Local Churches Give Programs For Worship Day

Pastor of Baptist Church Will Preach Junior Sermon; Many Interesting Sermons Planned.

Services in the La Grande churches next Sunday will include the following:

Baptist Church (Sixth and Spring)
The pastor will preach a junior sermon Sunday morning at the Baptist church. Special music will be furnished by the choir. The subject for the evening sermon will be "Promised Obedience." A song service will precede the sermon.
The young people will meet at 7:00. Their discussions are proving both interesting and instructive. The orchestra is giving excellent help.
The Bible school attendance is holding up well and the lessons for the present quarter should be interesting to both young and old. Superintendent Jordan's Bible drill is an interesting feature. Suitable classes will be provided for all and a cordial welcome awaits anyone not attending elsewhere.
Hours of services are: Morning worship, 11:00; evening worship, 8:00; young people's meeting, 7:00; Bible school, 9:45; Thursday evening prayer meeting, 8:00.

Presbyterian Church (Sixth and Washington)
Holy communion will be held Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock. A special feature of this particular memorial that he might establish a most intimate relationship between himself and his followers. At this service the minister, Rev. J. George Walz, will bring a message on "The Master's Hand." Mrs. S. B. Morgan, soprano, and Miss Corinne Baker, alto, will sing the duet "Take Me, O My Father," by E. P. Marks. Miss Gladys Miller will preside at the organ console.
At 9:45 the members and friends of the Bible school will meet for study and fellowship. A splendid devotional period precedes the study of the lesson. All ages are invited, classes for all having been organized and supplied with efficient teachers.
Young people meet at 6:30 p. m. to discuss a program arranged for the study of the deep meanings of life, problems that confront youth, and the best way to give service to the Lord and fellowmen. All are invited.

First Church of Christ, Scientist (First and Washington)
Services begin with Sunday school at 9:45 followed by morning service at 11 o'clock. The Wednesday evening meeting is at 8 p. m. The reading room in the West-Jacobson building is open from 1 to 4:30 p. m. daily.
The subject Sunday will be "Sacrament."
The golden text is, "The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?" (I Cor. 10:16).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he come" (I Cor. 11:26).
The lesson-sermon also includes the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "If all who ever partook of the sacrament had really commemorated the sufferings of Jesus and drunk of his cup, they would have revolutionized the world. If all who seek his communion through material symbols will take up the cross, heat the sick, cast out evils, and preach Christ, or Truth, to the poor,—the receptive thought,—they will bring in the millennium" (p. 34).

Zion English Lutheran Church (M avenue near Fourth)
Morning worship at 11:00 o'clock with a sermon by the pastor.
9:45. Communion service will be held. In the evening at 7:30 o'clock the sermon subject will be "Where Art Thou."
The young people meet at 6:45 p. m. with Lulu Moore as leader.
Mid-week meetings are held Wednesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock.
A special welcome is extended to all visitors in the city and those whose own church is now not having service.

Church of the Nazarene (On Y avenue at Birch)
"Why the Communion?" will be the subject of the pastor's sermon at 11 a. m. following Sunday school at 9:45. Communion service will be held. In the evening at 7:30 o'clock the sermon subject will be "Where Art Thou."
The young people meet at 6:45 p. m. with Lulu Moore as leader.
Mid-week meetings are held Wednesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock.
A special welcome is extended to all visitors in the city and those whose own church is now not having service.

DODGE DEALERS' SALES STILL SHOWING GAIN

The on and upward trend that has made Dodge dealers' retail sales an envied performance for 32 out of the 33 weeks composing the present Dodge selling season, has notched another all-around sales increase into the delivery totals of car merchants operating under the Dodge Brothers franchise.

During the week ending June 24, Dodge dealers made retail deliveries of 4908 passenger cars and trucks, compared with 4695 cars and trucks delivered during the preceding week, according to L. C. Smith, local dealer. Of the 4908 units delivered during the latest report week, 2334 were Dodge 6 and 8-cylinder passenger cars, and 540 were Dodge commercial cars and trucks. At the same time, Dodge dealers' share in the total sales of Plymouth standard and de luxe sixes for the week amounted to 2034 cars.

