

Thousand Cords Of Wood Taken From Mill Canyon.

COVE (Special)—Wood hauling is again on in full swing. Between 12 and 15 cords of wood are being hauled out of the two forks of Mill creek canyon daily. Hauling usually begins during the month of August and continues until the snow becomes too deep for further work in the mountains. During the fall and winter of 1933 permits were issued for over 800 cords of wood and with wood cut on private property the total is estimated at almost 1000 cords. Most of this wood is hauled down Mill creek canyon.

Charlie Yates, young Atlanta golfer, played the best rounds of his career when he qualified for the national amateur in 141.

WALLOWA MAN IS INJURED BY COMBINE

WALLOWA (Special)—F. H. Weinhard, prominent Lower Valley farmer, received a painful injury Wednesday morning while working with a combine. His left arm was caught in a pulley and so badly cut that it required several stitches to close the wound.

COVE GROUPS RESUME FALL SCHEDULE MEET

COVE (Special)—The Eastern Star and Woman's Improvement club, which organization close during the summer months, will hold their regular meetings beginning this month. The Star will hold its first meeting September 12 and the club will meet the 14th at the usual time.

State Officers To Attend C. E. Meeting

Miss McClay was the speaker at the convention held at Wallowa in June and won many friends among the young people by her pleasing personality. This is Mr. Tarbell's first visit to Grande Ronde Union.

In addition to these there will be present Dr. Walter L. Myers, pastor, counsellor for the state union who will be the main speaker, and Mrs. Effie Ritchey, of Freewater, who is regional vice president for the district unions in the Eastern Oregon section.

Members of the convention committee feel especially fortunate to have such a group of state officers present as Grande Ronde Union is the farthest removed from the headquarters in Portland.

The contest for registrations began Sunday evening and each society is competing for the prize which will give them the honor of wearing the caps and caps which are the property of the union, in the parade which will be held on Saturday afternoon.

'Upside-down' Flight Rivals

The "upside-down" flying title changes fast between these two air dare-devils. Now Lieut. Falout, Italian air force flyer, above, will try to fly the 320 miles from St. Louis to Chicago in an inverted position to regain the title he lost when Milo Murcham, below, of Long Beach, Calif., flew in the "upside-down" position for two hours and 20 minutes.
