Miss Mirian Anne Stange Becomes Bride of George William Decker At Church Wedding Here Thursday Night

At an impressive ceremony at the First Presbyterian church, Miss Mirian Anne Stange, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stange, became the bride of George William Decker, of Los Angeles, last night at 8 o'clock. Rev. J. George Walls reading the double ring ceremony.

Miss Stange, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of ivory satin designed in princess style. She wore a cap of orange blossoms and a bridal veil of white roses and lily-of-the-valley. Miss Jean Stange, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a gown of pale blue crepe with a long capelet. She wore a small blue hat with white flowers and carried an old-fashioned bouquet.

Mrs. John Larson, Miss Dorothy Eberhard, Mrs. Francis Greulich, Miss Marjorie Wilhelm, of Eugene, were bridesmaids for Miss Stange, and were gowned in bouffant frocks of mousseline with matching turbans, little muffs and mitts. Mrs. Greulich and Miss Wilhelm wore pink and Mrs. Larson and Miss Eberhard were in yellow.

Lorraine Warnock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Warnock, was the flower girl. Ford Palmer, of Los Angeles, was best man for Mr. Decker. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Gilda Ashby, dressed in a gown of white satin, lighted the candelabra on the altar. The ceremony was performed before a bank of ferns while the remainder of the altar was decorated to carry out a green and white color scheme with tall vases of white gladioli, ferns and palms. Cut flowers in pastel shades decorated the church and were arranged along the aisle.

Ushers were John Larson, Francis Greulich, Les Keffer, Harold C. Boone, Eldon Hanks, Ken Stegert, Dolph Stegert and Lawrence Bay. Mrs. Harley Richardson played "The Lohengrin Wedding March," by Wagner. Tom Bruce, accompanied by Mrs. Richardson on the pipe organ, sang "At Dawning" and "O Promise Me." A reception followed the ceremony at the Stange home which was attractively decorated with flowers in baskets about the rooms.

Mrs. M. K. Hall, of Portland, Mrs. Oscar W. Warnock, Mrs. Fred Lanzer and Mrs. L. K. Kinzel poured coffee and cut cake, while Mrs. G. L. Larson and Mrs. Chase Bohlenkamp assisted in the dining room. Serving were Misses Mildred Smith, Mildred Standley, Edna Mae Wilson, Bernice Wilson, Leah Bramwell, Sally Stegert, Judy Motre and Peggy Bohlenkamp. Miss Joan Bouvy served the wedding cake to the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Decker left last night for Wallawa Lake where they will spend a week before leaving to make their home in Los Angeles. The bride went for traveling a green ensemble with white accessories.

Three Honored At Party Thursday

The faculty of the Eastern Oregon Normal school entertained last night to compliment Miss Madeline Larson, who will enjoy a leave of absence this winter to study at Columbia university, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hansen. Mr. Hansen has been in La Grande during the past winter to fill the vacancy left by Elmo Stegerton, who also has been on a leave. The picnic was held at the home of Miss Florence Day and Miss Thelma Whaley in Mill canyon. A picnic supper was served and an informal evening enjoyed.

Francis Brown Auxiliary Meets

Thirty-five members of the Francis Brown auxiliary to the Sons and Daughters of Union county Pioneers met yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Hester Ellsworth. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Alma Conley and Mrs. Carrie Garity. Plans were completed for the agronomy sale which will be held at the Grange Fair and Home Products show in La Grande in September. Mrs. Hattie McWilliams is chairman and other members of the committee are Mrs. Alma Conley and Mrs. Ed Hughes.

Mrs. Della Mahaffey was taken into membership in the auxiliary. The remainder of the afternoon was spent socially, and at the close refreshments were served by the hostesses. The next meeting will be held on Thursday, Sept. 21.

Marriage July 2 Is Announced

Miss Beale McCabe and Robert Miller, both of La Grande, were married on July 2 by Father O. Nobby at the Catholic rectory and announcement of the ceremony today came as a surprise to their friends. They will make their home here. They were attended by Miss Stephanie Wandas and Cameron Miller. Miss McCabe is a nurse at the Grande Ronde hospital and Mr. Miller is employed at the Western States Grocery Co.

Margaret Hubbard Is Complimented

Miss Margaret Hubbard, of Eugene, who is the guest of Miss Amanda Zabel in La Grande, was complimented Thursday night at a party for which Miss Naomi Twidwell entertained at the home of Mrs. T. R. Maxwell. Miss Hubbard plans to leave for Pendleton the middle of

UNION WHEAT MEN TO CUT ACREAGE

UNION, Ore. (Special) — Wheat growers of the Union district, some 30 in number, met at the U. H. Boone gymnasium last night and discussed the wheat allotment plan for federal aid. Practically all of those present signed agreements to reduce their acreage which makes them eligible for allotment funds.

