffin are spending some time in La Grande visiting friends, and later expect to go to the fair in Chicago.

Family Reunion-
There was a joyous family gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Y. Beale, of Ladd canyon, Sunday and a large dinner was served. All the guests were relatives of Mrs. Beale and were the following: her mother, Mrs. Emma Poole, of Milton; her sister, Mrs. Carrie Gordon, of Klamath Falls; three nieces, Mrs. Esther Halley and son, Lyle, from Klamath Falls; Miss Ruth Records, of Milton; and Mrs. Frank Rominger, of La Grande and her little daughter, Mary Lou and Mr. Rominger, and her brother, Frank Poole and Mrs. Poole, of Ladd canyon. All the guests remained for a longer visit at the Beale home with the exception of Miss Records who has been visiting in La Grande with her sister, Mrs. Rominger.

At State Grange-
Many members of the several subordinate grange organizations in this county are in Pendleton this week where they are attending the session of the Oregon State grange which is meeting there. The fact that the meeting is so close gives grangers hereabouts a splendid opportunity to sit in on the sessions.

Club Meeting-
The Imbler Womens club is holding their regular meeting today at the home of Mrs. Jesse Berry. A picnic luncheon was enjoyed at noon to which the husbands of the members were invited. The business of the afternoon included the annual election of officers.

At Fair-
Lee Johnson, of near La Grande, who is a teacher at Imbler, is attending the Century of Progress Exposition at Chicago. He expects to remain in Chicago about a week and then spend some time visiting relatives and friends in the middle west before returning to his home later in the summer.

Starkey Reunion-
The annual reunion of the pioneers of the Starkey district was held at Starkey last Sunday with about 200 people present from Eastern Oregon and Washington. This was an all day meeting with a pot-luck luncheon at noon. The program for the afternoon consisted of two original readings by M. L. Carter, a reading by Mrs. Ed Eckley, a poem by Betty Ann Blokland and a short address by Mr. Greiner. The officers elected for the coming year were Russell Kaufman, of Pendleton, president and Mrs. Dick Smith, of Island City, secretary-treasurer. Following the election, the remainder of the day was spent in conversation and renewing old acquaintances. Those present from out of the state were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Griffin, of Hoquiam, Wash., and Mrs. Jim McDonald and son, of Walla Walla. Mr. and Mrs. Griffin are spending some time in La Grande visiting friends, and later expect to go to the fair in Chicago.

Attend Convention-
Mrs. Amanda Henaley and Mrs. Viola Tucker, who are members of the new Christian Endeavor society at Summerville, represented their organization at the annual district convention which was held last weekend at Wallowa.

Visits Aunt-
Miss Lorna Belle Matthews, of Baker, is enjoying a visit at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Carl Fuller, of Imbler.

Move-
Mr. and Mrs. Dan Westenskow and family, who have been residents of Imbler for years have moved to Gresham where they will reside in the future.

Has Luncheon-
A lovely luncheon was given Tuesday by Mrs. T. C. Hefly at her home above the Cove to Mrs. W. J. Hallmark, Miss Beese Kelly, Mrs. Bernice Miller, Mrs. Alvin Orton and Mrs. Helen Conklin. The afternoon was spent visiting. Mrs. J. R. Price and Mrs. Guy Barker, who had been invited also, were unable to attend. Mrs. Barker was detained at home by the illness of her little daughter, Anne, who has the measles.

Returns Home-
Mrs. Dave Zweifel, who has been visiting among her relatives in the north end of the valley, has gone to Weiser where she will visit on her way to her home at New Meadows, Ida.

Paris dress designers have organized a conference to prevent illegal copying of original models.

Win Highest Honors-
The Christian Endeavor society of Lower Cove, which has done such successful work since its organization, received the honor this year at the convention at Wallowa both for having the largest percentage of their membership registered at the convention and for having the best delegation with the largest percentage of their delegates present at the con-

Mortgage Relief Section Has Benefits

The mortgage relief section of the new federal farm act contains provisions through which excessive farm debts may be cut down, interest rates reduced, payments on principal postponed and foreclosed farms redeemed, as well as provisions for assisting farmers in meeting other obligations.

These are the findings of the Oregon State college agricultural extension service here in its first review of the agricultural credit section of the act which is one of the three main divisions of the new law.

First attention has been given the 400,000 farmers who now owe the federal land banks about one billion dollars on farm mortgages. The new law grants a five year moratorium on principal payments to the land banks and reducing the interest rate beginning early in July to 4 1/2 per cent, where it must stay for the next five years.

