Cove Now Leads In Union-Wallowa County Standings

League Standings

Name	W.	L.	Pct.
Cove	7	1	.875
Pleas. Grove Grange	6	1	.857
Island City	5	2	.714
Elgin	4	4	.500
La Grande	4	5	.444
Allice	1	8	.111

Teams in the Union-Wallowa county baseball league, idle on the Fourth of July, are making preparations this week for resumption of operations on new fronts next Sunday.

The Sunday schedule has not been announced but it is expected that all six teams will see action.

Last Sunday the Cove Cherry Pickers staged another one of their famous baseball-track meet exhibitions and moved into first place by wallowing Elgin 27 to 1. The Enterprise Chieftains dropped from the league, leaving the affair with but six teams, as when the season started. Imbler and Island City vacated.

The score of the Cove-Elgin game follows:

Score: R. H. E.
Cove 27 35 5
Elgin 1 6 4

Batteries: Cove—Hereford and Murchison, Alexander. Elgin—Barnhart, Knight, Ward and A. Philpen.

SWIM CLASSES ARE POSTPONED

Because of the death of Mr. Boerkgren, proprietor of the Cove swimming pool, no more Red Cross swimming classes will be held there this week. They will be resumed next Monday. Misses Myrtle Hoyt and Marguerite Klopfenstein are in charge of the classes.

A. B. CHERRY'S HAND INJURED
