For evil doers shall be cut off; but those that wait upon the Lord, they shall inherit the earth.—Psalm 37: 9.

STARTING A RACKET

The voters of various states will soon determine whether or not the Eighteenth Amendment will be repealed. States which have acted upon the question thus far have favored the rescission of the Prohibition Amendment.

Congressman Celler, an anti-prohibition Democrat from New York, says that the supply of whiskey in this country is insufficient if the demand is released and that there will be a world shortage in supplies when the American demand becomes effective.

Representative Celler does not like the prospects of a greedy trust raising the prices for its own profits and he says: "I know that an effort is being made to create a monopoly in whiskey production, and the wets of congress will not stand for it."

FAR FROM CURED

The American people are being given the chance this summer to make one of the most colossal mistakes imaginable. Business is reviving more rapidly than we had thought possible.

Our chance to make a mistake lies simply in this: because things are picking up so rapidly, we may conclude that the alterations which have been outlined for our inherited economic framework are unnecessary.

According to the classical theories of economics, that is precisely what ought to happen. But already it is becoming evident that unless our industrial machine is held under strict and intelligent control, we shall merely be gathering momentum for a new plunge into the ditch.

The successful working of our traditional system depends entirely on the impetus supplied by the profit motive. In the last few weeks the profit motive has impelled industry to adopt certain tactics which must inevitably betray any recovery which is made.

Retail prices are rising faster than wages. Production is outstripping employment. Manufacturers are hurrying to pile up surplus stores of goods before higher wages go into effect.

Now these developments do not indict the individuals responsible; they indict the traditional economic system under which these individuals have to operate. They reveal in it flaws which must be fatal unless they are corrected.

The test of Mr. Roosevelt's greatness will rest upon the pocketbook balance of the average American citizen in 1936.

Newspaper publishers would like to catch the guy who started the idea it doesn't cost anything to print a newspaper.

THE OPEN COURT

CORRESPONDENTS MUST SUBMIT THEIR NAMES TO THE EDITOR IF THEY DESIRE LETTERS PRINTED.

To the Open Court: In regard to articles in the forum of the Observer by Mr. Ruby, I wish to offer some comment. While it is true, as he charges that many members of the railroad brotherhoods are working excessive hours or milks while most of their members are out of work, this is in the exception rather than the rule.

Do the millions who are thrown out of a livelihood by the machine, place the blame where it rightly belongs? In most cases, no, they are bewildered and I will venture to say that ninety per cent of them have embraced and advocated a political and economic system of which they are now the victims.

Eight mills were down and woods camps were closing as the strike entered its second week.

SOCIETY NOTES

Miss Jean Frazier Selected As Queen of 1933 Round-Up At Pendleton, Oregon

A real Round-Up daughter whose father was on the Round-Up board before she was born, has been chosen queen of the 1933 Pendleton show, September 21, 22 and 23.

She is Miss Jean Frazier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Frazier. Mr. Frazier having been a member of the Round-Up board when it originated 24 years ago. Then, as now, he was director of grounds, and is today the only original member still serving on the board.

Queen Jean was born and reared in Pendleton and is of such charm that ever since she was a baby she has been mentioned as a prospective queen of the Round-Up.

She is nineteen. "We've just been waiting for her to grow up," said the directors when they chose her to wield the scepter at this year's show.

Her Highness is now nineteen; she has a lovely smile; sparkling brown eyes and dark hair (its wave is one of those secured from a fairy godmother and not from a beauty shop); she likes to ride and golf and swim. Queen Jean was graduated from the high school in Pendleton and has just completed her sophomore year at the University of Oregon where she is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Besides the Queen, there will be more Round-Up royalty, for Queen Jean is to choose four princesses. Queen and attendants will ride in all Round-Up parades.

Miss Frazier has been a frequent visitor in La Grande as the guest of Miss Sally Sleight, both young women being members of the same sorority at the University of Oregon.

Episcopal Guild Meets Wednesday St. Peter's Guild, of the Episcopal church, will hold business session Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the chapel, it was announced today.

Eagles And Families Picnic Fifty Eagles and their families enjoyed the weiner roast and picnic held Sunday afternoon at Starkey bridge. Games were held before and after dinner.

