

Portland Gains Ground; Beats Oakland

SENATORS BEATEN BY SEATTLE NINE AS BEAVERS WIN

Six-Run Splurge in Fifth Inning Gives Portland Team Edge Over Their Oakland Rivals.

By The Associated Press
Manager Earl McEvoy and his Sacramento Senators had had about enough twilight baseball today to last them the entire season. The Californians sampled the Seattle innovation for the fourth time last night and suffered their third defeat of the week, 11-0.

George Burns, the Indian manager-first baseman, assigned the pitching duties to Hal Haid and personally attended to the batting. With his 19th and 20th homers of the season and a pair of singles he led a 16-hit assault on Bryan Sanders and Noonan. Haid held the Senators listless in the first five innings and allowed only four singles in the final frames.

Portland Wins

Portland gained ground in the Coast league pennant race with a 9-8 win over Oakland after being carried to two extra innings. The Oaks led the count at 8-all with a 3-run rally in the eighth. After making ten errors Thursday, the Aorms fielded in sparkling fashion last night, with Scott's sensational catch preventing a Portland score in the ninth. Six singles and three walks gave the Beavers six runs in the fifth and sent Lou McEvoy to the showers.

After dropping three in a row, the Missions recovered at San Francisco last night to turn back Hollywood, 4-2.

Los Angeles made it four straight over San Francisco, 6-4, to shove the Seals deeper into the cellar.

Price of Bread To Go Up; Government Plans An Inquiry

DES MOINES, Iowa, July 1 (AP)—Chaiming that recent advances in wheat prices and the federal bread price tag made an increase in bread prices necessary, the Iowa Bakers' association Friday announced the price of a pound loaf of bread would be increased July 5 from 5 to 8 cents. The price for the 1 1/2 pound loaf will be raised from 10 cents to 12 cents.

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—The increase in bread prices announced in Iowa will be investigated by the farm act administration, after definite policies relating to studies of consumer costs have been formulated.

Wheat Growers To Be Paid $8,000,000

SPOKANE, Wash., July 1 (AP)—Washington wheat growers will be paid more than $8,000,000 on their 1933 crop under the federal crop control plan if all growers in the state take advantage of the act. Dr. M. L. Wilson, federal wheat administrator, told northwestern agricultural extension experts.

Rescue Expedition Sails For Alaska

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—The "Jimmie Matern" rescue expedition sailed away from Floyd Bennett field Friday for Alaska.

O. S. C. Coaching Staff Is Named By Carl Lodell

CORVALLIS, Ore., July 1 (AP)—Carl Lodell, director of athletics at Oregon State college, has announced the coaching line-up for the college in four major sports, football, basketball, baseball and track, for the coming season.

The staff is composed of Lon Stinner, Amory T. (Slata) Gill, Jim Dixon, Grant Swan and George Scott.

All with the exception of Swan and Scott were coaching here last year. Stinner heads the football coaching staff. He will be assisted by Dixon and Scott. Scott was coach of all sports at Baker High school the past four years.

Gill will be freshman football coach replacing Vern Eilers who has been elected coach at Baker High school. Gill will again be head varsity basketball and baseball coach.

Scott will coach the frosh baseball and basketball teams.

Swan, who was graduated from Oregon State in 1922, will relieve Stinner of the duties of head track coach. He also will be in charge of the training of all athletes and will be assisted in track by Dixon, frosh track coach here for the past two years.

BUTTERFAT GAINS IN SOME SECTIONS

PORTLAND, July 1 (AP)—Indicating the strength of the butter trade all through the Portland territory despite the fact that shipping interests were still holding Portland exchange values down, the fact that at some leading producing points there has recently been an advance of 1c in the buying price on butterfat.

These advances were being paid in the country and in spot by interests that have plants at Portland. No change was noted here, at least opening, although some reports suggested that secret advances of 1c have been made.

Demand for butter continued to absorb all offerings and accumulation during the last few days has been practically nil.

