Bronchial Troubles Need Creomulsion

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, and attacks the seat of the trouble.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Your own druggist is authorized to refund your money on the spot if your cough or cold is not relieved by Creomulsion. Adv.

JOHNNY O'HARA BEATS DON MACK IN TEN-ROUNDER

Johnny O'Hara, who flattened Don Mack, of Portland, four times in the first round, won a decision over the Boise City scrapper here Saturday night in the main event of a boxing card staged at the Scajawawa Inn. Mack, who resorted to infighting to keep out of range of O'Hara's wicked uppercuts, withered the storm but was a thoroughly beaten man by the time the fight came to an end.

O'Hara won most of the rounds and the crowd cheered when Referee Roy Farnam raised the Los Angeles fighter's hand in signal of victory.

During the evening it was announced that Ah Wing Lee, Chinese fighter of Portland, will meet Frankie Monroe, of Klamath Falls, here the evening of Nov. 11.

Museler Wins

Jim Museler added another knockout victory to his string when he finished up Don Bentley, of Ventura, 145 pounds, in the second round.

If anything, the first round was Jim's, but in the second he found Bentley's jaw, and how! The third knockdown left the loser prone on the canvas after the official count of ten was completed.

Young Corbett and Lloyd Sullivan, 125 pounders, fought a draw in the four-round opener, which pleased the crowd mightily. Both boys were slugging toe to toe as the fight ended.

Kid Walker wasn't aggressive enough to defeat Gene McLain, in another four-rounder, and McLain was given the decision. Walker went to the floor a couple of times during the struggle.

Don McHugh won a decision from Bill Young in a slow-four-rounder, and the crowd booed the decision. They fought at 145 pounds.

M. B. Isbell released the preliminaries.

The card was staged by Leo McCarthy and Martin Fitzgerald under the auspices of the American Legion.
