Mrs. George Stoddard Is Complimented at Entertainment Held at Mt. Emily Summer Home

Mrs. George Stoddard, who recently returned from Salt Lake City where she spent the past month after enjoying the winter at Stanford university, Cal., which her son, Robert, was attending, was complimented at a dinner party when her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David I. Stoddard, entertained at their summer home on the foot of Mt. Emily last evening.

Prizes at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Harry Dow, first, and Mrs. Jack Hlatt Sr., second. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Howard Glenn and Mrs. W. E. McCure.

Juveniles Enjoy Picnic at Park

Thirty-four enjoyed the picnic held by Mt. Emily circle, No. 70, Neighbors of Woodcraft Juveniles yesterday at Riverside park. Dinner was served at one o'clock after which the juveniles enjoyed a swim. Ice cream was served at 4 o'clock.

Bridge Luncheon At Riverside Park

A delightful bridge luncheon was enjoyed by the members and guests of the L. A. L. club yesterday afternoon at one o'clock at Riverside park. A no-hostess luncheon was served at small tables placed under the trees and decorated with centerpieces of sweet peas and baby breath.

Pinocle Party Held Wednesday

Six tables were arranged for pinocle last night when the Women of the Moose enjoyed a no-hostess card party at the home of Dr. Mary Mayville. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Winifred Cass and Charles Spivey, first, Mrs. Mary Hofmann and Harry Sittler, consolation.

James Carter Weds Esther Haskins

Of interest to their La Grande friends was the marriage in Walla Walla on Tuesday of James Carter, of La Grande, and Esther Haskins, of Miles City, Mont. Miss Haskins is a sister of Tom Haskins, of La Grande, and Mr. Carter is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Carter, who have been residents of this city for almost 30 years. They were married by Rev. Mr. Shangle, former district superintendent of the Methodist Church, South with headquarters in La Grande.

Group Gathers For Picnic

A group of former La Grande High school students gathered at Pine Cone Thursday for a picnic luncheon and a pleasant afternoon of conversation. Some also enjoyed swimming.

Evelyn Gullman, Miss Besie Andrews, Mrs. Myrtle Chardier and two children, Miss Melba Hanks, Mrs. Margaret Reavis, Mrs. Jean Morris and son, of Tacoma, who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Ed Workman; Mrs. Clyde Webb and daughter, of Portland, who are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Ananes; Mrs. Avis Ferris, Miss Hulda Anderson, Miss Marguerite Klippenstein and Miss Myrtle Hoyt.

Complete Series Of Bridge Parties

A lovely one o'clock luncheon completed the series of bridge parties which have been enjoyed by the members of the Ah Deith club, Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. B. Donohue. A centerpiece of cut garden flowers decorated the table.

Summer Session Dance Tomorrow

The summer session dance at the Eastern Oregon Normal school will be an event of tomorrow evening at the Normal school ball room, with students and former students invited. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock with music furnished by Lindsay's orchestra. The affair will be informal.

WHEN YOUR DAUGHTER COMES TO WOMANHOOD

Most girls in their teens need a tonic and regulator. Give your daughter Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for the next few months. Teach her how to guard her health as this critical time. When she is a happy, healthy wife and mother she will thank you.

Look at the luxury of this English Lounging Chair—also imagine how much more comfort is added by the upholstered ottoman or foot stool. You may now have both of these pieces at what you ordinarily pay for a straight occasional chair at normal prices. These have tufted pillow backs and are covered in attractive tapestries of the newest colors in Rust, Green, or Taupe.

Many Others to Choose From Also—

Here is another special offer. Three only club chairs without footstools. These are attractive tapestry covered chairs but are not so soft as some of the others that are more money. However, you should like these at this price.	$13.95	If you need a larger chair, this style should be very suitable. The chair has a very high back and is also of the wing-back style. Coverings are in your choice of home-spun tapestries of the newest coverings. Ottoman to match may be had for $3.75.	$19.75
Perhaps you priced club chairs and lounge chairs two years ago. If you did, you could have seen this same type of chair in many stores at $59.50. This is one of the largest and most comfortable of chairs. Complete with ottoman at	$29.75	Two other new arrivals are being shown in Silk Tapestry covering, your choice of green or rust. A splendid feature of these are the Knay's Sag Webb Construction with adjustable fixtures to insure a good solid frame for many years. These are attractive values at	$29.50