STOCKS STRONG AT CLOSE TODAY IN WALL STREET

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—Financial markets boomed over renewed inflationary fires today following administrative intimations that the dollar was still too high in terms of leading foreign exchanges. Stocks, with gains ranging from 1 to 3 or more points over a wide front, closed strong in active trading. Transactions approximated 3,000,000 shares.

With the revival of speculative enthusiasm, stocks were turned over in large volume from the opening on and the ticker tape was several minutes behind floor dealings throughout the session.

PENDLETON CHIEF CUTS BO'S HAIR

PENDLETON (Special)—"I've had a lot of things happen to me but the queerest thing I've ever heard of is having the chief of police cut my hair."

Chief of Police C. E. Lemons picked a clinder out of his clippers and looked at the speaker, Walter Carman, 27, whom he arrested for going around to various houses in town and asking for a nickel or a dime so he could get a hair cut. "You look much better now," he said, "go take a hot shower and shave yourself."

Carman, a transient who police say was told to get out of La Grande because he was working the same racket there of asking for money to get a hair cut, had (before being shorn) hair reaching to his shoulders and sticking out all over so that he looked like Buffalo Bill. The chief, who formerly held a state barber's license, cut off enough of Carman's hair to equal a fleece from a yearling sheep.

Housewives whom Carman had asked for money were frightened at his wild appearance and notified Chief Lemons, who decided that Carman would get a hair cut even if he didn't have any money. He took him down to the police station, set him on a barrel and clipped away for an hour before he was satisfied that enough hair was removed. The job was made harder because of the clinders which clogged the clippers.

Washington First To Own An Oil Well

George Washington was not only the father of his country, but one of the first, if not the very first oil-well owner of record in these United States.

This interesting fact was revealed by M. D. Leh, Oregon division manager of General Petroleum corporation, producers and marketers of the new General Four-Star gasoline. Quoting as his authority a survey made by the American Petroleum Institute, Leh stated that when the first president, in company with General Lewis, visited the wilds of Western Pennsylvania in 1753, he learned from the Indians of the existence of a flowing petroleum spring.

Recognizing its potential industrial importance even in those early days, George Washington acquired the spring and valuable oil-bearing lands in the vicinity. In his will he wrote: "This tract was taken up by General Lewis and myself on account of the bituminous spring which it contains, of so inflammable a nature as to burn as freely as spirits and is as nearly difficult to extinguish."

He listed it as his most valuable land holding.

BIG REVIVAL IN PORTLAND TRADE

PORTLAND, Ore., July 1 (AP)—A marked revival in Portland's foreign export and building trades, as compared with last month and June, 1932, was indicated by business indices Friday. The merchants' exchange said foreign exports had gained consistently since April.

Exchange figures showed a total value of June exports of $611,187. The figure for May was $520,783, and for June a year ago, $519,482. Normally the export trade declines sharply in April until movement of seasonal products begins in the fall.

Last month lumber exports abroad amounted to 15,347,980 feet; in June, 1932, they reached 14,803,736 feet, and this month the total was 20,180,000 feet.

Surgeon Dies But Delicate Surgery Is Not Stopped

NEW YORK (AP)—Suppose that during a delicate surgical operation, the surgeon should die?

Arnold Javitz, seven years old and a sufferer from spinal meningitis, was taken to the operating room of the Park East hospital. His condition was grave and the operation a delicate one. It involved the extraction of a fluid from the spinal column.

Present, in addition to nurses, were Doctors Arthur Shifrin, Aaron Goldblatt and Michael Mialig.

Dr. Goldblatt administered the anesthetic. Dr. Shifrin handled the needle. Dr. Mialig held the tube into which the fluid was drawn.

The needle had been inserted. The operation was under way. Seconds were precious.

Dr. Mialig staggered. He clutched his breast, and whispered: "My heart!"

A nurse caught him as he started to fall. His weight was too great. Both dropped to the floor.

