

LOCAL BRIEFS

Leaves Hospital—
Ben DeBorde, Cove resident, who has been a patient at the Grande Honda hospital left the hospital Monday and is staying at the home of his brother, Tom DeBorde, in La Grande.

Returns—
Mrs. Donald Pague, a former resident of the city who has been visiting friends here, has returned to her home in Portland where she was called by important business.

Arrives—
Mrs. George Stotler and daughter, Arlene, have arrived in La Grande to join Mr. Stotler, new advertising manager at Falk's La Grande store. They formerly made their home in Boise, Ida.

U. P. Man Here—
F. Ivers, roadmaster for the Union Pacific, was in La Grande Monday transacting business. Mr. Ivers makes his headquarters in Pendleton.

In La Grande—
Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rogers, of Enterprise, are in La Grande transacting business and shopping.

Correction—
In a story in yesterday's Observer it was stated that Dave Stewart submitted to a major operation. The name should have been Dave Stills.

Guests—
Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fritts and Mrs. Maude Pine had as their guests recently a group of friends, Mrs. Nannie Dawson, of Chehalis, Wash., and Mrs. Grant Parsons, of Portland; Mrs. Mathilda Baker, of Portland, and Mrs. Thomas Hampton and the latter's daughter, Mrs. Mabel Snider, of Pendleton. Mrs. Dawson and Mrs. Parsons are sisters and Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Hampton are nieces.

NOTES ABOUT THIS AND THAT
Discreet touches of bead embroidery posed at the shoulder and repeated at neckline, or on the belt, can be very gay or very elegant—such as coral beads on brown; or steel beads on black.

The shirtwaist silhouette in black satin or ribbed bengaline adds a sophisticated air to the college wardrobe.

This idea did not originate at Aunt Dinah's Quilting Party—but quilting really is very smart on collars and cuffs and peplums. It squares off sailor collars, too.

To be or not to be is a difficult question when it comes to belts. You may be frankly belted, or you may be belted in front and belted at the back. Inset belts that become free at the sides and buckle at the back are a happy compromise.

HUBBELL AND OTT STAR IN INITIAL GAME

Davis singled sharply past Cronin. Jackson lifted a high fly to Schulte. Two runs, two hits, one error, one left.

Second Inning: Senators:
Cronin singled between Jackson and Ryan on a slow dribbler. Schulte bunted to Hubbell and Cronin was forced at second. Hubbell to Ryan. Schulte beat the relay by a step at first.

Kuhel fanned, and Schulte was doubled at second. Mancuso to Ryan. No runs, one hit, no errors, none left.

Second Inning: Giants:
Mancuso hoisted a high fly to Schulte.

Ryan hit sharply to Myer and raced to second when the second baseman, after a great stop, threw wildly past Kuhel. It was a hit for Ryan and an error for Myer.

Hubbell popped to Myer. Moore grounded out. Bluge to Kuhel.

No runs, one hit, one error, none left.

Third Inning: Senators:
Bluge struck out, swinging at a change of pace.

Sewell grounded out, Jackson to Terry, on a slow hopper. Stewart fanned, swinging and was Hubbell's sixth strike out victim.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Third Inning: Giants:
Critz singled on a line drive against the right field wall.

Terry alighted a single past Myer and Critz ran to third, scoring Critz and sending Terry to third.

Jack Russell, right-handed pitcher, replaced Stewart.

Davis fanned, swinging at a high hard one.

Jackson was retired as Myer made a fast pickup and threw to Russell. Mancuso fled to Schulte.

Two runs, three hits, no errors, one left.

Fourth Innings: Senators:
Myer singled past Ryan. Goslin rolled to Terry who tagged the Goose on the base line.

Manush grounded to Critz, who fumbled for an error. Manush was safe and Myer reached third.

reached second. Kuhel grounded out, Critz to Terry. One run, two hits, one error, two left.

Fourth Inning: Giants:
Ryan fanned, swinging at a slow curve.

Manush bounced to Russell. Moore grounded out, sharply, Cronin to Kuhel.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Fifth Inning: Senators:
Bluge batted out, Ryan to Terry. Sewell was out on a slow hopper, Jackson to Terry.

Russell fanned, swinging at a change of pace.

Ott lashed a long single to center-field. Fast work by Schulte prevented Mel from taking second.

On a hit and run play, Davis led off single to center but Ott bulled up a second.

Jackson went out, Russell to Kuhel. No runs, two hits, no errors, two left.

Sixth Inning: Senators:
Goslin fanned out to Mancuso. Goslin fouled to Mancuso.

Manush lifted a short fly to Ryan. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Sixth Inning: Giants:
Ryan hoisted a high one to Kuhel. Hubbell hit sharply through Bluge for a single.

Moore forced Hubbell at second. Bluge to Myer.

Seventh Inning: Senators:
Cronin lifted a high one to Moore, who barely grabbed the ball with outstretched hands after a long run.

Schulte fanned, swinging at a fast curve.

Kuhel grounded out, Critz to Terry. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Seventh Inning: Giants:
Critz was out, on a sharp grounder, Cronin to Kuhel.

Terry drove a long fly to Schulte in left center.

