Miss Anne Stange Complimented At Bridge Luncheon Wednesday At The L. K. Kinzel Home

Miss Anne Stange, whose marriage to George William Decker, of Los Angeles, will be solemnized on Thursday, Aug. 24, was complimented at a bridge luncheon for which Mrs. L. K. Kinzel entertained yesterday afternoon at her home. Luncheon was served at one o'clock.

Prices at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Leo B. Bouvy, first, Miss Stange, second, and Mrs. John Larson, consolation.

The guest of honor also was presented with a gift.

Guests for the afternoon were Miss Anne Stange, Mrs. Aug. J. Stange, Miss Jane Stange, Mrs. G. L. Larson, Mrs. John Larson, Mrs. Oscar Warrick, Mrs. Fred Lanier, Miss Gladys Ahlby, Mrs. Herman Siegler, Mrs. Francis Greulich, Mrs. John Ormand and Mrs. Leo B. Bouvy.

Announcements have been issued for the wedding which will be held at 8 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church in La Grande. A reception will follow the ceremony immediately at the Stange home.

Hillard Robertson Weds Harriet Potter

Miss Harriet M. Potter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Potter, of Astoria, became the bride of Hilliard M. Robertson, of La Grande, son of Mrs. Nellie Robertson, on Saturday, Aug. 5, at a quiet wedding at the Potter home. Rev. D. J. Ferguson, of the First Presbyterian church of Astoria, read the nuptial vows.

Mrs. Fred M. Potter was matron of honor and Merton Potter, brother of the bride, was best man for Mrs. Robertson.

Following the service a bridal luncheon was held for members of the immediate families after which the young couple left for La Grande where he is employed in the state highway department.

Miss Potter was graduated from the Astoria High school in 1929 and Mr. Robertson was graduated from the High school here the same year. They both attended the Northwest School of Commerce in Portland where they met. Mrs. Robertson has been employed at the Columbia hospital at Astoria for the past two years.

Crystal Rebekah Lodge in Meeting

At the meeting of Crystal Rebekah lodge No. 50 last night the Odd Fellows hall two teams were chosen, one representing the green and the other the pink, to conduct a contest. The purpose of the contest is to determine which can obtain the greater number of points for the lodge by the end of the present year.

Plans also were made for activities on Sept. 20 but announcement will be made later.

May Marriage Is Announced

Announcement has just been made of the marriage of Miss Dorothy Taylor and Dennis Patch which took place last May. Both have many friends in La Grande having visited here several times. The marriage was solemnized in Salem.

Mr. Patch has been attending summer session at Oregon State college.

Mr. and Mrs. Patch were members of the faculty of the union high school in Halfway last year and he has been elected to teach English there again this fall. Mrs. Patch was secretary of the Y. W. C. A. in Baker before accepting a teaching position in Halfway in 1931.

Annette Hoskins Weds in Portland

Miss Annette Hoskins, daughter of Mrs. Jessie A. Hoskins, of Baker, and a well known musician now studying in the Ellison-White conservatory in Portland, was married to John Stewart, Portland druggist, at Vancouver, Wash., Saturday, according to word received here. They will make their home in Portland and Mrs. Stewart will continue her work at the conservatory.

Mrs. Stewart is an accomplished pianist and has appeared a number of times in La Grande.
