AMERICANS OVER IN VIENNA LOSE AS DOLLAR DROPS

VIENNA (AP) — The falling dollar has hit Americans in Austria right in the middle of their budgets.

Travelers from the United States who arrived early in July cut short their stay because of the dwindling purchasing power of their national currency.

Americans maintaining households here, including those in the diplomatic and consular services, look deep breaths and began figuring out a new approach to the problem of "living cheaply abroad."

Those who had been paying $100 a month rent in Austria schillings found their housing cost boosted to $140, with no chance of getting out of the leases on that score.

Look Ahead With Hollywood to See Future of World

HOLLYWOOD — The screen's increasing tendency to assume the role of social prognosticator is evidenced in plans for a film dealing with "an American Scotland Yard."

Hardly had the administration made known its plans for warfare with crime than Courtenay Terrett wrote a screen story dealing with the police situation as it might be in the next six months.

It's getting to be a habit with Hollywood, this telling the world what's going to happen — in dramatic form — before it happens.

Whenever the weather gets a bit "unusual" in these parts — meaning hot, cold, or cloudy — it seems that studios decide at once to film scenes that kind-hearted managers would take some other time.

It's been warm in Hollywood, and that brought on a small epidemic of wintry scenes. Sally Ellers trying on rich coats on a hot sound stage, while Ralph Morgan, bundled in heavy fur, looking on, trying to appear cold with perspiration streaming down his make-up, gives an ironic touch.

Snow blindness — In August, too — sent five laborers to cover behind dark glasses, where John Boles and Margaret Sullivan were already hiding.

The snow, covering a garden set for "Only Yesterday," was not the usual bleached corn flakes, but a marble dust mixture. Its glare, devastating in sunlight, is supposed to give a more realistic glint for night snow scenes.

Blackmail Is Poison Defense

Mark H. Shank, Akron lawyer, said demands for money on threat of exposing information in connection with a lawsuit caused him to poison Alvin Coley and his wife and two sons, whose bodies were found in an automobile near McVern, Ark. Shank is shown above after his capture and confession.

FRANKIE MONROE COMING FAST IN FISTIC CIRCLES

Frankie Monroe! That name has been heard a great deal locally with the Klamath Falls fighter due to meet Johnny O'Hara here the evening of Labor day in the headline event of a boxing card to be staged in the Sackajawa, beginning at 8 p. m.

But many local fans are a bit hazy about Monroe. Here's the dope: He holds the lightweight championship of Southern Oregon. He has been boxing for the last five years and in that time has met some of the leading boys of the Pacific coast.

Monroe has won from Eddie Volk, Mickey Dolan, Al Cadena, boxed Louis Nelson a draw, did the same with Johnny Higgins, got a draw with Roy Ockley, and then surprised the boxing critics in Portland when he held Doc Snell to a draw.

When he and Higgins boxed in the Bachelor arena in Portland, it was one of the greatest battles ever witnessed there. Frankie is married and has one child. He is a very clever boxer with a better than the average punch in either hand. His birthplace is Lakewood, Ore.

Local fans are expecting his match with O'Hara to be one of the best seen here in many years. Several other good matches appear on the card. Tickets are for sale at the Sackajawa, Moon Drug store, Glass Drugs Inc., and the Imperial Billiard parlor.

Lions Win From Rotary Kitten Ball Team 18 - 8

The Lions club kitten ball team won its second straight game from the Rotarians here Thursday evening at the High school field, the final score being 18 to 8.

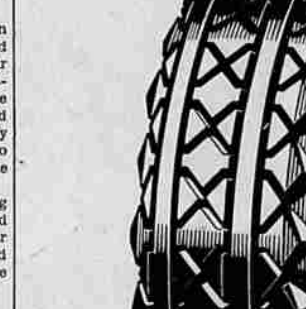

The Lions previously noted out the Rotarians in a kitten ball game, winning by a margin of one run. Thursday's victory seemed to clinch the interclub championship.

The Lions scored five runs in the first inning but the Rotarians came back with four shortly afterwards, but from then on the Rotary runs were scattered, while the Lions added 13 additional tallies.

Be sure to get Goodyear quality tubes, too.

Boston Braves Defeat Giants Thursday 7 to 3

Both crippled by serious casualties, the Boston Braves and the New York Giants resumed their vital National League series at Boston today with much depending on untied reserves.

Victorious yesterday, 7 to 3, in the first battle of the six game engagement, the Braves trailed the pace-setting Giants by only five games with the knowledge that their well rounded pitching staff was intact while New York's big four had begun to show signs of overwork.

The rival managers were forced to call out their replacements, however, as the result of accidents which will keep two of their star players out of the game for the remainder of the season.

Moore, Vergez Out Randy Moore, one of Boston's slugging outfielders suffered a fractured bone in his right hand, when he was hit by one of Leroy Parmelee's pitches, while Johnny Vergez, Giants' star third baseman, was recovering from a hurried appendix operation last night.

In the American league, the Boston Red Sox finally succeeded in winning their first game at the Yankee stadium, walloping the champions 15 to 2 to drop them eight and one-half games back of the Washington club.

COAST LEADERS WIN AND LOSE IN THURSDAY GAMES

By The Associated Press Still separated by a bare half game after dividing twin bills last night with Sacramento and Portland, Hollywood and Los Angeles drove forward today towards the 1933 Coast League championships.

In the wild opener in which each team collected 19 hits, Hollywood outslugged Sacramento to win 19-10 in the 7-juning nightcap George Buchanan held the Bolons hitless for six innings and then blew up to let in four runs and give the visitors the game, 4-2.

After being stopped 2-1 by Buck Newson of Los Angeles in the first game, Portland recovered to take the short second game, 5-4. The Angels tied the count at three all in the first half of the sixth, and then an Angel miscue, following Reeves' single and walks to Monroe and Blackberry, gave the Beavers their winning run. Emmet Nelson was charged with the Los Angeles defeat.

A bed teeth inning bounce gave Orr Mohler, Red shortstop, credit for a hit and the Missions 9-8 victory over Oakland.

San Francisco made it two straight at Seattle, 10-2. Bruce Cunningham checked the Indians with 7 blows.

BABE RUTH NOT READY TO QUIT

NEW YORK, Sept. 1 (AP) — So far from being ready to retire, Babe Ruth is looking forward to playing regularly again for the New York Yankees next season.

Indignant at reports that he had decided to "hang up his spikes," the big slugger declared he was by no means convinced he could no longer play regularly despite his 39 years.

"So much has been written about my plans for next year," the Babe said in a formal statement, "that I wish to make myself clear on this matter. I will make no decision about retiring from baseball until I am convinced I can no longer play. I will not know about 1934 until I have had some spring training. I hope to play next year. I believe I will be able to, so, for the present at least, I am not retiring from baseball."
