Lionel Barrymore At The Liberty

ELIZABETH ALLAN, LEWIS STONE and LIONEL BARRYMORE in "LOOKING FORWARD"

Two men and their families in the midst of a financial tempest that rocks a great mercantile institution form the keynote of "Looking Forward," Lionel Barrymore's newest starring picture which will be shown 2 days starting Sunday at the Liberty theatre.

Barrymore in a role said to be even more gripping than his characterization in "Grand Hotel," is seen as the old bookkeeper in a great London department store. Dismissed because of the depression, he is regenerated by his loyal wife and in the end becomes the means of saving the tottering firm. Lewis Stone plays the millionaire store owner who is brought to the brink of ruin by an unfaithful wife.

The effective cast includes Benita Hume, recently seen in "Clear All Wires," Elizabeth Allan, who was brought to this country from England following her success opposite Leslie Howard in "Service for Ladies," Phillips Holmes, Colin Clive, Alec B. Francis, and a number of others.

Based on C. L. Anthony's London stage success, "Service," the picture was directed by Clarence Brown, who made "Lety Lynton," "A Free Soul" and "Anna Christie," among other successes. The title, "Looking Forward," was selected by special permission of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, who permitted the producers to use the title of his widely acclaimed book, after viewing the picture.

GREAT DANE DOG IS DEAD

No more will Blazes make his almost daily round of calls on the business men of La Grande! Blazes, a Great Dane and one of the best known and widely loved of La Grande's canine population, died yesterday at the home of his master, George S. Birnie. Blazes always received a friendly pat wherever he went and was gentle and lovable, in spite of his great size.

Blazes was six years old. He was buried on the banks of the river, the river by which he romped while accompanying many horseback parties into the mountains which have practically been his home.

DR. JASPER TO GO TO BROWN

Dr. Herbert Jasper, who has spent the past two years studying in Europe, has accepted a position at Brown University, in Providence, R. I. during the coming winter, according to word received here. Mrs. Jasper, who accompanied him to Europe, returned to La Grande this spring and is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Cleaver, for the summer.

Dr. Jasper is a psychologist of considerable eminence and besides teaching classes at Brown university will be the psychologist in the children's hospital, connected with the university, and will conduct research in his field.

He is now touring in France. The bureau of standards has found that books in country libraries last longer than those in city libraries because of the greater amount of sulphur dioxide in city air.

AGREEING WITH MR. FORD

"Great changes are upon the world. False ideas of every kind are vanishing in the general upheaval. Those who built truly on principle will survive—their service will carry over. Business integrity and commodity honor will be fully justified."

So says Henry Ford in a recent signed advertisement that appeared in this newspaper commenting upon the occasion of the thirtieth anniversary of his company, pioneer in the automobile field.

Mr. Ford Hits the Nail Squarely on the Head

The business that will survive the depression and will continue to prosper and expand under the new era will be the business that has kept faith with the people, held first and all times to strict quality of its product yet advanced and improved that product in tune with the new trend and its demands, without misrepresentation of its value.

THE REAL LESSON

That sheaf of letters and telegrams received by Senator Carter Glass, denouncing him as a "crook and defender of racketeers," represents the flying spray from a mounting tidal wave of public indignation over the Morgan disclosures. When a man of Senator Glass' standing can receive such letters, it is pretty obvious that the waters are getting rather turbulent, and the rising of the wave brings to our public men two chances to make disastrous mistakes.

ANNOUNCE HONOR AT BIG PICNIC HERE

The dairy industry and its outlook. This association with which the local co-op is affiliated, eight local associations working together for better production and marketing conditions, produced three-quarters of a million pounds of butter last year, and after only two and a half years of organized effort, furnished 25 per cent of the butter sold on the Portland markets last year. Mr. Brown pointed out that through such cooperation, the two sources of income to the farmer members were the returns from savings and the returns from profits. With the margin of profits as small as they have been during the past year, the principal item must come at the present from savings in production and marketing. He stressed the matter of inefficiency resulting from duplication, resulting in a lower price for butterfat.

MISS HARDMAN RETURNS HOME

years ago to the place where we are now marketing $1,000,000 worth of small seeds alone. In ten years Washington and Oregon have come to be among the most prominent canner states, with quality produce finding a good market in this fashion. We have been canning the common vegetables with the output increasing from $200,000 to well over the two million mark.

In referring particularly to the dairy industry which was under discussion, he expressed his confidence in the outlook for two reasons. "We can produce more cheaply here and there is a good market in California for our surplus. The comparative cheap feed conditions together with long pasture seasons and good pastures make Oregon primarily a dairy state."

Paul Adams, of Portland, who is secretary of the Oregon State Dairy Council, discussed methods which are being used to promote the sale and use of all sorts of dairy products. He pointed out that while the per capita consumption in 1931 was 17 1/2 pounds, in 1932 this had increased to 19 pounds and that last year one and a half million more pounds were used than in the preceding year. In Oregon the dairy industry employs 50,000 he stated.

Owing to the lateness of the hour, Oris Dorman, official in the North Pacific Grain Growers spoke only briefly, his remarks being more of a general character and illustrative of the fact that with present machinery being set in motion, the farmer may yet become the master of his own destiny, a condition which has not been possible heretofore.

The Blue Mt. Wranglers opened the afternoon program with a half hour of their characteristic music and Kermit and Kenneth Ragain gave vocal and instrumental numbers.
