Steamer-Bridge Luncheon Enjoyed Monday Afternoon By Members Of The Sorosis Club

A delightful steamer-bridge luncheon was enjoyed yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. T. Richardson by members of the Sorosis club. The entertainment for the afternoon symbolized an ocean voyage complimenting Mrs. Guy Ellis who expects to spend the fall months in Europe.

The members were seated at a large table in the dining room for luncheon. The centerpiece was a miniature ship, an heirloom, suggestive of the Aquitania on which Mrs. Ellis will sail for Europe on Aug. 1. The ship was lighted with small candles. The favors were tiny brown steamer bags filled with candy, and six small sail boats containing limericks on Home, London, Paris, Florence, Lucerne, all cities in Mrs. Ellis' itinerary through the continent. The limericks were read during the luncheon.

Three tables were arranged for bridge, each of which was named for a large ocean liner. The score pads and tally cards also were decorated with boats.

At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Ellis was presented with a travel diary.

Hotel Advertisises, And Business Gains

SAN FRANCISCO (Special) — Room sales during May and June at Hotel Sir Francis Drake, the largest user of newspaper advertising space among Pacific coast hotels, not only showed a gain of 20 per cent over May-June 1932 but even a gain of 3 per cent over May-June 1931, according to Edward M. Kennedy, assistant manager in charge of advertising and publicity.

"This is the first time our room sales were ever greater than during the same period two years previous," Kennedy stated. "Especially significant, too, is the 20 per cent gain this year over last year. Most important of all, however, is the fact that even our cash revenue from room sales during June this year was 2 1/2 per cent greater than last year—the first time our room revenues were ever greater than the year before."

Doug Visited Her

While telegraph wires burned with the news of his impending separation from Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks was reported to have visited Lady Ashley, above, ill in a London hospital. Formerly Sylvia Hawkes, she was a leading actress on the English stage.

FIRST BATCH OF NEW BILLS GIVEN TODAY

cured what will be their total issue of $100,000 of the new notes with government bonds, deposited with the treasury at Washington, D. C. Banks are allowed to issue these notes, backed by the government bonds, up to the amount of the bank's capitalization. The local bank receives the benefit of interest which these government bonds draw while on deposit with the treasury department. The balance of the $100,000 to be issued in name of the local bank is expected to arrive in allotments over the next few weeks and will be put into circulation here.

An interesting item in connection with the receipt of this first money here is a communication received by the local bank from a nationally known collector of paper money, George H. Blake, of Jersey City, N. J. Blake offers the local bank, and which offer has been accepted, a premium of $7.50 on the first sheet of five dollar bills; a premium of $6.00 on the first sheet of ten's, and $5 premium on the first sheet of 20's.

The bills carry the likeness of Abraham Lincoln on the fives, Alexander Hamilton on the tens and Andrew Jackson on the twenties.

SEES LIFE ON MARS

Declaring that recent observations on Mars favor the existence of life on that planet, Dr. V. M. Slipher, distinguished London astronomer, says that if a rocket ship, or other form of interplanetary locomotion existed, he would not discourage an attempt to reach Mars.
