Year's Activities of Grande Ronde Chapter of D. A. R. Opened Here Wednesday

The year's activities of the Grande Ronde chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution opened yesterday with a meeting at the home of Mrs. Lynn Bohnenkamp, with the regent, Mrs. W. B. Pickett, presiding. It was announced that Mrs. John Y. Richardson, state regent, has set September 25 as the date for her official visit to this chapter, at which time she will be the guest of honor at a no-hostess luncheon to be held at the Sacajawea Inn.

spoke on "The Deeper Meaning of Our Daughters of The American Revolution Organization," and by Mrs. Ed Kiddle who described the beautiful Constitution Hall, one of the three D. A. R. buildings located in Washington, D. C.

300 Present At M. I. A. Social

More than 300 members of the M. I. A. of the First Ward L. D. S. church attended the opening social held Tuesday evening at the Recreational hall. The leading feature of the program was the presentation of "The Magic Bowl," a musical skit, in which members of every class took part. Jack Hlatt Sr. portrayed the role of "Father Mutual." The program was opened by community singing.
