TELLS STORY BIG LOAN TO DAWES' BANK

complete information on the Dawes loan.

"I did not see the collateral because that was in the Federal Reserve banks and in Chicago," he said. "The senate had not given the committee money to go there or to hire appraisers. The committee decided to take the appraisal of the R.F.C. examiners. All of them came before me and testified that the collateral was valued at $120,000,000."

Couzens, said by previous witnesses to have blocked a $45,000,000 R.F.C. loan for the Union Guardian Trust Co., which it was testified would have prevented the statewide holiday, denied any such move.

Hopes Brighter For Enlarging Hatchery

ern Oregon, and is on Catherine creek which provides an abundance of suitable water; the soil is also ideal, and the site well protected by shade trees, all of which are essential elements in raising of fish. Near the hatchery are also available several warm springs which can be in tempering the water to be used during the winter months.

Chimon, of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, Toronto, is the only foreign boat ever to win in the cruising division of the Chicago-Mackinac boat races.

— THIS CURIOUS WORLD —

IS IS a far cry from the high peaks of Colorado to Mount Mitchell, in North Carolina Separated by more than a thousand miles of the great plains region, the Rocky and Appalachian ranges offer many contrasts Mount Mitchell, with its rounded, sloping crest surrounded by rhododendron and mountain laurel, would hardly be classed as a mountain by the hardy mountaineer of the Rockies
