It is reported, with the young folks showing considerable interest in the studies. Higgs and Miss Mabel Paul, of Crane, were visitors in Cove Wednesday, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fletcher, R. M. Laird and J. R. Price, in and near the Cove. The party was returning to Crane from a trip which had taken them through much of Oregon and Washington. Mrs. Paul lived in Cove when a little girl and can recall driving to the fort at what was then called Uniontown, at the time of the Indian scare. The party also visited at the Assessor's summer school where Mrs. Higgs' daughter, Mary Rachel, is enrolled as a student.

Phillips and Mr. Crossland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Crossland.

Beautiful Peeples—
While this is not strictly under the valley line, we suggest that you take a walk or a ride within the next day or two over the Second street viaduct and see the lovely poppy gardens which Mr. and Mrs. Jack Killary have about their home, which is just at the left immediately after you leave the bridge. With the brilliant Orientals predominating, the yard is one mass of color and a thing much worth going to see.

Haying—
Haying is the order of the day in various valley sections these days, with much first cutting finished and mow in progress. The weather is just right, and good drying weather seems to be ahead. The quality and quantity are both reported as being fair.

The visitors included Mrs. Jack Smith, Miss Blanche Snook, Mrs. Martha Hardy, Mrs. Katie McCreary, Miss Bethel Fishman and Miss Lois Hardy. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Maggie Fishman.

Benefit Tea—
Many lots of women from La Grande and all sections of the valley are making their plans to attend the benefit tea to be given next Thursday, June 22, from 2 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wallinger on the Lower Cove market road. The hostesses are to be Mrs. Wallinger, Mrs. Everett Wallinger and Mrs. Martha Page Moss, members of the Daughters of Union County Pioneers association, the object of the party being the flower fund of the organization. In case of inclement weather, the great screened porch will accommodate the affair comfortably. The invitation is generally extended.

Miss Bond Improves—
Miss Vergelia Bond, who has been quite ill at her home in Haines for the past week, is better and about again now. Miss Bond has for the past three years been a teacher at there to attend the University of California next year. Chenault, Mrs. Harold Lyman and Mrs. Ralph Chenault entertained the members of the Allice Ladies Aid society and a number of guests at the Chenault home in the Valeria district. Mrs. Ed Jasper presided over the business meeting and this was followed by a program. The devotions were conducted by Mrs. B. M. Godwin. Piano solos were given by Lillian Knautz, Elina and Mary Jasper and Marjorie Chandler. Marilyn Chandler gave a reading and Mrs. Bethel St. John sang a solo furnishing her own accompaniment. These all preceded the main feature of the afternoon which was an interesting talk by Mrs. Herbert Jasper who has recently returned to La Grande after a sojourn of 18 months in Paris where Mr. Jasper was studying at the Sorbonne. Mrs. Jasper gave intimate pictures of the city and its people and other information which can be gained only by one who has had a continental residence in the city. Mills, went to Walla Walla to witness Miss Dorothy's graduation.

Circle Meets—
Mrs. J. E. Hulise was the hostess to the Happy Hour Circle, Wednesday at her home in the Iowa district. The attendance was around 20, and the work of the afternoon was some quilting. It was not an ordinary quilting, however, for the company initiated Mrs. Hulise's new quilting frames which her son-in-law, Dr. C. I. Gilstrap, had recently given her and according to reports are the very last word in frames. It was rather a warm day for quilting but we are told the women were cooled off and refreshed by the splendid food and drinks which Mrs. Hulise, assisted by her daughters, Mrs. McLain and Mrs. Gilstrap, served. Mrs. Hulise's daughters and their families and Miss Mary Mullenberg were guests. The next meeting of this club will be next month at the home of Mrs. Otis Monroe.
