Mrs. C. H. Cleaver Inspiration For Charming Party Given by Mrs. Warren Gilbert

Mrs. C. H. Cleaver, formerly of this city, who, with Mr. Cleaver, was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gilbert was the inspiration for a charming afternoon event at which Mrs. Gilbert entertained yesterday at 3:30 o'clock at her home. Mr. and Mrs. Cleaver left today for Spokane where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. E. F. McFadden, former La Grander, before returning to their home in Moscow, Idaho.

Women's Golf Team Is Given Dinner

In recognition of their victory in the recent team match play for women at the La Grande country club, Mrs. Herman Siegrist and her team were feted at dinner last night at 7 o'clock at the club house. Mrs. F. E. Lanzer, captain of the losing team, was chairman of the dinner and was assisted by Mrs. L. K. Kinsel, Mrs. H. E. Dixon, Mrs. A. W. Nelson, Mrs. W. C. Perkins and Mrs. J. E. Woodell.

K. D. Club Meets At Pine Cone

A potluck lunch was one of the enjoyable features of the K. D. club meeting Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Pine Cone. The lunch was served at the close of an afternoon of conversation and a short business session.

Miss Sarah Wendt became a member of the club Wednesday. The next meeting also will be held at Pine Cone—at 2 o'clock on July 26.

Parkdale Club Meets Wednesday

A large group of members and visitors enjoyed the meeting of the Parkdale club Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Riverside park. Mrs. Joe Carpenter, president, was in charge of the business session after which an informal afternoon was spent in conversation.

Guests of the club were Mrs. Klein and daughter, Aleda, of Fruitdale, Mrs. Alice Hiatt, Miss Lucille Thacker, Mrs. Ella Byrneson, Mrs. A. J. O'Donnell, of Duluth, Minn.

Riverside Park Site of Party

Riverside park was the scene of an informal social affair Wednesday when the 80-Ne-He club met at 2 o'clock. After the business meeting the afternoon was spent playing busco and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Lena Harmon, high, and Mrs. Clyde Sullivan, consolation.

Presented at Britain's Court

Miss Henrietta Worth Bingham of Louisville, Ky., daughter of the American ambassador to London, is shown here in the gown in which she was presented at the last royal court of the season in Buckingham Palace. The gown is in rich rose petal crinkled satin, cut on graceful lines to the figure.

Much Interest In Coming "Wedding"

A "marriage" of interest to this community is the Tom Thumb wedding to be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock, sponsored by the primary department of the First Ward L. D. S. church at the tabernacle. Miss Barbara Jane Webb, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. N. Clark Webb will be cast in the role of the bride, with Peter Russell, son of Mrs. Myrtle Russell, as the bridegroom. Other tiny tots who will form the wedding party are Sally Knight, maid of honor; Duane Gilmore, best man; Laura Lee Warnock and Lorna Leffel, bridesmaids; Patricia Ruth Burns, ring bearer; Nona Larson and Alta Baker, flower girls. John Bean and Gordon Barnwell will be ushers and

18TH GRANGE PICNIC TO BE ON SATURDAY

10 o'clock in the morning when the annual tour of the station will be held, lasting until noon. Prof. George R. Hyalop, of the farm crops department of the Oregon State college, will have charge of the tour, and will discuss the different grains, fertilizers, crop rotation, etc., as the several projects are visited.
Immediately following the tour, Prof. P. M. Brandt, of the dairy department of the college, will give a talk in the grove on various phases of the dairy industry, including the feeding of dairy cows.
Judging Contest Planned
During the day, there also will be a judging contest, contestants to judge the highest producing cow from the three selected from the station herd. Superintendent Dale E. Richards, is offering three prizes. The first will be a sack of the new wheat which has been developed at the station and which during the past seven years has consistently outyielded Fremont by five bushels to the acre. The second prize will be a sack of improved Victory oats seed, which has been the highest yielding oats this year. The third prize will be a sack of Union Bearless barley.

Basket Dinner at Noon
A basket dinner is to be served at noon, with larger or smaller groups making their own arrangements. Coffee and ice cream are to be furnished by the station.
Frank Wright, of near Alsea, master of the Union County Pomona Grange is general chairman for the day, and Mrs. B. G. Cusick, of North Powder, Pomona lecturer, is arranging the program to be given in the afternoon. There are to be a number of interesting features, including some special musical numbers. The Union Wagonettes are to appear among others.
Through the issuance of funding bonds, Montana was able to go on a cash basis in May, says State Treasurer James J. Brett.
