Miss Friedman Weds Lee Temple

Of interest to many La Granders is the marriage of Miss Celeste Friedman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Friedman, of Portland, and Lee Temple, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Temple, of Pendleton, Ore., at St. Ignatius' church in Portland recently.

The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, wore a dress of ivory satin trimmed in rosepoint lace. Her long veil, bordered in matching lace, formed a cap and was caught at the neck with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

Her maid of honor, Estelle Lines, was dressed in pale pink chiffon with French lace hat and carried a large bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. The bridesmaids, Clara Thompson, Clatilde Richards, Dorothy Snodgrass and Frances Schetta, wore frocks of pastel shades of organdy with matching hats and carried colonial bouquets.

Verlan Friedman acted as best man. He wore a charcoal tuxedo and Paul Skinner, Mrs. Paul Skinner and Rodney C. Jones played the wedding music.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Temple left following the reception for a wedding trip to Chicago.

Eagles Sewing Club Will Meet

The Eagles Sewing club will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Riverside park it was announced today. The afternoon will be spent by the women in sewing and conversation and they will be joined by their husbands at 6 o'clock for a pot-luck dinner.

Ever-Ready Class Enjoys Picnic

The annual picnic of the Ever-Ready class of the Christian church was held Sunday with 60 present to enjoy the games and picnic dinner. Services were conducted in the morning by Rev. Paul De F. Mortimore and the afternoon was turned over to games arranged by the class president, Vernon De Long.

Miss Annetta Johnson is teacher of the group.

Entertain For Mrs. Lee Houston

STORM HITS EAST OREGON AREA SUNDAY

down at one time, followed by light hail.

Up near Kamela, motorists reported a heavy hail and a very heavy rain, although a short distance away no precipitation occurred.

In general, in La Grande, the rain was welcomed by people with gardens and lawns in need of water.

The maximum temperature yesterday was 82. The storm caused a drop in the temperature and the maximum last night was 49 above, the coolest for several days. The sky was clear this morning and a warm day was in prospect.

STORM HITS PENDLETON

PENDLETON, July 10 (AP)—An electrical and rain storm swept over this region last night, following a wind gust storm in the late afternoon. The rain lowered the temperature considerably and cleared the dust-laden atmosphere. Sunday's maximum temperature was 90 degrees.

CENTRAL OREGON DRENCHED

BEND, Ore., July 10 (AP)—Lightning, heavy hail and a cloudburst descended on interior Oregon Sunday. Just as summer was getting a good start. Lightning struck a power line plunging Bend in darkness and hail fell to a depth of several inches in various places.

The lightning scored again during the day, when it struck a sawmill here, putting motors out of commission and setting fire to a lumber yard.

LAST OF EAGLES' PROGRAM TONIGHT

Winners in the weekly Eagles broadcast programs will vie tonight for a trip to Portland and an opportunity to broadcast over leading Portland stations. The finals will be held at 8 o'clock this evening at the Eagles hall, and a large crowd is expected by Arthur Bremer and Roy Case who are in charge of the event. From 500 to 600 have packed the hall on the weekly program nights and a larger crowd is expected tonight.

Contestants will be Gene Gassett and Bert Wardell, singing and guitar; Betty Jean and Joyce Hendrickson, singing; Rolin Gowan, of Egin, singing and guitar; Dorothy and Virginia Campbell, tap dancers; Blue Mountain Cowboys; Maude Slack, singing and yodeling; from Egin; Elmore Mattoon, singing and guitar; Vivian and Madeline Gallagher, piano duet; Babe Miles, of Portland, singing.

Other numbers arranged to complete the program are: violin and guitar duet by Del Brown and Bill Bennett; mouth harp played by Mr. Rippey; guitar and harp duet by Gerry Galbraith and Ralph Looker.

The microphone in the hall has been perfected to increase the volume and make the numbers distinct throughout the hall.

Those appearing on the program are asked by Mr. Bremer to be at the hall by 7:45 o'clock.

SIX MEMBERS OF C. E. HERE VISIT BAKER

Six members of the executive committee of the Grande Ronde Christian Endeavor drove to Baker Sunday where they met with four members from Baker to make plans for the fall conference. The meeting will be held during the second week in September at Baker, it was decided. Albert Hermann, of Baker, was elected regional vice president for the weekly program nights and a larger crowd is expected tonight.

Those making the trip from La Grande were Miss Hulda Anderson, Miss Kathryn Moran, Miss Francis Kelly, Miss Mildred Stoddard, Miss Florence Nelson and Eldridge Huffman.

PRICE OF FLOUR UP $1.40

PORTLAND, July 10 (AP)—The price of flour was up $1.40 per barrel today and millers will lose instead of making money at the advance. This was due to the fact that the new government tax of $1.38 per barrel with 2 cents added for cash discount, was effective. Millers were forced to add the tax to their former price, forcing the best family patent to $7.60 per barrel in the wholesale trade.

OMAHA SHEEP
OMAHA, July 10 (AP)—(U. S. D. A.)—Sheep: 7,500; lambs weak; native lambs up to $7.75; best range lambs held above $8.00; ewes $1.00 @ $2.00.

More than a dozen research projects and surveys are being pushed by the department of agriculture in its efforts to find additional uses for cotton.