Will Woodruff was elected director on the county committee from the Union district, and Gilbert Courtwright and Jack Brown were elected as the other two members for this section.

Clam digging has been stimulated to such an extent by the sale of 32 beer in California that closer supervision has to be exercised by the state board of health. Approximately 15 per cent of the automobile drivers applying for a state operator's license in Washington fail.

The Alaska territorial treasury had a cash balance of $60,000 more at the end of the fiscal year than it did June 30, 1932.

NEWS of the CHURCHES

Church Vacation Season Nearing End This Month

All Activities to be Resumed in September — Programs For Sunday Services Announced.

Next Sunday will practically bring to an end the vacation period among the churches of La Grande. Some of these vacations ended the first of this month but others are still under way.

With the first of September, the churches generally will begin full fall activities in all branches and organizations. Programs for Sunday in local churches include the following:

Presbyterian Church (Sixth and Washington) The minister, Rev. J. George Walls, will speak at the 11 o'clock Sunday morning hour about growth in spiritual knowledge. "How can we strengthen our grip of spiritual realities? How can we enter more penetratingly into the unsearchable riches of Christ? How can we get at life's marrow at its pith, its real good, its God? These questions suggest the subject for meditation, "Making a Living or Making a Life." The stillness of the sanctuary will offer splendid opportunity to think with the minister. There will be special music.

Miss Gladys Miller will preside at the organ console. Harold Finlay superintends the session of the Bible school at 9:45 Sunday morning. Classes for all ages extended invitations to all. Christian Endeavor hour, 6:30 p. m., offers opportunity to express yourself as to your conviction regarding the Christian life. Young people are invited.

M. E. Church South (Corner U and Fir) Sunday school at 9:45 begins the day's services with W. B. Starnes as superintendent. The pastor reports the best school "we had had for this time of the year."

Preaching by Rev. A. J. Starnes, pastor, will begin at 11 o'clock. Epworth League is at 7 p. m. and preaching at 8 p. m. All are invited to these services.

First Church of Christ, Scientist (First and Washington) Services are held at 11 a. m. each Sunday following Sunday school at 9:45. Services also are held at 8 p. m. Wednesdays. The reading room at the West-Jacobson building is open from 1 to 4:30 p. m. daily.

The subject of next Sunday's service will be "Christ Jesus." The Golden Text is "No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him" (John 1: 18).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined" (Isa. 9: 2).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, "Christ is the true idea voicing good, the divine message from God to men speaking to the human consciousness. The Christ is incorporeal, spiritual, — yes, the divine image and likeness, dispelling the illusions of the senses; the Way, the Truth, and the Life, healing the sick and casting out evils, destroying sin, disease, and death" (p. 332).

Gospel Mission (2201 North Fir Street) Sunday services include Sunday school with classes for all at 9:45 a. m., morning worship at 11 o'clock, young people's and intermediate meetings at 8:45 p. m., evening service at 7:45 p. m.

Week-night services follow: Tuesday, 7:45 p. m., prayer meeting; Friday, 7:45 p. m., testimony and preaching. All are invited to these services.

Central Church of Christ (Pennsylvania Avenue) will be a novel feature of the Bible school session at the Church of Christ Sunday morning. There will be a real "Christmas Tree" with decorations, presents, etc. The presents are to be brought by those attending the service, and will be sent to the mission station conducted by the Church of Christ at Loumbe, Africa. The gifts will consist of small articles such as needles, thread, pins, pencils, crayons, gingham, dress prints, soap, talcum, candy in air-tight containers, and many other small articles besides more suitable gifts for the missionary families. There are two families at this station, besides two single girls from Oregon, Miss Gertrude Shoemaker and Miss Hattie Mitchell. A short Christmas program will be presented. This service begins promptly at

The Sunday School Lesson in Rhyme

By Carlos A. Plummer I Samuel 9-11, 15. By Carlos A. Plummer This lesson's character is Saul. First king of Israel; The giant son of Kish, so tall, With goodly form as well.

He was quite humble in his youth, And willing to obey, But later, lost regard for truth, And walked in error's way.

He humbly followed God's command When he began to reign, And had success on every hand, And won in each campaign, But he became self-willed and proud, Refusing to obey, Rebellion in his heart allowed, And thus he went astray.

