

BEER NOW LEGAL IN IDAHO; STATE TAX FEES FIXED

BOISE, Idaho, June 22 (AP) — Beer is legal in Idaho for the first time since 1915. Gov. C. Ben Ross yesterday signed two bills passed by a special legislative session, which provided for taxation of the 32 beverage as well as allowing its sale by refilling it as non-intoxicating. Both were emergency measures and were immediately effective.

flames when he was awakened about 12:30 a. m. He said he heard the children screaming and rushing outside, ran to the window of their bedroom and broke the glass but was unable to rescue them.

Bodies of the children were found side by side in their bed. There were holes burned in Coyne's trousers, his hands out and his shirt stained.

County Detectives Allingham and Sears said the skulls of both children were fractured, one severely. They said further investigation would be made to determine whether the injury was inflicted before or after the fire.

Penney Stores Show Nice May Sales Increase

Gross sales of the J. C. Penney company over the nation for May 1933 were $14,432,848.34 as against May 1932 sales of $12,945,443.94, according to word received by H. V. Laffel, local Penney store manager. This is an increase for the month of $1,787,404.40 or 14.13% — the largest percentage of increase shown by this company since April 1930.

Italy's Athletes Get Team Spirit

ROME (AP) — The Fascist will to win is credited here for Italy's good showing against a crack English association football team.

The score stood one to one after a heart-breaking battle in which neither the dogged Britons nor the brilliant Italians could break the impasse.

The Italian press hailed the final result as a "moral victory." "Not particularly a moral victory over the British team," the sports critics added, "but just another proof that Duce's stimulation of athletic discipline, courage and determination, has shown its advantages over the old, lethargic, luke-warm spirit of the past."

Getting down to particulars, many of the Italian sports writers emphasized what they believed to be a greater ability of Italian players to cooperate for the sake of the team. "This," said an anonymous critic in a leading Rome daily, "shows that Duce's hand is on the reins."

"Italian players have always stood out because of their swift, fiery, and brilliant individual work. Now they're learning to harness these qualities into effective team work."

METHODISTS HEAR STANLEY JONES IN PORTLAND SESSION

ference of the Methodist church entered its second day.

Dr. E. Stanley Jones, known throughout the world for his ministrations in India, urged each minister to seek further development in his field of religion. "The biography of many of you," he said, "could be written at this minute." He stressed the necessity of greater and more intelligent labor in the field of religion; of sincere endeavor to broaden one's scope in that field, and of the urgency of increasing one's opportunity to better serve the church.

Bishop Titus Lowe, in charge of the Pacific northwest area, derided what he called the "popularity itch" and spoke of it as the minister's "chief stumbling block."

He listed other "stumbling blocks," too, among them lack of tact and understanding, professionalism, lack of honorable ambition, negligence regarding the sacraments, inferiority or superiority complexes, and "pugnacity in non-essentials."

Dr. Doney, introduced by Bishop Lowe, predicted that men of the future will go to college to train themselves for the profitable use of leisure time. This, he said, would mean "the democratization of culture."

MITCHELL IS ACQUITTED OF CHARGES

report a payment of $666,666.67 from the National City company in 1929, and that he had made sham stock sales to make it appear that he had suffered such heavy income loss that he owed no tax in 1929 and 1930.

Jury instructed The jury which had been instructed that it could convict or acquit on all the charges together or could convict or acquit on any one, returned for instructions three times, once yesterday and twice today. It was at the conclusion of the third appearance of the jury in the courtroom that the verdict acquitting Mitchell on all counts was returned.

Mitchell leaped to his feet as he heard the words "not guilty" and grabbed the hand of Max D. Steuer, his counsel.

His eyes were filled with tears. With Steuer he left the courtroom while the jurors were still in the box.

Federal Judge Henry W. Goddard requested the jurors not to discuss the case publicly and dismissed them.

"I can't talk now—I'm too moved," Mitchell said as the crowd pressed around him as he left the courtroom.

THE DREADED CHANGE IN MIDDLE LIFE

Springfield, Oregon—When going thru the dreaded time of life I became rundown, sick and irritable — everything would bother me, I slept poorly and felt miserable, but three or four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restored me to perfect health, which I have enjoyed since," said Mrs. Ellen Frost of 215 C St. "For a tired and worn-out woman I know there is nothing so strengthening as Dr. Pierce's Prescription."
