La Grande Eagles Out This Week; Exhibition Game

The La Grande Eagles and the Engineers were the two teams chosen this week to "vacation" while the rest of the league teams made up games necessitated by the late entry into the league of Alice and Island City, the latter two aggregations being one game behind the other six teams.

Alice is scheduled to tangle with the Chiefs at Enterprise. Cove will tussle with the Cowboys of Lostine, and the league leading Pleasant Grove Grangers will try to dust off the up-and-coming Millers at Island City.

Reports are that the La Grande Eagle squad will play an exhibition game with the local American Legion Junior league squad on the high school field starting about 2 p. m.

OBSERVER TEAM WINS VICTORY

The Observer carrier's baseball team defeated an aggregation from North and West La Grande yesterday morning by a score of 13 to 6 at the La Grande high school field. It was the first game played this season and the boys of both teams made a fine showing. Stitt, of the former nine, batting a home run.

Batteries for the North and West La Grande team were T. Zivkovich, O. Butch, F. Kimmell and F. Beaman.

THE TINYMITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

THE lion wagged his tail a bit and Dotty shouted, "Think of it! Why, I believe he's friendly. Maybe we are quite all right."

"Of course, if he begins to roar, I will be very scared, once more. Perhaps it's safer to stay right up in this tree till night."

"Of course it is," snapped Goldy. "You can bet that's what I'm going to do. I wouldn't trust a lion farther than a frog can hop."

"I'll sit right up here on this limb, so I can keep away from him. I know 'twould be the end of me, if I'd decide to drop."

THEN Duncy said, "I guess you're right. In fact, we're in an awful plight. I wish someone would come along and scare the beast away."

"Just look! He's being funny, now. He's trying to get us down, somehow. Those antics are supposed to make us think he wants to play."

The lion then whirled round and round and shortly flopped upon the ground. The crazy stunts made Dotty laugh. "That beast is trained," she cried.

"Why, honestly, I almost feel that, after all, he isn't real. Look closely and you'll see he has a very funny hide."

"YOU'RE right," a real faint voice cried out. "You've guessed what this is all about. 'Who said that?' shouted Duncy. 'I can't see a soul around.'"

The lion then spread right in two. The same faint voice said, "Howdy do! Why stay up in the tree, when it is safe down on the ground?"

'Twas Scouty. In the lion's hide. And Windy, too! Wee Duncy cried, "Three cheers for my two little pals. Let's get out of the tree."

In just a moment they were out. Said Goldy, "What's it all about? Your finding us, I must admit, is strange as it can be." (Copyright, 1933, NEA Service, Inc.) (The Tinies start back, to join Coppy, in the next story.)
