Bonneville Outlook Bright, Says Waite

he had been assured by Colonel H. M. Waite, deputy administrator of public works, the Bonneville dam project on the Columbia river near Portland, Ore., "would go through."

McNary and Representative McMillin, of Oregon, called Waite to discuss with him the preliminary investigation and plans for development of the dam authorized by the public works administration and for which $250,000 had been allotted.

McNary told Waite he understood President Roosevelt favored the project. The senator and representative told Waite they favored the erection of a 72 foot dam as a navigation aid on the river, which would develop a considerable hydro-electric supply for the territory.

Waite replied that he desired to consult with engineers investigating the project before giving a definite answer but predicted the project would be approved.

The 72 foot dam would cost approximately $31,000,000. McNary urged $20,000,000 be allotted from public works funds as soon as possible to begin operations.

ARRESTED IN MEMPHIS BY U. S. AGENTS

his Auburn haired wife said. "Kelly told me he would kill me if I did, but I was going anyway."

She said she wanted to save her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Shannon, now on trial in connection with the kidnaping.

Kelly, police said, was traced here by a telegram sent in code to Tichnor. The message's contents were revealed, but it presumably was a tip to Tichnor concerning movements of officers.

Tichnor, police said, is not wanted in connection with any of the crimes charged to Kelly, including participation in the slaying of Policeman Miles Cunningham, who attempted to capture five men who robbed a federal reserve bank automobile in Chicago recently and fled behind an exhaust pipe smoke screen.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 26 (AP)—Authorities here said George Kelly, captured today in Memphis, might be prosecuted here on state charges of robbery with firearms, for which the maximum penalty is death, following his trial on charges of kidnaping Charles F. Urschel. Late imprisonment is the maximum penalty under the federal kidnap law.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26 (AP)—Trial of George "Machine Gun" Kelly at the earliest possible date for alleged complicity in the Urschel kidnaping was urged today by justice department officials, elated at the capture of the notorious underworld character.

Kiddle Requests Committee to Meet

Julius L. Meier. Announcement some weeks ago that the federal government would require the states to match federal money on a two to one basis for relief purposes precipitated the Oregon problem which the committee is seeking to solve.

Action by the special session of the legislature, expected to be called next month, will depend largely upon the committee's report to the governor, it is believed.

Harry Collins Bound Over To The Grand Jury

Harry Collins, charged with larceny in a dwelling, was bound over to await the action of the grand jury with bail set at $500 at a hearing held yesterday afternoon before Judge L. Denham in the court of the justice of the peace. Bail had not been furnished today.

Charges were filed by J. T. Vaught, who alleges that while he and his family were on a trip their house was entered and several articles were taken including an opal ring, an agate ring, a pair of ear rings, and a wrist watch. A negro, whose name was not learned, took a watch to Mr. Gerards for repair and the latter identified it as a watch which he had repaired for Mrs. Vaught. Collins, according to the negro's story, sold it to him for $2.

Collins declared at the hearing that he bought it from another man, whom he had never seen before, for the same price.

BROWNSVILLE, Ind. (AP)—"Sorry, gentlemen, the safe is locked. Kindly be seated in the lobby and the vault will be opened in 15 minutes."

Such may be the stock answer of the banker to the bandit in the future as the result of a time-lock invention of William, Richards, Brownsstown banker.

Richards' invention consists of a steel bar fitting across the front of the safe door in full view of doubtful bandits, and operating with a timing mechanism.
