FORAGE LANDS DRYING, REPORT

WALLOWA (Special) — Tumbling cream prices and short, dry forage conditions are causing considerable reduction in cream checks for producers here. Dairy herds on dry pastures have fallen off greatly. Even with feeding hay in many instances it is difficult to secure gain in production. Many acres of rye and fall wheat were seeded for summer pastures in late spring, but with the long spell of dry weather the most of this has been wanted short and dried up for want of moisture. The rains of the past week should help in greening up the feed. Valley farmers are using their hay meadows for pasture purposes.

4-H Club Notes

The Imbler 4-H Sheep club held its tour of inspection and demonstration Monday, the members, with the local leader, Frank McKennon, and the county agricultural agent, Harry G. Avery, meeting at the home of Clayton Fox at Imbler. From there, they proceeded to Harold Bingham's where Howard's sheep were seen, then to Josephine Fisher's on Lower Cove, on to Bobby Pierce's at Hot Lake, back to Bob Huron's on Brooks Lane. At this place, Bob and Parrell Skillings gave a fitting demonstration. Another trip will be taken next Monday when places in the Summerville vicinity will be visited. Those who made the trip this week were: Clayton Fox, Parrell Skillings, Charles Koyas, Howard Bingham, Jack and Jim Loid, Bobby Pierce, Dean Johnston, Josephine Fisher, Frank McKennon, H. G. Avery, Loyal Crouser, and Bob Chester, of Klamath Falls, who is visiting Clayton.

DROUGHT DAMAGES CROPS

INSECTION OF OKLAHOMA ENID, Okla. (AP) — One of the worst droughts in Oklahoma history has left the "panhandle" and a few other counties in the western part of the state seared and almost destitute.

Sandstorms, some of which were so dense as to halt traffic and bring darkness in mid-afternoon, buried crops in fields early in the season. Heat and drought completed the work of damage to panhandle crops and pastures.

Florida is wet, topographically — it has 30,000 lakes.

type of beef calves desired were pointed out and discussed with the junior Hereford steer belonging to Jean Ann Richards.

A potluck dinner was held in the grove at the experiment station after which the drive was made to the home of Clyde Kiddle Jr., to see his Shorthorn steer and heifer. The next stop was at Truman Irwin's where his junior Hereford steer and Hampshire hogs were seen. Four Hereford steers belonging to Alfred, Herbert, Wilbur, and Gene Blokland made a splendid class for judging and weight guessing at the Blokland ranch. Two Hereford calves, a junior and senior, belonging to Margaret and Harold Zurbrick were seen after which the drive was made to Clayton Fox where his senior Hereford steer and sheep were seen. The last stop was at June Conrad's, to see her junior Shorthorn steer.

The next meeting is to be held Aug. 18, Friday evening at the Blokland ranch.

Easy Bean Dishes

WE might as well admit it. We're all looking for easy ways and short cuts these warm summer days. Providing, of course, that the results are as good. Happily there are some very simple ways to prepare beans which are unusually delicious. Thus, they solve the problem of that one hot vegetable dish you wish to serve, along with your cold cuts of meat and crisp cold salads. You'll like the following:

Tested Recipes

Parsley Lima Beans: Heat the contents of a No. 2 can of lima beans for five minutes in their own liquor, then drain. Add four tablespoons butter, two tablespoons lemon juice and two tablespoons parsley. Toss until well mixed and the butter is melted. This serves six persons.

Stringless Beans Hollandaise: Heat the contents of one No. 2 can of stringless beans, then drain, saving the liquor for soups. To one cup of hot white sauce add one-fourth cup of mayonnaise and two tablespoons lemon juice. Stir until smooth. Pour over the hot beans and serve at once. This serves six persons.

Buttered Beans: Heat the contents of one small can of stringless beans in their liquor for about five minutes. Add salt and pepper to taste and one and one-half tablespoons butter. This serves four persons.

GRAPE JUICE BEER MADE BY ITALIAN WINE EXPERT

CONCEGLIANO, Italy (AP)—Beer made from grape juice has resulted in a patent for Professor Alfredo Mazzei, instructor of wine-making in the Institute of Enology here.

Professor Mazzei takes fresh grape juice, and through a process not made public removes all its vinous characteristics. Then he ferments the liquid with yeast, and treats it with hops.

Professor Mazzei is a national authority on enology, or the science of wine-making, and Italian newspapers hail the invention as a cure for the serious overproduction of wine.

Choosy PEOPLE MAKE THEIR OWN MAYONNAISE

They know their home made mayonnaise is made of the nicest things... an egg just out of the shell, choice Wesson Oil, freshly squeezed lemon juice or vinegar, exactly the right seasoning.

And they know their own home made mayonnaise is fresh-made and fresh-served... served while it has that delicate, unmistakable "just made" taste.

WESSON OIL for making good things to eat

How to make good coffee everytime

Use a Drip Coffee Maker in which boiling water drips through a specially prepared coffee and filter paper.

Delicious crystal-clear coffee! Coffee made in this manner never fails. Morning after morning it is always the same.

Costs far less. First, you use far less coffee than with any other process (saves you over 5c per lb.). Then, the 20 filter papers in each pound of Schilling DRIP Coffee save you 2c (regular retail price).

A filter paper rests below the coffee to let through nothing but the delicious healthful amber drops. Real drip coffee cannot be made otherwise. For your convenience, filter papers are packed in each Schilling tin.