Ott got his fourth straight hit on a hard smash that caromed off Russell's right shoulder.

Ott was safe at second when Myer dropped Sewell's throw after apparently making the putout on an attempted steal. Davis was called out on strikes.

No runs, one hit, one error, one left.

Eighth Inning: Senators:
Bluge fanned with the bat on his shoulder.

Sewell walked, the fourth ball being wide.

Harris walked. The fourth pitch was outside and intentional.

Myer grounded to Ryan and Harris was forced at second, Ryan to Critz. Sewell went to third.

Goslin lined out to Terry and the crowd burst into an uproar.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Eighth Inning: Giants:
Al Thomas was in the box for Washington.

Jackson fanned, swinging at a low fast ball.

Mancuso lifted a high fly to Manush.

Ryan fanned on a called third strike.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Tampico Shattered by Tropical Hurricane; Hundreds Killed

Hundreds of deaths and enormous property damage was the toll of a tropical hurricane which ripped through Tampico at a speed of 135 miles an hour. A panoramic view of the stricken city, Mexico's principal northern port, is shown here.

Association Meets—
The Island City Parent-Teacher association held the first meeting of the year on Thursday afternoon at the school house. The president, Mrs. Tom Beeson, called the assembly to order for a short business meeting. Plans were discussed for entertaining the district P. T. A. which is to meet at Island City October 7. It was decided during the meeting to join with the Ladies Aid in holding a community reception for teachers and minister at the Island City Community church soon. The membership drive was announced. After the business session, Miss Mabel Doty, librarian of the La Grande city library, gave a very interesting account of her visit to the Chicago fair. Miss Barbara Wardell sang "The Shadow Waltz" accompanied by Miss Betty Dolan.

Visits Son—
Mrs. B. C. Dahlstrom, of North Powder, has been visiting at the home of her son, John Dahlstrom, at Island City.

In The Valley—
Mrs. W. A. Winter, a former resident of a number of districts in the valley, is making a visit among her many friends hereabouts and with her son, Ray Winters, in La Grande. Mrs. Winters has been at Wallowa Lake, spent a few days at the Cove and is now at the Tom McGuire home near La Grande.

Mr. Flecklin Improving—
Tom Flecklin, of Union, who has been so very ill of heart trouble, and is still at the home of his son, Claude at Huntington, is reported to be improving slowly.

Observe Birthdays—
A little birthday party was held at the Lower Cove school Friday in honor of five birthdays, that of the teacher, Miss Naomi Twidwell, of Dick Fuller, a former pupil, Wesley Cook and Carl and Wanda Elmer. There were a number of features arranged by the rest of the school, and among the refreshments served was the lovely birthday cake.

Move—
Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Epling have moved from La Grande to their country place on the sidehill near La Grande. The house on the ranch has been completed recently.

From California—
Mrs. Ella Ston, of San Pedro, Cal., who was called to Pumpkin Ridge by the sudden death of her sister, Mrs. W. A. West, visited among her relatives in the north end of the county before returning to her home in the south.

Imbler Ladies Aid—
Mrs. Harold Bingham will entertain this group of women at their regular meeting next Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Bingham lives near Imbler.

Former Resident Passes—
Claude Wright, son of pioneers in the Grande Ronde valley, died at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland Saturday after a brief illness following a heart attack. He was born September 20, 1882 in Union and was a brother of the late Ed and E. A. Wright, both of whom were business men in Union and La Grande for many years. His sister, Georgia, left here Saturday to attend the funeral which was held on Monday. He had been a commission merchant in Portland for the past 20 years. He is survived by his widow and three children.

Pomona Grange—
The early fall meeting of the Union County Pomona grange was held last Saturday all day at the Wolf Creek grange hall near North Powder, with members of that subordinate as hosts. Considering the weather and the fall work, the attendance was very good. It is reported. Business sessions were held during the morning and in the evening with the Pomona master, L. P. Wright, in charge. Mrs. Naden as secretary and Mrs. Cusick as lecturer. The Wolf Creek members served the company a splendid chicken dinner at noon and lighter refreshments in the evening. An excellent program of a miscellaneous character given under Mrs.

YOUNG STRIBLING IS COUNTED OUT BY GRIM DEATH

By Alan M. Abele
MACON, Ga., Oct. 3.—They counted out Young Stribling early today for the first time in a 13-year career that stands as one of the strangest in the annals of pugilism.

In the stillness of a hospital room—a setting which was the very antithesis of the active life he had led—death came to "The Boy," as Pa Stribling called him, from injuries suffered in a traffic accident.

A veteran at 29 of more than 300 ring battles and five times challenger for titles he never won, Young Stribling has left for the record books a question mark as to his true rating as a fighter.

At his best he was brilliant; at his worst they hurled at him the taunting cry of "yellow." And in between he went his way smilingly, undaunted, taking on all comers in a campaign that carried him to the far ends of the earth.

Those who knew Stribling as an amateur sportsman—alpine pilot, speedboat racer, golfer and basketball star—never questioned his courage. Particularly, any who flew with him breathed freely once more only when they felt ground under their feet again. He had walked away from at least one crackup in his plane and, until Sunday, had been on his feet at the finish of every venture he ever tackled.
