Satin Popular For Silhouettes Lines

BY CLAUDETTE Silhouette lines are important this midseason since satin has won popular acclaim for afternoon, and even sports, occasions.

The decorations carried out a boat motif with banners and pennants used in profusion and the entrance a miniature gang-plank. Menu cards depicted the S. S. Christian Endeavor. Ice cream, cake and punch were served by the following waitresses: LaVella Hanna, Yudath Vistor, Margaret McAllister, Melba Shepherd, and Betty Martin.

Members of the society expressed their appreciation to the public for their patronage, as well as to the women of the church who contributed so generously to the success of the event.

Health

TIME FACTOR IN TREATMENT It is not uncommon to hear patients complain that they have been to a dozen doctors and that none of them was able to determine the nature of their malady nor to give them relief.

By going from one doctor to another such patients incur unnecessary expense and do not allow enough time to any one physician to enable him to make a thorough study of their cases, particularly in certain chronic diseases.

Even War's Gag To The Marxes' Comedy "Mill"

HOLLYWOOD—Cutting-room bills: It's such a simple matter to create a story for the Marx boys it's a wonder anybody bothers. Skeptics who like sense in film fare perhaps have wondered whether anybody has bothered. The usual answer to such questions is that somebody has been deeply concerned, that so much nonsense doesn't just happen.

Longer Skirts For Evening Wear Decree in Paris

PARIS (By Adelaide Kerr) — Longer skirts for wear after five o'clock are decreed by the larger houses in fashion shows crystallizing rules for winter styles. Following is a mode of elegance which Paris has determined to launch, ankle-length skirts appeared in tea-time costumes, while evening gowns touched the floor or nearly so, many having slight trains.

New afternoon ensembles, fashioned of velvets and broadcloths, were designed with long sleeves and long skirts, and had hip-length jackets, richly furled. They were black, burgundy, dark green, and navy. The evening mode, of the greatest elegance, was based on a seductive form-fitting silhouette, with décolleté high in front and low in back.

Beer Flows in Dry League Capital

Well, sir, Emory McLeod, 39, left, never reckoned he'd live to see the day when he'd be selling beer in Westerville, O., capital of the Anti-Saloon League. But here he is with the evidence in his hand as Charles Taylor, right, Westerville restaurant man, uncapped a couple of cold ones after getting the first license to sell brew in the fountain-head of prohibition in 60 years.

GOOD SINGER IS MADE—NOT BORN DR. RUSSELL SAYS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (By)—Good singers are made and not born, says Dr. G. Oscar Russell, director of Ohio State university's phonetics laboratories. Dr. Russell has just completed a seven-year study that apparently upsets century-old theories regarding voice culture and speech correction.

SLEEPING TO ESCAPE By Brooke Peters Church Susan has developed a distressing habit of falling asleep in the most unexpected places at any time. She is physically a normal child of about 13, with excellent average health. Her tonsils and adenoids have been removed and she is quite as well-bred and intelligent and in the material sense of the word as well off as her playmates.

TRADING IS DULL IN WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Aug. 14 (By)—Stock market prices drifted to moderately lower levels today as incentives for the immediate resumption of the advance apparently were lacking. While losses of a point or more were scattered over a wide front, there was no especial pressure in any one group.

BUTTERFAT AND BUTTER IN DROP

PORTLAND, Aug. 14 (By)—Drop of 1c lb. in the price of butter at Portland during the special session of the produce exchange Saturday and which became effective today, was not the fault of the trade here. The extreme weakness of the Seattle butter trade was forcing considerable supplies in this direction that should be cared for in the Puget Sound trade, but the volume of business there was much curtailed.

The initial cut in the price was made by Seattle, therefore Portland was placed in the position where it must either follow the decline or absorb the bulk of the butter usually destined for the Puget Sound trade. Butterfat price was cut 1c lb. along with price on butter.
