

Around the Shops

Following this column with each appearance Mikedy or Gentleman of La Grande will find much of interest in what is new for dress and home as chronicled by Bess Duke in her rounds of the local stores.

Polonius of Shakespearean drama, once said to his son, "Brevity is the soul of wit." He didn't know the soul of it! Brevity is also the soul of the new bathing suit and the J. C. Penney company is in the swim with slightly risqué models of various styles, all very backless and quite short. One of the most dashing of the new suits features long shoulder straps which pass through a loop at the waistline in the back and tie around the waist. Many types of materials are utilized, one of the newest of which is the corduroy wool, and the decorations include appliqued insets, pipings and self trim.

High topped shoes laced or buttoned to the calf once peeped out, quite unobtrusively, from beneath a profusion of skirts and the hose were something one mentioned only in the privacy of one's own boudoir. Those days are gone forever what with skirts 10 or 11 inches from the floor and low cut pumps encasing the foot, there is left several inches of ankle to be clad with stockings. Hosiery has become an important part of the wardrobe. Burnetts are showing hose in several tones for summer, cool grey, natural beige, and anklets of silk or cotton for sportswear.

The well dressed women, ages from two to six years, will this summer be wearing the sheers of dotted swiss, the gayest of prints, trimmed with organdy or bound with narrow little stripes of bias tape, according to the latest fashion notes from the

New York store. No hue is too gay and you should see those clever arrangements of polka dots of all sizes, conventional little polka dots and trim little stripes that bespeckle the frocks fashioned with high waist lines and the sahes. Each of the outfits is a complete ensemble with matching panties and a number of the dotted swiss have matching hats trimmed with crisp organdy.

The season is upon us when we can bear up under the temperature by thinking of luscious ices and sparkling drinks. At last we have a substitute for a hot hour of turning an ice cream freezer—the new 10-10-10 General Electric refrigerator solves the problem. Bohnenkamp's is really proud of what they have to offer in the new refrigerator which turns ice cream freezing into an automatic process. The beauty of the shining white exterior equals the accommodation of the all-steel cabinet, the new interior lighting and the foot pedal which opens the door. The ice box also has a stainless steel freezer and various containers of bright metal.

Big clusters of salmon pink, brick red or dark red geraniums with their leaves of deep velvety green add a touch of brilliance to porch boxes and yard beds. Cherry's Florist shop is specializing in geraniums at present, with the time for setting out the full grown plants at hand. The plants have been grown in the Cherry greenhouses during the early spring.

Red Cross Works Efficiently In Earthquake Area

Paul De P. Mortimore, of the Union County Red Cross, is in receipt of a report from A. L. Schaffer, Red Cross manager in the Pacific area, who has directed the earthquake disaster relief work in Southern California, to the effect that all but 413 of the 4,870 cases registered for assistance have been considered and closed.

The report shows 2,876 families given rehabilitation or emergency assistance. Of this number 1,370 families received rehabilitation awards involving building and repairs, hospital, nursing and medical bills.

In the 90-day period since the earthquake of March 10, 81.5 per cent of all cases have been closed. During that time 1,223 homes have been inspected and estimates made covering rebuilding and repair to the extent of $225,601.07.

Contributions to the disaster relief funds total $458,774.27. Of this amount, Red Cross chapters, individuals, and organizations gave $338,774.27 and the National Red Cross $100,000.

At the request of the board of directors of Long Beach chapter, the Red Cross gave immediate assistance to families, without resources, who sustained losses in the explosion that wrecked a refinery plant of the Richfield Oil company in North Long Beach on June 2. Some of the families who had suffered loss in the earthquake of March 10 had made repairs to their homes only to sustain additional damage as a result of the oil explosion.

Manager Schaffer reports that Red Cross relief workers have given these particular families prompt assistance. He draws attention to the fact that Red Cross beneficiaries have disbursed their awards very rapidly in making repairs. Reconstruction of family residences, therefore, is far ahead of reconstruction of business buildings, churches and public buildings.

LA GRANDE YOUNG PEOPLE ENJOYING SUMMER SESSION

The total enrollment is slightly lower than usual this year for obvious reasons, the program of work and play is better than usual—following the club motto of always "making the best better."

For nearly two weeks now the delegates from Jackson county have been following a regular morning schedule of class work, going in sections from building to building on the campus, getting the latest instruction from the regular college faculty members on a score of subjects ranging from the fundamentals of livestock and crop management for the boys and homemaking for the girls, to such interesting specialties as photography, radio, fire prevention, journalism and music for all of them.

Once a day special speakers appear before the general assemblage, then there is an afternoon of sports and various kinds of recreation, following by educational and entertaining movies or other programs in the evening. The group has a regularly organized system of self-government, with Stenwall Jackson of Garby heading the boy's council and Alice Welbes, of Gresham, the girls.

State officials of the club work, which is part of the Oregon extension service, are being assisted in conducting the school by many county extension and volunteer leaders. The session will end Saturday, June 24.

THREE MORE STATES JOIN REPEAL RANK

As big as that in Connecticut and New Hampshire. But with 611,000 votes in, and only 130 precincts missing, her count was 368,691 for repeal and 242,912 against. That meant she had instructed all of her 99 delegates to the state convention July 10 to vote for repeal.

New England Wet
From the start there had been no question about what New Hampshire and Connecticut would do. The former, with a light ballot and only one small town missing, voted 75,969 to 30,337 for repeal.

In like fashion, Connecticut gave a 6 to 1 majority to the twenty-first amendment, which repeals the 18th. Her final, unofficial total was 236,915 for repeal and 35,349 against.

With these three out of the way, Alabama and Arkansas provided the next major battleground. The pro and anti are concentrating on them, even though California and West Virginia do vote earlier, on June 27.

Dry figures that if they can hold two states this year, the question will be put over until 1934, when their chances will be better. Wets would like to win both Alabama and Arkansas, but agree that it will be close.

After these will come Tennessee, July 20; Oregon, July 21; Texas, August 20; Washington, August 29; Vermont, September 5; Maine, September 11; Maryland and Minnesota, September 12; Idaho and New Mexico, September 19; Arizona, October 3; North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and South Carolina, November 7; Nebraska and South Dakota will vote November 8, 1934.

RAILS MAY NOT ASK FURTHER CUT

The part of the railroad managers was not expected, the feeling was expressed that they will at least yield to the extent of waiving the 12 1/2 per cent additional reduction which they notified the union chiefs last week would become effective November 1.

One of the questions discussed at today's conference between Eastman and the management committee of the carriers was whether the status quo shall be maintained for six months from November 1, when the present agreement under which the railroad employees are working expires.

A cut of ten per cent became effective 18 months ago. Unless something is done wages automatically revert to the old and higher scale.

He was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Merlin Batley in several of his selections. He also explained by means of drawings on a black-board how sounds are formed and controlled by the throat.