Sermonette

Edited by Harriet R. MacDonald

Set this house in order. In 38-1. We are living consciously, or unconsciously, on these three planes—sometimes illustrated by comparison with a three-story house. The first story—or plane—corresponds to the outward life in the world, its business requirements, pleasures, and social intercourse.
The second story corresponds to the love of helping one another, or what is known as Brotherly Love, which is on a higher plane than a natural, worldly one. This is truly spiritual living.
The third story corresponds to the highest form of love to the Lord together with a delight in giving our best service to Him and our fellow men. This is celestial living.
As the three stories of a house are connected by steps leading from the first through the second to the third story, so is the Bible written that individual need be met on each plane.
If one lives in the first story only, he does not realize the possibilities for better light and air by going to the second story, and of his own free will, he forfeits the pleasure and delight in the glorious view spread before him from the highest floor.
It is well to stop occasionally and see if we are spending all our time on the "first floor" and if so, at once have a general house-cleaning of all old, worn-out rubbish—thoughts and affections that are cluttering our stairway.

If we ever lend a book, we would like to lend it to a bootlegger. They never seem to keep any.—American

The Sunday School Lesson in Rhyme

CALEB
Joshua 14:6-14.
One of the twelve whom Moses sent
The Promised Land to view,
And its condition to present,
Was Caleb, bold and true.
He fully followed God's command,
And all his will obeyed;
And after searching out the land
A true report he made.
He saw the land so rich and fair,
With milk and honey blessed,
And saw the natives dwelling there—
The "giants" and the rest.
Of its delicious fruits he took:
Pomegranates rich to eat,
The luscious grapes from Eschol
brook,
And figs so large and sweet.
When he returned with fruits in hand,
With faith and courage strong,
He said, "Let us possess the land,
It shall to us belong!"
With life and health he long was blessed;
The giants he subdued,
And their stronghold he then possessed.
The land he first had viewed.

shop, and next door to this was his print shop.

The cloth paper is in a much better state of preservation than the average paper product would be after that long a time.

Now to get to the contents of the paper:
Lon Cleaver, La Grande dentist, had an advertisement in the front columns of the front page. He was the father of Kay Cleaver Strahan, the noted writer.

Under Mr. Cleaver's ad was a professional card of R. Eakin, attorney-at-law and notary public.

S. W. Aldrich and J. E. Foley advertised the La Grande brewery, manufacturer of ale, porter and lager beer. Gregg and Valance advertised the Bonanza brewery, located on the Main street of Summerville, Ore. There were numerous delivery wagon and lively stable advertisements.

The temperature, the Gazette said, was "102 yesterday."
The skating rink was doing a good business.

"The factory at Oro Dell is kept busy filling orders for dressed lumber."

Another item: "George Currey is trying to revolutionize fashion. We saw him going home the other day with his vest buttoned up on the outside of a linen duster. He is undoubtedly the dude of La Grande."

Still another item, which stated: "Each little town in this valley has its regular old settler organization, whose chief object in life appears to be to keep the town they live in back where they found it a quarter of a century before. . . . They have about the same ideas of the advance of civilization as an Indian who regards the encroachment of the white man from the ambush of the thicket, and would like to see every man of enterprise and thrift die of hog cholera, that they might live on and sizzle their whiskey undisturbed."

Elsewhere it told of the great need for a fire department, and there were many other interesting items too numerous to mention.

Present Prices On Tires Still Below Year 1926

"Since 1926 the trend of tire prices has been steadily downward and they are still 55 per cent below the point at which they were nine years ago, even with the two recent increases this year," says Foster Sims, of Fallant-Sims Co., local Goodyear dealers.

"But with the upward movement of general commodity prices, raw material prices, especially cotton and crude rubber which have shown sharp increases since April, tires may go higher."

"At any rate, tire prices are about the same level as they were a year ago, and my advice to those who are in the market is to buy now before prices go up again, since it is a foregone conclusion, in my opinion, that the present low point of 55 per cent below the 1926 figures will not continue long on a steadily rising commodity price market."