On the operating table, unconscious from the anesthetic, lay a boy critically ill. Beside the table, on the floor, lay the 56-year-old surgeon who had been taking part in the operation.

The hands of the surgeon holding the needle continued to move surely. The medical skill of the other doctor concentrated on the patient's reaction to the anesthetic. A nurse functioned smoothly, expertly.

At last, it was done. And it was pronounced successful.

When the two surgeons bent over Dr. Mialig, joining others who had been summoned, they found him dead.

WOOL REPORT

BOSTON, June 1 (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin said today: "Demand for wool has been of fair proportions, everything considered this week. Prices have not been marked up materially but the trend of the market is against the buyer."

"Manufacturers are not pressing goods for sale any more. In fact, they are allotting deliveries and buyers are eager to get their commitments. Sales for the more remote months are not heavy. There is reluctance on the part of the manufacturer for the time being to quote far ahead, on account of the new processing taxes and the question of labor costs in the matter of wages and working hours."

The new clip is well cleared from the west, except for some wools which are held at prices that dealers now consider prohibitive.

"Foreign markets are very strong and for the week a bit higher once more. Advances of 15 to 25 per cent are predicted at London. Tuesday next, medium crossbreds being the strongest feature of the market."

The Bulletin also published the following quotations:
Scoured basis: Oregon: Fine and f. m. staple 70-72; fine and f. m. Fr. combing 67-69; fine and f. m. clothing 62-65; valley No. 1 63-65.

Lincoln Car Sales Up to New High

One indication of improved economic conditions is shown in the increase in sales of Lincoln motor cars, produced by the Lincoln division of the Ford Motor company.

Lincoln sales during the last 30 days have shown a steady increase, and for the last ten days of May were the largest in any ten-day period so far this year. The June production schedule has been advanced to care for increasing orders.

According to Mr. H. H. Wilcox, Seattle branch manager, Lincoln retail deliveries for Washington, Oregon, Northern Idaho, and Western Montana, as of the first six months of 1933, have approximated the entire 1932 volume of deliveries in this territory.

AGREEMENT NOT REACHED F. R. DECLARES

Sydney said the Australian states have agreed to restrict wheat exports. American sources interpreted this as meaning a better chance for an agreement to restrict acreage.

CAMPOBELLO ISLAND, N. B., July 1 (AP)—President Roosevelt said today no formal agreement has been reached on currency stabilization at the London economic conference. The comment was made prior to the president's departure for Washington aboard the cruiser Indianapolis.

PARIS, July 1 (AP)—France intends to remain at the world economic conference and fight for the gold standard regardless of the gold group's threat to walk out, it was declared after today's cabinet meeting.

NEW YORK, July 1 (AP)—The New York Times says the federal reserve bank and foreign central banks will put into operation plans for a temporary "steady" of the dollar in foreign exchange markets.

The paper in a copyrighted story, says the plans, designed to save the world economic conference, have been "definitely adopted" and will be carried out in such a way as to leave the domestic recovery program of the federal government free from restrictions.

The Southern Baptist convention has adopted a budget of $605,000 for foreign missions for the current year but estimates its income will not exceed $500,000.

DEFICIT FOR YEAR OVER A BILLION

WASHINGTON, July 1 (AP)—The government spent approximately $1,760,363,305 more than it collected in the fiscal year which ended Friday.

For the 12 months which ended a year ago, the deficit was $2,885,000,000 but the $1,760,363,305 shown today overshadowed the deficit two years ago, which was $903,000,000.

The treasury outgo thus has exceeded income for three consecutive fiscal years. In that period the public debt has mounted to approximately $22,000,000,000, the nearest approach to the peak of $26,596,701,648 since the 1923 year. The high point was August 31, 1919. It compared to a pre-war debt March 31, 1917, of $1,282,044,346, or less than the deficit for the present year.

The government, however, is hopeful that it will finally bring its budget into line before next June 30.
