PORTLAND JUST HALF GAME BACK OF FIRST PLACE

By The Associated Press

A bare half game separated Sacramento from Portland today after a week in which the four leaders battled each other for the top spot in the Coast league pennant drive.

Los Angeles took four out of seven games from the Senators to climb to within three games of the pace setters, while Portland captured its series with Hollywood, 4-3.

After being beaten 6-1 Saturday by Dick Ward, the circuit's leading hurler, Sacramento came back to win both ends of yesterday's doubleheader from Los Angeles, 6-4 and 6-5.

Shaded 4-3 by the Stars Saturday, Portland recovered yesterday to win its twin bill with Hollywood, 8-6 and 4-3. Art Jacobs' great relief twirling gave the Beavers the opener and Rudy Kallio's steady pitching the nightcap. First Sacker Ray Jacobs of the Stars hit a four-bagger in the second game.

Winning two of its three weekend games with Oakland, San Francisco handed the Oaks a 5-2 series shellacking. The Seals took the Saturday game, 3-1, and walked off with the first game yesterday, 11-0. Bill Ludolph blanked the Seals 4-0 in the short nightcap.

Seattle captured both ends of its Sunday twin bill with the Missions 4-1 and 5-2, to take the series, 4-3. The Reds came out ahead in the Saturday twilight meetings, 8-2.

Three days a week are set aside in one of San Francisco's municipal courts as Chinese days in which all of the defendants are of that race.

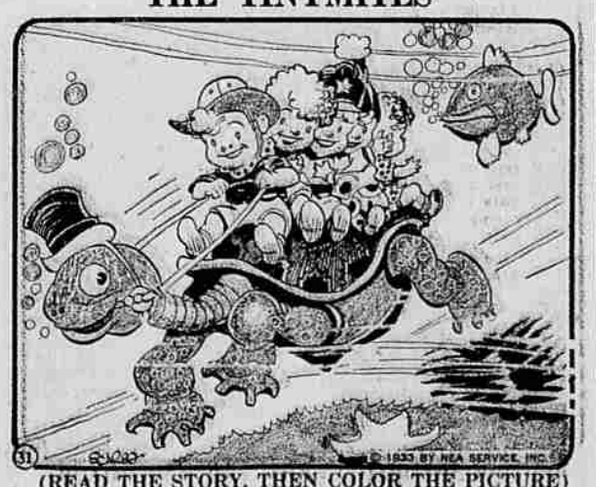
THE TINYMITES



(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

THE Tinies hadn't traveled far till Scouty said, "I think we are real foolish to be walking, when we could have a ride.

"'Course Duncy's trip is easy. He thinks he's as smart as he can be to let a balloon fish pull him. He won't have a tired out hide.

"And Coppy, too, is getting aid. It won't be long, though, I'm afraid, until the fish grow all tired out. 'Tis best to let them go.

"Behind a rock I see a sight that ought to help us out, all right. It is a great big turtle. It can carry us, I know."

• • •

"YOU'RE right," cried Shrimpy. "Catch it, quick! Then we can promptly pull the trick of letting it hold all of you upon its spreading back.

"Its shell is not exactly flat, but you can stand up straight, at that. We'll let wee Dotty drive it. She will need no whip to crack.

"The turtle will do as I say and shortly you'll be on your way."

Then Scouty cried, "I have it! Why, it really seems quite tame."

"Gee, will we hurt it?" Goldy said. "Don't anyone step on its head. If anything should happen to it, we will be to blame."

• • •

"HA, ha," laughed Shrimpy. "You're so small, you cannot hurt that thing at all. Why, it could carry twice the weight of every Tinymite.

"Its shell is hard and very thick. All right, now, hop on! It is no trick to stand up on a turtle, if you keep your balance right."

The Tinies did as they were told and Windy said, "I'll grab a hold of anyone who's near me. Then I know I'll be all right."

Wee Dotty grabbed the reins and cried, "All right, we're ready for our ride." The turtle started on its way. It was a funny sight.
