Dr. Curtis Morris Chenoweth To Speak At A. A. U. W. Conference Here Oct. 13

Dr. Curtis Morris Chenoweth, professor of philosophy at the University of Idaho, has been selected as the speaker at the banquet which will be the opening feature for all delegates at the state conference of the American Association of University Women on Oct. 13. The conference will be a two-day meeting with Mrs. Virgil Earl, state president of Eugene, presiding.

Ladies Aid To Meet Wednesday

The Ladies Aid of the First Methodist Episcopal church will meet with Mrs. A. W. Burnett on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Other hostesses will be Misses Will Adler, W. P. Ballard and Russ Clark.

"Friendly Party" Enjoyable Event

Jonah was again swallowed by a whale, Sir Walter Raleigh made of his coat a dry pathway for Queen Elizabeth, William Tell shot the apple from his son's head and many other scenes from ancient history were re-enacted Friday evening in the basement of the Presbyterian church when the young people met with friends from the Normal school for a "Friendly Party."

Miss French Is Complimented

Miss Dorothy French, bride-elect of Eugene, was complimented at a luncheon and theatre party at which Mrs. Paul Mortimore and Miss Elsie Tucker were hostesses Saturday afternoon at the Mortimore home.

Carl Gregory Weds Agnes Bullard

Of interest in Eastern Oregon is the news of the marriage of Carl Gregory, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gregory of Walla Walla, and Agnes Bullard, daughter of Chris Bullard, of Portland. The wedding was solemnized on Sept. 16, and Mr. and Mrs. Gregory are making their home in the Riverside apartments, Oregon City.

Aid To Hold Meeting Thursday

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church South will hold its monthly business meeting at the home of Mrs. W. B. Starmer on Jackson avenue, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. It was announced today.

L. H. S. To Form P. T. Association

The La Grande High School Parent Teacher association will be organized Thursday evening at the high school at 7:30. It was announced when the La Grande City Council of Parent Teacher Associations met at 3:45 o'clock Monday at the Seacajawa Inn.

Going My Way?

Walk with me on this beautiful Autumn day... You say you like my new frock of sheer wool with its shawllet shoulders? I am proud of it for I made it all by myself!

HERE is a simple but effective street dress that can be made up in lightweight tweed, satin or velvet. It is designed in five sizes: 11, 13, 15, 17 and 19, with corresponding bust measures of 29, 31, 33, 35 and 37. Size 13 requires 1 1/2 yards of 39-inch material. The tie of ribbon, 2 1/2 yard.

MAKE PLANS FOR P. I. EXPOSITION BEGINNING OCT. 21

PORTLAND (Special)—Premiums probably larger than any given in the Pacific Coast country will be awarded winners at the 23rd Annual Pacific International Livestock Exposition held in Portland, Oregon, October 21st to 28th, according to announcement made by President T. B. Wilcox, and general manager, O. M. Plummer.

375 ATTEND PROGRAM AT EAGLES HALL

Three hundred and seventy-five attended the first of the new series of Eagle broadcast programs Monday night at Eagles hall. Arthur Bremer, chairman, explained the program of welfare and relief to which the proceeds are devoted, and C. E. Happerett, of Portland, former local resident, also spoke briefly.

P. T. A. Membership Campaign Begins

Membership enrollment week in all parent teacher associations of the city is under way, and an important feature of the movement is the organization of the High School association. Mrs. H. J. Leonard is chairman of membership in the La Grande City Council, and each local organization has a membership head to direct the enrollment movement.

Pendleton Women To Play Locals

Women golfers will leave early tomorrow morning for Pendleton to defend the laurels which they won in the first of the two-match series played on the local course earlier in the season. The Pendleton course is said to be in good condition at present.

Mrs. Broomfield Entertains Club

Mrs. J. J. Broomfield entertained the Wakelita club Monday afternoon at her home, arranging three tables for bridge. The prize for high score was awarded to Mrs. Joel Richardson and Mrs. Clyde Hoppel received second. Mrs. Frank Wyde was a guest. Refreshments were served.

La Grande Couple Attends Party

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Fariss were among the guests at an interesting event during the weekend in Walla Walla when Mrs. H. A. Seidel was hostess at a birthday party for her husband and for Mrs. Fred Lorenz. Mr. Seidel has been a frequent visitor in La Grande.

Missionary To Speak at Meeting

Mrs. Herman Schmelzenbach, who has spent 23 years as missionary in the interior of Africa, will lead a missionary service telling something of her work in that land, tonight at 7:30 at the Nazarene church. She will be accompanied by her son Elmer.

Mothers, Girls Enjoy Banquet

Tables were set for 42 in the Baptist church basement dining room Monday evening for the World Wide Guild girls and their mothers. Place cards having directed the guests to their assigned seats, while standing, all joined in singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," following which Mrs. C. E. Happerett invoked the divine blessing.

CLOSE IRREGULAR IN STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Oct. 3 (AP)—Stocks moved slowly and indecisively today as most traders and investors continued to remain in neutral territory while waiting for possible developments in the monetary situation. There was a moderate demand for some metals and a few specialties, but the rails were a trifle heavy in spots. The close was slightly irregular. Transfers approximated 900,000 shares.