And when he reaped, he faltered, And said he had obeyed; But all the facts his words belied, And so his sin betrayed.

The Lord rejected him as king For proving so untrue, And then he failed in everything He undertook to do.

He went to meet his foes again Upon Gilboa's field, Where he and his three sons were slain, And so his doom was sealed.

9:45 a. m. At 11 a. m. the communion service is served to all Christians, following the custom of the first century church. The choir will sing an anthem at this service, and the pastor, Rev. Paul De F. Mortimore, will preach, using the subject, "Revealed By The Light."

Christian Endeavorers will have their regular meeting at 8:45 p. m. There will be a special recognition of the newly elected officers of the society.

At 8 p. m. the popular evening service will begin with an orchestra prelude-concert. Several very interesting numbers have been prepared for this concert. A public installation of the new officers of the Christian Endeavor will then take place, and the pastor will preach a sermon on "Youth and the Church." Both young and old will be interested in this service. All are invited to attend these services.

Zion English Lutheran Church (M Avenue near Fourth) At the morning worship service at 11:00 o'clock the pastor, Rev. Edwin W. Brucher, will speak upon the theme "The Denominations." This will be the last of a series of historical sermons which the pastor has been presenting.

Irma Schilling will recite a passage from the Bible at the opening session of the Sunday school—9:45 a. m., Sunday. There are classes for all ages in this school, including adults.

Katie Keller is the leader for the devotional meeting of the Luther League Sunday evening at 7:00 o'clock. The topic for discussion is a missionary one — "What a Missionary to India Does." Young people will find this a helpful and instructive topic. All are welcome.

First Methodist Episcopal Church The services at the First Methodist church on Sunday will close the conference year, and the pastor will leave early in the week for the annual conference session which this year will be held at Rupert, Idaho.

The regular Sunday school session at 9:45, under the superintendency of M. L. Whitney, with interesting classes for all attending. At the 11 o'clock morning worship service the pastor will speak on the subject "Cooperation." There will be special music at this service with Mrs. Ray Fuller as the soloist—"By The Waters of Babylon," Howell.

The Epworth League will meet at seven o'clock. The senior division are planning the election of officers for the ensuing year.

Island City Community Church Conference year closes with the services of this Sunday. The pastor will preach at 9:45 on the text—"We Are Laborers Together With God." The preaching service will be followed at 10:45 with the regular Sunday school.

Sermonette Edited by Harriet R. MacDonald Lift up your eyes on high and behold who hath created these things. Isa. 40:26. The Bible is essentially an out-of-door book. It was largely written by out-of-doors men for a people that lived largely in the open air. The great majority of its scenes are laid out of doors. The lives of the patriarchs are stories of wide open spaces, the wanderings of the Children of La-of the lost sheep as you craggy side of a mountain, the lilies" as you walk stretches of flower-spang owa, and the wonder and the imagery of the Bible a living thing in the mind. Even as literature, and its divine qualities, the B power and a charm all too ogized. One needs to sit top at early dawn to appreciate the mistletoe. The sun lifts his blazing horizon and scatters th night there comes to t mind a new realization of let's words: The heavens d glory of God and the showeth his handy work at the edge of a field, or the parable

OVER THE VALLEY

Phone: Mornings, Main 606 Mabel B. Norton, Valley News Editor Residence Phone 617 A

To Turner— Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elmer, of Lower Cove, have gone to Turner where they are representing the Christian Endeavor of that neighborhood at the summer conference.

Hiten By Snake— Harry Atterbury, working in a wheat field near North Powder, was bitten by a rattlesnake one day last week and has been receiving treatment at a Baker hospital. The snake was on a truck between two sacks of wheat and when the top sack was unloaded at the North Powder elevator, the viper struck Mr. Atterbury on the finger. Reports are that he is coming through all right.

Accepts Position— Miss Mildred Standley, of the Iowa district, has accepted a position in the office of the Western States Grocery company and commenced her work last week.

Conclude Visit Here— Rev. and Mrs. L. Gaiser, who have been visiting for the past ten days at the Paul Knauts home in the valley and Joseph Gaiser home in La Grande, have returned to their home at Rivaville, Wash.

To Ohio— Mrs. O. M. Gardner, of the Cove, has gone to Youngstown, Ohio, where she plans to spend several weeks visiting among relatives and friends.

