EXTENT OF INJURIES IS UNDETERMINED

Victims of the collision between a sedan owned by Don H. Fowler and the trailer of a truck belonging to the Ashbury Truck line, of Portland, and driven by C. P. and L. A. Coon, Wednesday evening on the highway near Meacham are reported to be in a satisfactory condition.

Miss Wilma Smith, who suffered a fractured leg, is expected to be able to leave the Grande Ronde hospital soon. George Holland, driver of the automobile, is being treated at the hospital where the extent of his injuries has not been determined, while Mrs. Fowler who sustained severe cuts about the face is confined at her home but her condition is not serious. Mr. Fowler had only minor scratches and bruises.

MOREHEAD IS INJURED WHEN HORSE SHIES

Bruce Morehead, of La Grande, woods foreman for the Mt. Emily Lumber Co., is at the Grande Ronde hospital suffering from a fractured skull which he received yesterday when thrown from a horse. Mr. Morehead was riding horseback when his horse shied, throwing the rider into a rock pile. It is believed that Mr. Morehead's foot was caught in the stirrup.

He was brought to the hospital where it was determined that his skull was fractured. Mr. Morehead's condition is satisfactory today, it is reported.

OLD DRIVERS' LICENSES NO LONGER GOOD

Old drivers' licenses, issued before the new law went into effect in 1931, were no longer good today, and drivers not equipped with new licenses were taking chances when they operated motor vehicles on the highway.

During the last few days many thousands of new licenses have been issued from the secretary of state's office at Salem, and many more thousands probably will be issued during the next few days.

SALEM, Sept. 1 (AP)— About 100,000 drivers of automobiles have yet to renew their operators' licenses as the law requiring new permits becomes enforceable today, the secretary of state's office announced.

SCHOOL BOARD WILL MEET AT L. H. S. TONIGHT

The school board will meet at 7:30 o'clock tonight in its offices in the La Grande High school building for the purpose of receiving final certificates from the architect covering the various contracts on the High school.

The meeting was called by Chairman Colon R. Eberhard.

The board also will hear committee reports covering several contemplated repair jobs at the grade schools and will pass on the final recommendations of the superintendent prior to the opening of school.

Regular meetings of the board will be resumed after school begins.

INGLES WILL RETURN HOME THIS EVENING

Dr. Margaret Ingle and daughters, Stella Jean and Mary and Mrs. Stella Ingle will return to La Grande tonight after having spent the past ten weeks touring the east by auto. They went east by the southern route, attended the centenary of Progress exposition at Chicago and are returning by the north route through North Dakota and Montana. Dr. Ingle will resume her practice at once at her office in the Sommer building.

C. C. C. Members To Be Discharged But May Enroll Again

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1 (AP)— The war department moved today to effect the president's plan for continuing the civilian conservation corps another six months.

All members will be discharged between September 30 and October 15, but can re-enroll for a second half year period.

"The strength of the corps of the second period will be brought up to 300,000 men as rapidly as possible and well before Christmas," the department said.

Roosevelt Enjoys Day of Rest Today

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1 (AP)— A message to the navy today from Vincent Astor's yacht, Nourmahal, on which President Roosevelt is returning to Washington, said today had been set aside by the chief executive for "rest and relaxation with indications that this will be the first day since March 4" he has been free from worries of official business.