New borrowers from the land banks within the next two years will be granted this same rate of interest, which is well below the ordinary commercial rates. As the great majority of farm mortgages are held by other than government, they will be offered aid in liquidation if they will meet certain provisions such as reducing interest rates and suspending foreclosures unless such are approved.

The act also makes a direct appropriation of $200,000,000 to be loaned to farmers to redeem farm property lost in foreclosure or meet other indebtedness in a specified list. The federal land bank at Spokane now has more detailed information on administration of this section of the new farm act, according to word received here.

Return Home-
Mr. and Mrs. George Hempe and son, George, of Portland, left last week for their home. They had been called to the valley by the death of Mr. Hempe's uncle, Tony Hempe, of Union. The elder son, Bert, is remaining at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Albert Becker, of Lower Cove, for some time. Louie Neida, Price of Camp Yew Bow made the trip to Portland with the Hempe family and will visit with her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Price.

To Hinehart-
Miss Eunice Herr, who has been staying in La Grande, has gone to Hinehart where she will spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Herr, who moved to a ranch in that vicinity early this spring.

From Utah-
Mrs. Wilfred Westenskow and Mrs. Irvin Westenskow have returned to their homes at Imbler after having been at Hyrum, Utah, for a visit with their parents.

To Other Valley-
Mrs. Leona Swearingen Fries, of Pleasant Grove, and for several years a very successful teacher of the Pleasant Grove school has gone to Western Oregon to make her future home. Mrs. Swearingen has joined her husband, W. L. Swearingen, who was graduated last week from the University of Oregon. Mr. Swearingen was a former Smith-Hughes teacher in the Imbler High school.

Reunion Sunday-
Members of the Smith-Conley families are urged to remember the annual reunion which is to be held this Sunday, June 17, at Riverside park. A potluck dinner will be served during the mid-day, and other features have been arranged.

CRICKET FLAT PIONEER DIES
George Yarrington, 75, pioneer of Cricket Flat where he has been a resident for the past 48 years, died Tuesday night at 11 o'clock at his home from heart trouble. Mr. Yarrington was born in Wisconsin on June 4, 1858 and at the age of five years moved to Minnesota. In March, 1885 he came to Oregon and took up a homestead at Cricket Flat where he has lived since. He was married to Minnie M. Reed, July 26, 1891.

Eleven children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Yarrington, three of whom died in infancy. Mrs. Cora Moulton, a daughter, died 12 years ago. He is survived by seven children, Horace B. Yarrington, Moberly, Miss.; Mrs. Joe Miller, Caldwell, Idaho; George Harlan Yarrington, La Grande; Thuron D. Yarrington, Miller, Oregon; Donald C. Yarrington, Elgin; Virgil L. Yarrington, of Caldwell; Ivan Yarrington, of Elgin, and 12 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Highland cemetery where interment will be made. Snodgrass and Zimmerman were in charge.

UNION PERSONALS
Jack O'Neil, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy O'Neil, who live on the Cove-Union highway, was injured Saturday morning when a colt kicked him in the mouth and knocked out the 8 front teeth.

Mrs. Carrie Chamberlain arrived from Washington, D. C. recently for a visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. O. L. Skiff, and niece, Mrs. Fred Brown.

Mrs. Gordon Barnard returned Thursday evening from Portland where she had been visiting for three weeks.

Mrs. Ray Coles and son, Gordon, returned Monday from Weiser where they had been visiting since Thursday. Mrs. A. B. Coles, mother of Mr. A. B. Coles, returned with them for an indefinite visit.

Mrs. George Munro, of Portland, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Woodruff in the valley. The latter is planning to spend the summer there with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lawson who are planning to spend the summer there looking after the cattle on the range.

A. B. Davis drove to Portland Wednesday for his son Bruce and family who will visit here for a couple of weeks.

Thirteen members of the Cornish School Touring company drove in from Seattle last Friday and were lunch guests of Mrs. S. B. Miller. After a short visit they continued on their way for their annual tour during which they will stage classical plays in towns in Nebraska, Texas, California and other states.

4-H Club Notes

The regular meeting of the Cricket Flat Pig club was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Parks, with all members present excepting Bernal Hug Jr. An interesting report on "The Control of Lice" was given by Buford Witherspoon. All committees gave very good reports. Emblems for the club were discussed and plans partially made to secure them at a later date. After the meeting Mrs. Parks served refreshments.

The next regular meeting will be Friday, June 16, and at that time a trip will be arranged to see the club pigs.