Real Estate Changes— It is reported that E. A. Steber, of Union, has sold a 17-acre tract near the cemetery to Mr. Herbert, of Elgin. Steber also traded in his brick residence opposite the postoffice toward the purchase of the Cedric Gale ranch just northwest of Union. Steber will move to the Gale ranch, and Gale will occupy the brick residence in Union.

Has Stroke— Mrs. M. H. Whisler, of the Cove, suffered a stroke of paralysis last week and has been taken to Hot Lake for care.

Guests— Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kellum, of Imbler, have been having as their house guests recently, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lue Meier, of Selah, Wash.

Corn Down— In spite of the fact that about half of his corn was down following the rain and hail storms of a few weeks ago, J. A. Kafford, of near Union, is expecting to have at least 100 bushels of corn with which to fill his bins shortly. A very small per cent of the valley farmers use silos, but those who still raise corn and feed it as enlarge are confident that that is good feed for livestock.

In La Grande— Miss Pat Hubbard, of Eugene, who has spent the past week at the Cove in La Grande for a few days visit among her many friends, making her headquarters at the home of Miss Amanda Zabel. Miss Hubbard lived at Cove while taking her two years course at the E. O. N.

Billie Dowle, of Lower Cove, better known as the cowboy preacher, is reported to have suffered a slight stroke last week.

Visit Parents— Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirby, of Lee Angeles, are in the valley for an extended visit at the home of Mrs. Kirby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Davis, on Cove avenue. Mr. Davis, who has been an invalid for a number of years, has been confined to his bed for more than a year now, following a fall in which he suffered a fractured hip. He does not improve as his friends would wish.

Elected At Promise— Miss Edna Turner, a graduate last spring of E. O. N., has been elected to teach the school at Promise in Wallawa county.

Have Joint Meeting— The Methodist church school of North Powder and the Wolf Creek Sunday school held a joint all-day session on the Gilbert (Girkson lawn) Sunday. Sunday school was held in the morning, followed by a picnic dinner under the trees. In the afternoon a sermon was preached by Rev. Howard Smith, of La Grande, county Sunday school missionary. Special music consisted of songs by Mr. Smith, Jack Gerhart, Mary Dalton and Jesse Lochins. A very large crowd attended.

From Joseph— Mrs. Mollie Moss, who has been visiting among her friends in Joseph, has returned to her home in La Grande.

Disposes of Shop— H. L. Hungerford has disposed of his barber shop at Island City to Jim Irwin. Mr. Hungerford has accepted a position with the Grande Ronde Grain Co. at the Island.

Improves— We note some improvement in the condition of Mrs. C. D. Ruffman, Cove avenue, who has been in a semi-invalid condition for the last several months since she fell and tore the ligaments in her hip loose. She is able to walk a very little now.

To Willamette— Lavon Koger, of Lower Cove, who was a student at E. O. N. last year, taking junior college work, is completing his plans to enter Willamette university at Salem within the next few weeks. When a transcript of Lavon's credits for one year's work were sent to Willamette, a school with a decidedly restricted registration, he was accepted to start his work in the sophomore year, he states.

To Valley— Mrs. Martha Jane Moss and Miss Bertha Wallsinger are in the valley spending a few days at the home of their daughter and niece, Mrs. Ray Fuller, in the Valeria district.

At Duncan's— Mr. and Mrs. Ray Duncan, of the Mill Creek canyon road, have as their house guests at present, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, of Salem. The visitors had been here previously but left the valley the first of the year.

Move To La Grande— Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw, well known farmers of the southeast part of the county, have recently moved to La Grande where they plan to make their home in the future. Their farm near North Powder will be operated by their son, Alec Shaw.

Returns Home— Miss Ruth Comstock oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Comstock, of the Mill Creek canyon, was greatly disappointed last week when her health did not permit her to remain in Portland to finish her work at St. Vincent's hospital. Illness last winter and spring made it necessary for her to return home to recuperate. She was at home for several months and only a few weeks ago returned to Portland.

Wolf Creek Grange— The regular meeting of the Wolf Creek grange held Saturday evening was attended by 27 of the members. After the regular business meeting, a rehearsal of the play which the grange is to give before the Pomona grange when it meets, Sept. 25, was held. A watermelon feed was held at the close of the rehearsal.

Have Annual Picnic— The Methodist Sunday school of Cove held their annual picnic at the swimming pool Tuesday with 11 of the children and most of their parents present. There was a bountiful dinner and after dinner sports galore—running, jumping, swimming, etc. One contest that provoked much laughter was a gum chewing contest entered into by those who were wearing false teeth. The ball game played by a team of girls against one of boys, was won by the latter team