Mrs. Esther Hildebrand and Mrs. Pearl Patt were in charge of the event. The Eagles auxiliary will meet in regular session Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the hall.

On such trips is necessary. Steve gets' exactly nowhere. Mr. Roosevelt has succeeded very well so far in this respect. The cruise that he made with his sons in the yacht immediately following his election was almost wholly free from close-up news. And when it is considered that he had just won such a smashing victory, the fact that he could so completely detach himself from the public is all the more remarkable.

The same thing was true when he went cruising in Florida waters just before his inauguration. At a time when the nation and the world were awaiting announcements of cabinet selections and future presidential policies, he managed to hide himself almost completely at sea.

Nothing Stops Him Those who have known Mr. Roosevelt for years marvel at his ability to get so completely away from the things that engage his attention. It requires a certain daring to leave the White House for a vacation cruise as he did this last time, with the London economic conference in session and the vast relief agencies at home just being set up.

But he sailed away with his sons, apparently detached from the whole scene. Actually, of course, he was in contact when he desired. His ability to do such things has helped to preserve his health and strength. And what that power may mean to him as the burdens of the presidency continue to pile up on him cannot be foretold.

DAVID KAHAN, once wealthy real estate dealer of Brooklyn, was missing today and relatives feared he was held by kidnapers who do not know that he is no longer well-to-do.

WRAP-AROUND NEGLIGEE Offers Cool Comfort BY CLAUDETTE It's inviting - this dainty negligee of printed silk. The graceful garment enfolds the figure in wrap-around fashion, held at the waist with tie-ends of contrasting material.

Not only is the wrap-around becoming to most figures, but it assures coolness and comfort during the warm summer mornings when Millady chooses to indulge her languid self in dressing later in the day.

A particularly flattering feature is the gently flared cape which forms elbow-length sleeves, set in at the front in raglan style. Five yards of material will make the garment with one-half of a yard for trimming. Patterns can be obtained in standard sizes from 14 to 44.

To obtain a pattern of this garment, with instructions for making, send 20 cents, coin if possible, to Claudette, 100 North Broadway, Los Angeles, Cal. Don't forget to state your size.

Menus Of The Day

MENUS - Woman's page By Mrs. Alexander George A PICNIC (Serving Eight) Baked Ham Vegetable Salad Pickled Beets Buttered Rolls Plum Jelly Peach Ice Cream Chocolate Cake Coffee Milk for the Children

Baked Ham 10 pound ham. 4 quarts cold water. 2 bay leaves. 2 onion slices. 12 whole cloves. Thoroughly wash ham, add rest of ingredients. Cover with lid and cook very slowly 4 hours or until ham is tender when tested with fork. Remove ham from stock and cool until it can be handled, then remove excess fat and cut off rind. Pit ham, fat side up, in small roaster. Cover with sugar mixture.

Sugar Mixture 18 whole cloves. 1 cup dark brown sugar. 1 cup spiced peach juice. Stick cloves in ham, spread with sugar and add juice. Bake 20 minutes in hot oven. Cover with lid and bake 15 minutes. Serve ham hot or cold.

If spiced peach juice is not available, use water to which 2 tablespoons of vinegar has been added. Any fruit juice will give a delicious flavor to the ham. Chocolate Cake 1/2 cup butter. 1 1/2 cups sugar. 3 eggs. 1 cup milk. 1 teaspoon vanilla. 1/2 teaspoon salt. 2 1/2 cups flour. 3 teaspoons baking powder. Cream butter and sugar. Add rest of ingredients, beat 2 minutes. Pour into 2 layer cake pans lined with waxed paper. Bake 20 minutes in moderate oven. Cool and frost. Chocolate Frosting 2 squares chocolate. 2 cups sugar. 1 cup milk. 2 tablespoons butter. 1 teaspoon vanilla. 1/2 cup cocoa. Boil, stirring frequently, the chocolate, sugar, milk and butter. When soft ball forms when portion is tested in cup of cold water, remove from the fire and let stand 15 minutes. Add vanilla and beat frosting until thick and creamy. Frost cake. To smooth icing when placed on a cake use knife dipped in warm water.

Store parsley in a covered fruit jar and place in the icebox. It will keep fresh for a week.
