DON MACK, WHO BATTLES O'HARA WINS 5 STRAIGHT

Don Mack, who is to fight Johnny O'Hara, of Los Angeles, in the main event of a boxing card at the Scaevaya Inn on Oct. 7, is a Portland boy and was developed by his father, Stanley McDonald, well known light-weight fighter of around 1912.

Don held the lightweight amateur championship of the northwest for three years and has been boxing for the last seven years. In that time he has met and defeated some of the best lightweights in the northwest. Mack won his last five fights and, in Portland, he has scored victories over Jimmy Scott, Harry Gillian, Al Cadena and Frankie Roberts twice. He holds decisions over Mickey Dolan, Eddie Etlman and Jack Nash.

Mack is an aggressive fighter and has expressed confidence that he can take O'Hara's measure. O'Hara, however, thinks otherwise and La Grande fans are eagerly awaiting the going to see which fighter is right.
