FARM PRICE GAIN SOUGHT BY PRESIDENT

to the banks that federal funds were available is needed to re-enforce the capital structure.

With this, the president expressed confidence the banks will push out the needed credit to tide over the small merchants, particularly, in the first days of the expansion of jobs and wages.

In resurveying the national recovery effort, the president has come to regard agriculture as the immediate point of need.

He wants the general advance to go much farther, but he recognizes that all the unemployed cannot be put back to work within six months or perhaps within a year and likewise that farm income cannot be rehabilitated completely at once.

Secretary Wallace took encouraging word to him recently of a prospective increase of a billion dollars from 1933 farm income over last year.

The government's method of assisting the banks, it was made clear, would be through the plan, already in operation, of purchase of preferred stock by the Reconstruction corporation.

Only such banks as are clearly and irredeemably insolvent will be permitted to close.

Mr. Roosevelt said this might be taken by the banks as an assurance the government intends to carry through its program and expects them to do their part.

plans, was being prepared. Charles A. Howard, superintendent of public instruction and a member of the committee, considered himself a committee of one to prepare information for the legislature, and has already had reports from 21 of the 36 counties as to outstanding warrant indebtedness. These figures along with relief necessary to keep districts operating at least a major portion of the school year show that a million dollars would go far in remedying the situation, but that more would be necessary if the problem is solved satisfactorily, Howard said.

The counties reported five have increased their indebtedness by considerable more than double. This was due, not to increased cost but to delinquent taxes, Howard added. These are Crook, Jackson, Union, Jefferson and Wasco. Only one county, Lincoln, where the unit plan is in operation, showed less indebtedness.

The increased indebtedness in Clatsop, Benton, from $22,850 to $39,801; Jackson from $63,349 to $157,852; Josephine from $58,722 to $80,950; Multnomah from $1,084,722 to $1,362,761; Umatilla from $269,095 to $399,844; and Union from $46,871 to $122,460.
